

Round 10

19th July 2025

BLYTH SNOWTOWN Vs RSMU

A1

Blyth Snowtown 31 V RSMU 38

RSMU had a great start with accurate shooting by Kelsey Noll to take the lead by five at quarter time. RSMU's defensive pressure meant Blyth Snowtown had to work hard in attack with limited options and had to resort to passing back to the line. Blyth Snowtown rallied in the second quarter to reduce the margin to one at half time with improved shooting and movement when Lucy Bruce entered the court at GA. Blyth Snowtown never went away, but RSMU had control for most of the game.

A2

Blyth Snowtown 52 V RSMU 44

RSMU got off to a good start, with accurate shooting by Jess McInerney, up by six at quarter time. Blyth Snowtown made changes to pull themselves back level, with the speed of Kartia Altmann in the goal ring having an impact. RSMU fought back, two up at half time. Blyth Snowtown defenders increased their work rate turning more balls over, giving them a four goal lead at three quarter time. RSMU's Tegan Przebilla tight defence helped pull RSMU back within two, but Blyth Snowtown stepped it up again and finished with a seven goal win.

B1

Blyth Snowtown 50 V RSMU 34

Blyth Snowtown got off to a good start, with accurate shooting by Nicola Ross and Rachel Carling. RSMU came out determined in the second quarter and outscored Blyth Snowtown. Blyth Snowtown's defensive pressure and consistent feeding helped them edge away again in the third. Tammi Mullins played a solid game for RSMU. Blyth Snowtown continued to increase pressure all down the court and capitalise on turnovers to come away with the win.

B2

Blyth Snowtown 45 V RSMU 41

A strong start from both teams after an exciting match in their last meet. Despite the quick hands and solid reading of the ball from Marris Hunt from RSMU, the centre combination of Blyth Snowtown's Belinda Stringer and Kerrie Weckert providing class and feeds closed the first quarter with a three goal lead to Blyth Snowtown. Georgia Daniell came out with strong rebounding for Blyth Snowtown and RSMU folded slightly under the full court pressure from Blyth Snowtown, who pushed their lead to seven goals. RSMU lifted with accurate shooting by Chloe Oakly and Chenelle Busch, putting Blyth Snowtown under pressure to close the gap. Despite efforts from Jordy Pervis, Amanda Harris and Kristie Pengilly were too strong in the ring, finishing the game with another win for Blyth Snowdown.

C1

Blyth Snowtown 46 V RSMU 34

Both teams came out strong, with smooth play and quick goals, however, a few intercepts by Blyth Snowtown saw them lead at the first quarter break. Blyth Snowtown defence ramped up in the second quarter, picking up multiple intercepts in the goal third with the rest of the team executing clean leads down the court. Accurate shooting from Aleesha Baker and Taryn Sochacki saw them reward the hard work from the defenders, Blyth Snowtown went into the second half with a solid lead. RSMU shooters Lucy Smith and Molly Goodfellow found their operating rhythm, with RSMU gaining some ground in the third quarter, however, they were no match for Maddy Ward from Blyth Snowtown who took numerous clean intercepts which resulted in goal.

C2

Blyth Snowtown 22 V RSMU 40

Blyth Snowtown faced a tough contest against third-placed RSMU, with the game starting off at a high intensity. RSMU's strong attacking play and pressure saw them take an early lead. Blyth Snowtown fought hard throughout the match, showing determination across the court, particularly through the midcourt. Despite their efforts and moments of strong defensive pressure, RSMU's sharp midcourt connection and accurate shooting proved difficult to contain.

INTERMEDIATE 1

Blyth Snowtown 26 V RSMU 49

RSMU were efficient and skilled in taking the lead early. Ryleigh Senar moved and shot well for RSMU and Jemma Miller took plenty of intercepts as well. Blyth Snowtown found some rhythm and worked hard to try and catch up on the scoreboard, but RSMU responded with increased effort and drive. Lily Stirling made some good turnovers for Blyth Snowtown in defence, but RSMU took an easy win in the end.

INTERMEDIATE 2

Blyth Snowtown 24 V RSMU 38

RSMU started well with lovely movement of the ball into the ring, Laina Clarke for RSMU held strong in the ring with great positioning and converted well. Blyth Snowtown continued to work hard with some lovely intercepts and feeding into the ring by Milly Davies. RSMU's accurate shooting saw them come away with a convincing win.

JUNIOR 1

Blyth Snowtown 39 V RSMU 24

Blyth Snowtown started strong with excellent pressure and intercepts from Taylee Clifford down the court and Harper McCormack. Phoebe Rowett had great drives through the centre and passing into Aurora Wilden who moved well in goals for RSMU. Blyth Snowtown capitalised on turnovers and had a great lead by half time. RSMU kept fighting with good defence by Amelia McInerney. Matilda Manhood had great leads and passes into the goals as well as holding strong in the ring.

JUNIOR 2

Blyth Snowtown 15 V RSMU 5

Solid start by Blyth Snowtown with smooth passages of play and accurate shooting by Florence Fabian. RSMU upped the intensity with solid pressure in the ring and some lovely attacking moves by Avie Osman. Blyth Snowtown kept chasing and extended their lead finishing solidly with lots of mid court pressure and intercepts.

SUB-JUNIOR 1

Blyth Snowtown V RSMU

Both teams started consistently, with lots of strong drives down the court. Blyth Snowtown turned over many balls converting with great shooting from Indi Hitch. RSMU fought hard every quarter. Great game played by all.

SUB-JUNIOR 2

Blyth Snowtown V RSMU

Everyone came out eager and ready to play. Steady plays by both teams saw a very evenly matched game. Changes to both Blyth Snowtown and RSMU saw the defensive pressure build from both sides. The game was very well contested all over the court with impressive plays by young and up coming netballers.

NCNC v BBH

A1

NCNC 59 V BBH 50

Enthusiastic start to the game from both teams with hard drive and fast play. BBH's goalies Shannon Caire and Shae Glacken causing North's defence problems with their movement in the circle. Scores even at the end of the first quarter. Kirsty Baum and Annie Fewster drove hard to North through the centre with both teams making some changes at half time. BBH had a strong start to the last quarter, but Emily Driver defended and drove hard for North down the court. Bella Rawlings shot confidently, helping North Clare edge ahead and maintain the lead to the final whistle. A well fought game from both teams across all four quarters.

A2

NO GAME

B1

NCNC 49 V BBH 47

North Clare and BBH had an even start, with both teams showing great passages of play. BBH edged ahead to take a narrow lead at the first break. In the second quarter, North Clare lifted their intensity, gaining momentum and turning the game around to lead by two at half time. The final quarter saw BBH fight back with accurate shooting from their goalies, but North Clare held their composure under pressure and held on to claim a hard-fought two-goal victory.

B2

NCNC 43 V BBH 48

BBH came out confidently, capitalising on every opportunity early in the game. A standout contest unfolded between North Clare's Alex Butterick and BBH's Amy Berryman, with both players battling hard throughout.

North Clare lifted their intensity in the third quarter, closing the gap to just one goal at the final break. Both teams fought hard right to the final whistle, but BBH proved too strong in the end, claiming key intercepts in the last quarter to secure the win.

C1

NCNC 29 V BBH 58

BBH made an early jump on the scoreboard and continued to build on their lead throughout the game. Reagan Van Geresten was a key target in the goal ring, with BBH's teamwork allowing them to capitalise on North's unforced errors.

In defence, Kelly Devine and Mel Cooper were relentless, turning over multiple balls and disrupting North's flow. For North, Olivia Muchan shot accurately while Paige Blacksell provided strong feeds into the circle.

Despite the scoreline, the young North Clare side never gave up. However, BBH's experience across the court ultimately proved too much, securing them a solid win.

C2

NCNC 31 V BBH 35

Strong defensive efforts from both North and BBH resulted in a tightly contested first quarter. BBH's defensive pressure intensified in the second, forcing errors in North's passing, though North regained composure to finish the half strongly.

The second half saw a close contest, with much of the play going goal for goal. However, BBH's accuracy in the goal ring proved decisive, allowing them to edge ahead and take the win.

A great tussle from both teams in a well-fought match.

INTERMEDIATE 1

NCNC 28 V BBH 41

North came out with intent, applying incredibly tight defensive pressure in the first quarter through Ava Smith and Zoe Lynch. Emmy-Lou Cooper and Lilly Hancock were standout performers through the midcourt for BBH, picking up crucial turnovers in the second quarter.

Both teams made changes at the halftime break, with Millie Bavistock bringing confident movement to the ring for BBH. BBH entered the third quarter with an 8-goal lead and continued to build momentum, ultimately outclassing North Clare with a dominant 13-goal win.

INTERMEDIATE 2

NCNC 19 V BBH 62

BBH secured a convincing win over North with accurate shooting and consistent pace across the entire court. Their attacking combinations remained strong from start to finish.

North applied solid defensive pressure, particularly through Bella Stevens and Carla Verco, who worked tirelessly to slow the momentum. Despite their efforts, BBH's shooters Darcy Opperman and Abby Sheridan were clinical in the ring, barely missing a shot and helping to seal the win.

JUNIOR 1

NCNC 7 V BBH 37

BBH delivered a dominant performance against North, securing a convincing win with sharp shooting and relentless drive across the entire court. Their attacking combinations were seamless, displaying confidence, cohesion, and class from the first whistle to the last. Despite determined defensive efforts from North Clare's backline and some great passages of play throughout the match, BBH's superior court coverage and precision under the post proved unstoppable. A powerful all-round performance from a team in top form.

JUNIOR 2

NCNC 14 V BBH 23

BBH started strong in the first quarter with excellent defence and accurate shooting to take an early lead. North Clare responded in the second quarter with great drive through the centre and strong intercepts from Lucy Redden, going into half time with scores level.

The third quarter was tightly contested, but BBH pulled away in the last quarter with impressive movement in the ring and accurate shooting from Jorja Gebhardt to secure the win.

SUB-JUNIOR 1

NCNC V BBH

The game began with a tightly contested first quarter, with both teams evenly matched. In the second quarter, BBH grew in confidence, forcing North Clare into errors and tightening their grip on the game. Elyse Rogers led a strong defensive effort, creating a tight circle alongside Caitlin Victor in attack. Charlee-Rose Bevan's amazing shooting kept BBH ahead as they pulled away in the final quarter to secure the win. A great display of teamwork and determination from both teams.

SUB-JUNIOR 2

NNCNC V BBH

North Clare started strong, moving the ball well down the court and showing great teamwork from all players.

BBH's tight defence, led by Molly Noack and Meila Down in the goal circle, made it harder for North Clare to score in the first quarter.

Despite this, North Clare's accurate shooting from Mabel Sherriff helped them pull ahead, though BBH kept fighting hard throughout the whole game.

MIN MAN V SOUTHERN SAINTS

A1

MIN MAN 54 SS 40

A fast, strong game with tough contests throughout the court had the scores level at half time. There was accurate shooting from both teams making every position work hard and dominate their zones.

Min Mans Charlie Ross and Molly Ross made it hard for Southern Saints defenders in the ring.

Southern Saints Bridie Fitzgerald and Jourdan Jenke in goals also put pressure on Min Mans Annie Wheare and Olivia Hadley making them work hard to keep the Southern Saints from scoring.

Min Man came out in the last quarter dominating across the court to take a comfortable win.

A2 MIN MAN 39 SS 33

Southern Saints started strong and fast with great attacking play and solid defending, shooting a handful of quick goals before Min Man got on the board. Min Man then settled to be only 1 goal down at quarter time, both teams capitalising on each other's mistakes.

The second and third quarters were fairly evenly contested by both teams, but Min Man gained the upper hand with good attacking netball and strong defending to lead by 8 at three quarter time.

Southern Saints worked hard in the last quarter to get within 6 goals, but Min Man held strong for the win.

B1

MIN MAN 30 SS 25

Min Man came out strong in the first quarter, setting the pace early. Southern Saints responded with intensity in the second, closing the gap with fast transitions and determined play. A tightly contested third quarter saw Min Man maintain a narrow lead under pressure. The Saints' goalies were clinical, keeping them in striking distance. Both teams fought hard to the end in a high-energy clash.

B2

MIN MAN 42 SS 33

Strong start by both sides with Southern Saints Carissa Wood shooting accurately. Scores were even at half time but a change in defence for Min Man created opportunities allowing them to draw ahead. Min Mans Lydia Schwartz and Charlotte Muller shot strongly in the second half to secure the win.

C1

MIN MAN 40 SS 45

It was a strong and even start from both teams, but the Southern Saints pulled ahead with a four-goal lead by the end of the first quarter, thanks to some accurate shooting.

In the second quarter, Jodie Mosey and Amy MEMPSTEAD continued to build momentum for the Southern Saints with clean, confident shots, while Min Man's Bridie Mitchell and Larni Cook worked hard in defence to slow the pace.

The third quarter saw plenty of ball movement across the court, but the Southern Saints maintained control and extended their lead to nine goals.

Both teams came out firing in a fast-paced final quarter, showing plenty of grit and determination. Despite Min Man's efforts, the Southern Saints held their ground and came away with a well-earned win.

C2

MIN MAN 44 SS 46

Both teams started off a bit shaky but soon settled in. Southern Saints goal defence Bridgett Williams stood out early with strong defensive pressure while Min Mans Chloe Kerber controlled the mid court with calm and consistent play in Centre. Accurate shooting from Julia Schutz helped Southern Saints maintain a narrow lead throughout the match. Min man fought back hard in the final quarter making the score even. A couple of costly errors by Min Man and sharp shooting from Southern Saints gave them the lead by two points in the end.

INTERMEDIATE 1

MIN MAN 37 SS 22

Both teams came out strong and both took advantage of loose balls and intercepts. Min man centre Dakota Giles and Wing Attack Taylah Cook allowed min man to pull away in the second half with great driving down the court. Southern Saints shooters Zoe Neal and Angela Aves were accurate throughout the game but min man came away with the win by 15 points.

INTERMEDIATE 2

MIN MAN 46 SS 20

An evenly contested first quarter, but great goalie movement and accurate shooting from Min Mans Ella Lloyd and Marissa Ross saw them set the pass early in the second quarter. High flying intercepts from Min Mans Millie Duncan and defensive pressure from Min Mans Alliahna Hodges saw Min Man well in control. Although Southern Saints Angela Aves and Eloura Mosey with plenty drive and defensive pressure, Min Man finished the game with a comfortable win.

JUNIOR 1

MIN MAN 37 SS 8

A strong start by Min Man with GA Lacey Lillecrapp playing well. The second quarter was tighter with Southern Saints Nellie Mepstead attacking well in the centre court. MinMan increased their lead further in the third all making top efforts all over the court. Min Man's consistent four quarter performance secured them a convincing win.

JUNIOR 2

MIN MAN 27 SS 8

A competitive and fast-paced game from the first whistle saw the ball move evenly up and down the court, with both sides applying pressure across all areas.

Min Man found their rhythm in the second quarter, breaking away thanks to sharp shooting from Kezia Jones. Southern Saints maintained strong momentum throughout the game, with C Addison Williams standing out for her control and drive through the midcourt. Min Man's solid court play and accurate shooting proved the difference, securing them a well-earned win.

SUB-JUNIOR 1

MIN MAN V SS

Great game with both teams displaying tenacity and resilience. The game featured numerous intercepts and plenty of mid court action, keeping the momentum balanced and the girls engaged. The Southern Saints worked tirelessly in defense, applying excellent pressure. However Min-Man were able to capitalize from turnovers.

Evie Baraglia had an excellent day in the goal ring, shooting with accuracy and confidence.

SUB-JUNIOR 2

MIN MAN VS SS

The Sub Junior 2 girls took to the court for an exciting game at Manoora. Both Min Man and Eudunda Robertstown showed fantastic teamwork and energy. The girls' passing, defending, and spacing have improved so much this season. Great effort all round—well done, girls!

BSR VS SOUTH CLARE

A1

BSR 38 vs South Clare 33

It was a fast paced contest and sharp ball movement from both sides, BSR leading at quarter time by four. South capitalised in the second quarter, tightening the margin and reducing BSR's lead. BSR responded with intense full court pressure, forcing turnovers with intercepts by Emma Young & Ashleigh Thiele but missed opportunities. In the final quarter, BSR started strongly, quickly scoring a couple of goals to regain momentum and held their lead to the final whistle.

A2

BSR 46 vs South Clare 49

South Clare came away with a hard fought 3 goal win in a closely contested match.

Both teams showed strong passages of play, with tight defence making scoring difficult at times. Despite the pressure, shooting remained largely accurate at both ends, keeping the game close throughout. South Clare edged ahead in the final quarter, capitalising on a few key turnovers and holding their nerve under pressure to seal the win. A great game played with intensity and determination by both sides.

B1

BSR 47 vs South Clare 43

Today's game was a closely contested game. With both teams providing strong and consistent defence. BSR's Emma Goss and Lexi Bache worked well together with many turn overs, gaining a comfortable lead by BSR at half time. In the second half South Clare turned up the intensity and shortened the lead, South Clare's shooters Isabelle Wilson and Emily Nordhausen showed great accuracy in the circle. Overall, the consistency shown by Lara Meyer and Tash Harper in goals got BSR the win with the final score being 47-43.

B2

BSR 48 vs South Clare 41

BSR had a solid start against a strong South Clare team. South worked hard to capitalise on turnovers by working the ball effectively down the court. Scarlett Sims (SC) was accurate in the ring for South, helping them gain on BSR. BSR's Erin Cousins (GD) provided great defensive pressure through the mid court and into the goal ring. After an already tough three quarters, Sophie Goode (WA) for BSR had a powerful fourth quarter with accurate feeding into goalies. BSR took the win in the end.

C1

BSR 41vs South Clare 44

South Clare opened confidently and strongly establishing an early lead, leading by 7 goals at half time. South goalies Abbey Clarke and Bianca Muir working well together in the goal ring shooting accurately taking Souths lead to 9 by the end of the third quarter. BSR were determined and kept the pressure on with Lily Ehlers and Nadja McPherson turning the ball over in the mid court. The last quarter saw some exciting netball with BSR making a come back and leading by a goal in the last few minutes of the game. South proved that they were too strong on the day fighting back and taking the lead, securing the win by 3 goals. Well done to all.

C2

BSR 23 vs South Clare 33

In what was always going to be a good game between these clubs, and it proved to fast paced from the first whistle. Outstanding shooting from South Clare's Jordie McCarthy was the difference in the two teams today. SC's Tiarna Wastell in WD also made it difficult for the BSR offense, frustrating passing to the in-form Amy Trengove (GS) and Sierra Heard (GA). Sarah Pilkington in (GD) was all over the court with 10 turnovers and well over a dozen taps. Denisia Jackson, ever consistent in GK kept South Clare's shooters frustrated, but ultimately, they prevailed. Kath Woodrow and Izzy Price in defence for South provided great defensive pressure to halt BSR movement down the court. A great game to watch with South proving to be the stronger team on the day!

INTERMEDIATE 1

BSR 43 vs South Clare 23

In a clash between the top two teams, both teams started strong with tight defensive pressure all over the court. BSR made the most of their opportunities in the first quarter, going into the first break with a 10-goal lead. BSR continued widening their lead with turnovers from midcourters Ava White and Ivy Weckert. South Clares' Elise Wilson and Jordy McCarthy shot accurately in the third quarter. BSR finished strong with accurate shooting from Billi Nicholson and Lara Meyer, beating the top side by 20 goals.

INTERMEDIATE 2

No game

JUNIOR 1

BSR 20 vs South Clare 23

South Clare started strong and quickly cemented a lead, BSR defenders Sophie Adams, Skyla Andrew and Isabella Thomas fought hard and turned over multiple balls that saw BSR take the lead late in the second quarter. BSR continued to extend this lead throughout the third quarter but changes to South Clares line up at 3 quarter time saw them very quickly regain the lead in the fourth quarter and end up winning 23-20.

JUNIOR 2

BSR 28 vs South Clare 6

BSR started the game strongly with sharp passing and quick movements across court. South Clare responded early with some quick goals. The second quarter saw BSR defence take control, and the shooters were on target for BSR. The lead increased and grew throughout the second half. Late goals from South Clare resulted in a score of 28-6.

SUB-JUNIOR 1

BSR vs South Clare

In a game where South Clare were dominant, Ivy Weckert and Sadie Thomas from BSR played a strong four quarters with solid passing and movement across the court. From South Clare Chloe Pilkington Sophie Becker provide tireless efforts to get the ball to their goalies and convert. A great game played by all, showing great skill development and teamwork.

SUB-JUNIOR 2

BSR vs South Clare

Both teams came out showing improvement since the start of the season. It was an even competition through the mid court with great display of their netball skills. The defensive pressure from BSR was strong in the first half and the accuracy of the South Clare shooters was shown in the second half. Both teams looked to have fun, and it was a great game to watch.