

Round 2

29th April 2023

Match between: BBH v North Clare

A1 No Game

A2

BBH 30 v North Clare 45

North Clare came out firing and accurate shooting by Alyssa Pawelski helped secure an early lead. Emily Lines in goals helped steady the game for BBH, with some great feeding by Megan Brooks and Amelia Squire. North doubled down in the final quarter. Ella Smith set up some great plays and capitalised on her turnovers which allowed North Clare to win convincingly by fifteen.

B1

BBH 34 v North Clare 55

Both teams started strong. BBH up by three at first quarter. North Clare GS Renee Scott stepped up and moved well and shot accurately all game, giving them a lead at half time by eleven. BBH's Lily Wadlow drove well in the mid court giving opportunities to the attacking end. North Clare's GA Lara Jaeschke played a consistent game in goals.

B2

BBH 24 v North Clare 47

BBH and North Clare were well matched throughout the game. North Clare's shooting end were too strong. Sophie McLennan was such a strong target for North Clare to feed into, though Ellie Oates (BBH) was up for the challenge. Anastasia Ritchie (BBH) provided strong leads through the midcourt with excellent vision into her goalies. Tegan Maher and Elisa O'Neill were good, confusing space within North Clare's defensive end.

C1

Result: BBH 28 v North Clare 34

Great game by both teams, strong defence from both teams which kept the game fairly tight up until third quarter when North took hold of the game.

C2

BBH 37 v North Clare 30

A strong start from BBH with Amy Berryman shooting accurately. Charlotte Walker (North Clare) was strong in defence and the game was competitive until the end. BBH managed to hold on and came away with the win.

15U

BBH 77 v North Clare 10

Game started strong with BBH getting early intercepts and accurate shooting by Darcie Opperman and Anna Schuppan. North Clare fought on with GD Charlotte Wood working very hard in defence getting hands over the ball.

J1 No Game

J2

BBH 32 v North Clare 2

BBH started off strong with North Clare following behind. Great attacking with Lily Hancock (BBH) and Madison Harvey in the mid court. Great work from both teams with BBH taking a strong win.

J3

BBH v North Clare

Evenly matched in the first quarter with North Clare capitalising on opportunities despite good defence from BBH's Stella O'Bryan. North Clare upped the intensity in the second quarter with lots of intercepts. Olive Hombusch and Madeline Papps worked hard for North Clare. An even third quarter with North taking off in the fourth quarter for a convincing win.

J4

BBH v North Clare

BBH took off in the first quarter with great shooting from Lucy Quinn. The second quarter was a more even contest with both teams driving down the court. In the third quarter, North Clare took more control with great defence from Ruby Mason. In the fourth quarter, BBH had more drive and possession. North's Zavah Cook applied good defence. An even contest and well played by both teams.

J5

BBH v North Clare

North Clare started out strong with a tall, skilful team. BBH kept fighting all game with some great intercepts during the third and fourth quarter to keep North's score in check.

Match between: RSMU V BSR

A1

RSMU 36 v BSR 55

A solid start from BSR from the first whistle gave them a strong lead of eight goals at the end of the first quarter. RSMU found it hard to convert in their attack line with BSR applying consistent defensive pressure. BSR's goalies Emily Ashby and Taryn Kelly shot accurately throughout the entirety of the game making it hard work for RSMU to create turnovers. BSR were relentless and continued to dominate the game through their solid attack on the ball and great ball transition. RSMU fought the game out in the last quarter with great passages of play, however BSR were well drilled and recorded a dominant win.

A2

RSMU 61 v BSR 44

An even start by both teams saw RSMU hold the slightest of margins going into the second quarter. RSMU applied full court pressure not allowing BSR to move the ball with any fluency, followed by great hands and intercepts by RSMU's GD Simone Miller and C Kerry Heinrich. The start of the last quarter saw BSR turn the tables on RSMU with Natasha Liddy transitioning well through the midcourt into BSRs GS Alicia Thomas who held well and shot accurately. BSR took the honours in the fourth quarter, but RSMU proved to be the stronger side across the whole game and came away with a seventeen-goal win.

B1

RSMU 56 v BSR 44

It was an even start to the game from both teams with solid shooting from both Rachael McInerney (RSMU) and Any Trengrove (BSR). Scores was even at the first break. The second quarter saw RSMU hit the lead, three goals in front at the half time break after some strong passages of play and intercepts in the centre court. BSR's team remained unchanged at half time, however RSMU made a change in their forward line with Jess Hier moving into WA, which proved successful, and were eight goals up at three quarter time. This was despite BSR fighting hard in the last five minutes of the third quarter, pegging the score back due to good defence and rebounding from Emma Goss and Annie Weckert of BSR and accurate shooting from Amy Trengrove (GS). RSMU picked up in the fourth quarter with Madie Przibilla (C) continuing to feed well into the goalies, and Jaz Klavins (RSMU GK) getting her hands to some balls preventing the ever-accurate Amy Trengrove from sinking a few more. RSMU went on to win by twelve goals.

B2

RSMU 26 v BSR 42

Both teams started the game with strong endeavour fighting hard for every loose ball, ending the first quarter in a draw. The score remained close until the third quarter when BSR goalies Jasmine Ross and Holly Weckert shot accurately to set up a six-goal lead on RSMU. RSMU's defence worked hard to turn the tide and give their attack line opportunities to bridge the gap but BSR proved to be an insurmountable force. Unfortunately, RSMU went down by twelve goals in the last quarter.

C1

RSMU 35 v BSR 32

Strong start to the match with an even matchup across both teams. BSR's Brooke Witcombe shot accurately and BSR's WA Sophie Goode and C Jorja Lillecrapp drove beautifully to make the most of their centre passes. RSMU's Kasey Jenner in GD had a great game controlling the play in her area and was consistent in applying defensive pressure and turning the ball over. Defence from Tiarne Stephenson (BSR) made RSMU's goalies work hard for their goals combining well to take a three-goal lead into the final break. RSMU's Ella Dixon led well throughout the whole match and fed confidently, giving RSMU a three-goal final victory.

C2

RSMU 41 v BSR 21

An even start to the game as both teams settled into new line ups. RSMU's goalies Nicole Saunderson and Stevie Lee Dutton presented strongly as the BSR mid court of Jayde Lillecrapp and Leisha Gribble worked hard to keep their team in the game. Constant drive from RSMU centre Jess Seeliger was instrumental in the home side running away with a comfortable victory.

15U No Game

J1

RSMU 21 v BSR 24

Great start to the game by both teams with precise shooting from Paige Jones BSR. Emmison Heinrich RSMU fed the ball beautifully to the goalies. The game was goal for goal until the fourth quarter when BSR created some intercepts from the work of their GK Sophie Weckert. Jemma Miller RSMU worked tirelessly all game in GK creating plenty of opportunities for her team. A very close and consistent game from both teams with BSR sneaking away with the win.

J2 No Game

J3

RSMU v BSR

An even start to the game with accurate shooting from both ends by Isabella Thomas (BSR) and Amelia McInerney (RSMU). BSR pushed ahead slightly in the second through excellent and determined defence from Edwina Nicholls and Maya Beart-McKay (BSR). RSMU closed the margin in the second half through strong defence by Elise Bastian (RSMU) and finishing confidently with accurate shooting from Elsie Goodfellow (RSMU). A close and consistent game by both sides.

J4 & J5 No Game

Match between: South Clare v Southern Saints

A1

South Clare 32 v Southern Saints 56

A tightly contested first quarter with Saints applying defensive pressure all over the court and great shooting by Georgina Pfitzner saw the Saints lead by five at the first break. South stepped up in the second quarter with some strong defence by Sally Penny and drive down the court by Millie Lalic to get within two goals. The Saints regained control of the ball increasing the margin to six at half time. The Saints came out firing in the second half continuing to build on their lead with excellent full court pressure making it hard for South's attack line. Saints Courtney Jensen provided strong drive and accurate feeding to Kyla Newman who held strong in goals all day.

A2

South Clare 33 v Southern Saints 66

South had a great start with the defences, Emma Slattery and Rachel Slusser providing opportunities to see South take an early 5 goal lead before the Saints settled, worked hard and turned the lead over. In the second quarter Saints midcourt applied solid pressure, allowing GA Breea Schutz plenty of opportunities of which she capitalised and continued to do so into the third. Ellie Johnson went back to GS in the last quarter providing a strong target in South's goal circle, however Saints continued to increase their lead, allowing them to come away with a very convincing win.

B1

South Clare 39 v Southern Saints 50

The Southern Saints came out hungry for the ball from the first whistle with accurate shooting from Saints GA Ella Taverner. By the second quarter South's goalies found their rhythm and their feet. Both teams worked hard all over the court. South continued to fight back against a strong Saints team managing to reduce the margin in the fourth but weren't quite strong enough to match the Saints.

B2

South Clare 36 v Southern Saints 60

Saints first quarter was strong as they moved that ball steadily down the court, finishing off with strong goalies, particularly GA – Maegan Pfitzner who did not miss. Saints goalies were consistently accurate throughout four quarters, as was South Clare’s Amber Douglas. A fast game with good ball movement between South’s Billi Malycha and Libby Stringer in the centre, however Saint’s young defensive pressure was too strong. Saints finish with a convincing win.

C1

South Clare 35 v Southern Saints 42

A very evenly matched game. Both teams started strong with the first quarter being equally contested. Saints came out strong in the second quarter and took the lead. In the third quarter South Clare’s Raleigh Trias and Kath Woodrow provided strong defence, however Saints goalies didn’t miss and were able to maintain their lead. Overall a close game played well by both teams with Saints coming away with the win.

C2

South Clare 27 v Southern Saints 35

The match began fast and furiously not stopping the whole way through. Evenly matched pairings of defence and attackers on both sides. Saints managed to stay in front for the whole game with South right behind them. The fourth quarter saw the Saints extend their lead with some exceptional shooting from Julia Schutz and Lucy Engel, fed accurately from Stephanie Heidrich. South played with never ending legs and arms and amazing defensive skills from Rhiana Loughton. Lots of speed and fast passes in the mid court with Jade-Lee Fisher flying high and incredible acrobatic skills by Zoe Griffin. A great game to watch with lots of energy and great passing!

15U

South Clare 32 v Southern Saints 24

The first quarter saw the game even, going goal for goal. The Saints Ashlee Wilson and Regan Mosey fed well through the midcourt. The second half saw Saints settle and take over the game by capitalising on turnovers. Isabelle Wilson and Madi AhChee battled it out in the goal ring. South made changes in the second half that unsettled the team. The last quarter saw both teams continue to fight hard, though accurate shooting by Saints lead them to a convincing win.

J1

South Clare 36 v Southern Saints 25

A very tight first quarter with both teams working hard for the ball. Saints attacking end provided some strong leads and great feeding into Leni Geister and Zoe Neal who finished off with accurate shooting creating a three goal lead at the end of the first quarter. There were great match ups all over the court and the South fought for every loose ball and made sure they capitalised every turnover. Eloura Mosey (Saints) and Isabel Quinton (South) had a tough contest through the midcourt, both providing lots of drive and some fantastic feeding into the goal circles. South finished the game strong with great defensive pressure and accurate shooting from Isla Manhood and Cassidy Maloney.

J2

South Clare 26 v Southern Saints 6

South were extremely excited to be playing their first game of competitive netball for the season. The girls came out firing, keen to impress. Sophia Liebelt-Seymon and Eloise Nitschke prove to be a rock-solid defence making it tough for the Saints. Saints GA Angela Aves worked tirelessly all game to provide opportunities. Ruby AhChee (Saints) was strong in defence and used her height to grab any loose balls in the air. Accurate shooting from Jordie McCarthy throughout the game was fantastic with the centre court players provided a lot of drive for South. Great efforts by both teams.

J3

South Clare v Southern Saints

A great competitive game of netball with both teams applying great defensive pressure all over the court. Vedanshi Aggarwal and Amaya Craig combined well in Souths defence providing lots of opportunities for South. Ayla Schutz provided lots of drive for Saints. Angel Soto stuck tight all day making it hard for South to work the ball into their goalies. Ella Wehr came on for South at half time and provided a strong target in attack. A great game of netball by all.

J4

South Clare v Southern Saints

Fantastic netball skills and sportsmanship displayed by both teams. South Clare were off to a great start with accurate shooting by Penelope Reynolds. The Saints defenders, Nellie Mepstead and Jessica Preston, were very impressive with their intercepts and they could count on Marlee Kotz (WD, Saints) being able to find space to bring the ball down. South Clare's Dakota Sommerville (WD) and Jazlyn Sudan (WA) provided some great options in the mid court for their team and picking up any loose balls. Well done to all players, it was a great game to watch!

J5 No Game

Match between: Min-Man v Blyth/Snowtown

A1

MinMan 38 v Blyth/Snowtown 39

Both teams started strong and hard with fast play down the court. MinMan's Gracie Ross provided turnovers allowing MinMan a chance to score. Blyth Snowtown started the second quarter determined to hit the lead capitalising on turnovers. Half time score, 23 to 18 MinMan leading. Blyth/Snowtown had a strong, third quarter narrowing the lead, they had good play coming out of defence, scoring on turnovers with MinMan being up at three-quarter time. Strong play by Maggie Henschke in both ends of the court. Great last quarter by Blyth/Snowtown with accurate shooting, gave them the lead to win the game by one.

A2

MinMan 43 v Blyth/Snowtown 40

Even first quarter with MinMan applying good defence at the end of the quarter to pull ahead by one goal. An even second quarter with MinMan up by one goal at half time. Steady shooting by Kristen Allchurch in the third quarter but still anyone's game. At three quarter time MinMan were up by two. It was a game of defensive pressure and turnovers, Lucy Nicholls and Ashlee Zadow making some great interceptions for MinMan. The pressure captured in the last quarter with MinMan the winners by three at the end.

B1

MinMan 46 v Blyth/Snowtown 30

Report: Strong first quarter by MinMan with accurate shooting by GS Emma Koch. Tight defence work by Helena Blieschke and Karen Palmer challenged the Blyth Snowtown shooters. MinMan continued to strongly attack in the second quarter but Blyth Snowtown stayed in touch with good movement in the ring. An even third quarter kept Blyth Snowtown in touch with consistent shooting by Lauren Ferme. In the final quarter MinMan GS Emma Koch continued to dominate resulting in a solid win to Min Man.

B2

MinMan 38 v Blyth/Snowtown 40

Strong start with Blyth Snowtown taking an early lead. MinMan settled and increased their pressure in defence to even the score at quarter time. MinMan Continued their momentum and increased accuracy in goals. Blyth Snowtown's defence through the centre troubled the min man attacked who made unforced errors. MinMan worked hard to create space and held a seven goal lead at three quarter time. Blyth Snowtown came out in the fourth with increased intensity and dominated the last quarter. Congratulations to Bernie Altman on her 450 games!

C1

MinMan 54 v Blyth/Snowtown 20

An even start accurate shooting from both teams. MinMan started to play a great defensive game right down the court with MinMan shooters Scarlett Parker and Gabbi Scobie combining well. Blyth Snowtown made changes and had a stronger third quarter but MinMan refocussed and finished with a good win.

C2

MinMan 52 v Blyth/Snowtown 18

Strong court play by MinMan with accurate shooting from Laura Willmott and Sam Degoumois. Brianna Jamieson did some strong intercepts at WD for Blyth Snowtown. MinMan increased the lead as the game progressed. Good movement down the court by MinMan.

15U

MinMan 49 v Blyth/Snowtown 39

Both teams started off strong with MinMan to be up by ten at half time. Blyth Snowtown GA Skye Esbary accuracy was strong allowing her team to stay in the game. Both teams put up a strong fight but MinMan came away with the win.

J1

MinMan 18 v Blyth/Snowtown 16

Both teams started strong with Blyth taking the lead at quarter time. Kartia Altmann was strong for Blyth Snowtown in attack. MinMan came back in the third quarter with strong defence to level the score by three quarter time. The final quarter went goal for goal with MinMan taking the lead and winning by two goals in the end.

J2 No Game

J3

MinMan v Blyth/Snowtown

Strong work through the mid court by both teams. Lacey Lilliecrap MinMan defended well and picked up some intercepts through the mid court. MinMan kept working hard and never gave up, using strategies taught at training. Blyth Snowtown had very strong play through the middle.

Excellent shooting by Georgia Schramm and Harriet Walker from Blyth Snowtown. The score didn't reflect the game quality as there was good play by both teams throughout.

J4

MinMan v Blyth/Snowtown

Great contested by both MinMan and Blyth Snowtown. Ruby Kells started the game strong in goals for Blyth Snowtown shooting very accurately. MinMan came in strong in the second half with tight defence by Iyla Allmond and Molly Longbottom. Overall a competitive game of netball by both teams.

J5

MinMan v Blyth/Snowtown

Great even game with plenty of movement up and down the court. Leni Ottens playing a strong game for Blyth/Snowtown, while Lexie Lillecrapp led well providing plenty of options for MinMan.