

Round 1

25/26th April 2025

SOUTH CLARE Vs BBH

A1

South Clare 51 V BBH 21

Both teams came out with something to prove. South settled first with accurate shooting from Slazz Heinrich and Kristy McCarthy. BBH came out firing in the second quarter with excellent shooting from Emily Lines and Shae Glacken, making the most of their opportunities. South settled in the second half with a great team defence from Hailey Greenhill, Rachel Weidemann and Courtney Stone to come away with a strong win.

A2

No game

B1

South Clare 56 V BBH 39

South Clare and BBH delivered a consistent and competitive match, with both teams showing strong form across all four quarters. BBH's shooters, Kloe Berryman and Danielle McKinnirey, were accurate and composed, but South's defenders Loren Liebelt and Lauren Nitschke worked hard to counter their polished attack. While the game was closely contested, South Clare capitalised well on turnovers and came away with a well-earned win.

South Clare 52 V BBH 31

For the first game of the season both teams settled early. The height of Souths Chloe Stanway and Rhiana Laughton made it difficult for BBHs goalies to score. In the second quarter, positional changes were made and Candice Lewis from BBH created movement in their goal circle. South's Tahlia Bridger provided a strong drive onto the ring. Souths Issy Wilson shot true all game with BBHs Ellie Oates working hard to gain turnovers. South played strong as a team right to the finish though BBH never gave up.

C1

South Clare 29 V BBH 38

BBH came out with a team of experience, and tight defence throughout the first half, with South's Emma Mildren matching their defence. The first quarter saw BBH take the lead by 3. The second quarter saw some fire in South, matching their scores to an even 17 at the half way mark. Again, a tight and consistent third quarter from both teams led both teams to an even score of 26 each. In the last quarter, BBH were too strong, capitalising on South's errors to end the game strong with a lead of 9. A well fought game by both teams for the start of the season.

South Clare 29 V BBH 36

A tough game from the first whistle, with tight, goal for goal gameplay throughout the first half. A strong matchup was seen within the first quarter in South Clares goal ring, with South's Jordie McCarthy standing BBH's Ashlee Pontt. South Clare were down going into the third quarter as BBH's defence lifted. BBH's WA Jade Dalla maintained a tight game in the mid court with both teams manning up well. Despite a strong game from both teams, BBH came out firing in the last quarter, holding a strong lead and taking the win by 7 goals.

Inter 1

South Clare 42 V BBH 36

A strong game from the start, with the score being close for most of the match. South defence held strong with Maddison Wehr and Lilli Schupelius picking up intercepts and rebounds. BBH defence was equally strong in holding out South's shooters. Both sides' mid courters worked well with the rain and slippery court. South proved stronger in the end to get the 6 goal win.

South Clare 16 V BBH 78

BBH's strength from the start was undeniable. Their defence capitalised on loose balls and creating turnovers, feeding their accurate shooters who proved relentless. Despite South's strong defensive efforts, they struggled to convert these into scoring opportunities.

J1

South Clare 16 V BBH 29

The first half saw an even contest with both teams finding form early. BBH's Pippa Benson and South's Sophia Liebelt-Seymon provided turnovers for their team. Maddie Harvey and Tess Chapman had a great contest throughout the match. Mia Thompson and Amali Murphy drove well through the middle. In the last quarter BBH stepped up their intensity to come away with a strong win.

South Clare 21 V BBH 9

Both teams had good movement in the goal circle with BBH's Jorja Gebhardt leading strong. South Clare's shooters Ashli Wastell and Scarlett McDonnell working well together.

SJ1

South Clare V BBH

South started well with good movement through the court. BBHs defence was strong, but accurate shooting from Charlette Ottens helped South control their game. The second half was tightly fought with both teams striving for control of the ball.

South Clare V BBH

Amazing first game for Sub Junior 2's, with most playing their very first game. Great shooting by Emily Young with Mila Allmond providing a great run through the centre. Pia Giles and Evelyn Drummond played strong in defence. BBH's Meila Down had a great game in defence and attack playing both ends of the court. While Annie Hall had a great game in the centre.

SAINTS Vs BSR

Saints 30 Vs BSR 51

A tightly contested first quarter saw both teams matching each other goal for goal. BSR capitalised on Saints' errors with smothering defence. The Saints responded, switching on in both attack and defence, gaining crucial turnovers to stay within reach. BSR maintained relentless full-court pressure, while Saints lifted their intensity. However, BSR dominated across all areas of the court, extending their lead by twelve heading into the final quarter. In the last, BSR asserted their dominance, with Marlee George and Bec Kitschke combining seamlessly through the mid-court. Saints' Mem Dunstan was a standout, playing an instrumental role.

Saints 41 Vs BSR 54

Precise passing was key in the opening quarter. An unsettled Saints outfit allowed BSR to score easy goals and take a narrow lead. Tight defensive pressure from BSR challenged Saints' ability to move the ball swiftly, though defensive duo Claire Schiller and Morghan Prior created important turnovers. Saints continued to work hard to find gaps in BSR's polished play but ultimately found the challenge too great on the day.

Saints 34 – BSR 23

The Saints got off to a strong start, establishing an early lead with composed play across the court. Defenders Alix Mosey and Matilda O'Brien were impressive, applying great defensive pressure and creating crucial scoring opportunities for the Saints. BSR's wing defence, Nikita Morgan, worked hard to turn the momentum with several important interceptions. Despite a tightly contested match, Saints proved too strong, maintaining their composure to come away with a well-earned victory.

Saints 35 BSR 45

The first quarter saw a goal-for-goal battle, with Saints picking off several intercepts across the court. Saints found their rhythm in the second quarter, clawing back BSR's lead to just three goals. BSR steadied and built a five-goal buffer by three-quarter time, before powering away in the final term. The Saints fought hard until the end, but BSR's strength shone through.

Saints 33 Vs BSR 43

BSR's tight defence and strong intercepts, led by Amy Mepstead, made a significant impact early. Accurate shooting from BSR's GA gave them a slight edge. Saints made a few changes to spark momentum, but turnovers created by BSR kept them in control. A special mention to Jodie Mosey for her outstanding shooting performance in her 500th game.

Saints: 34 - BSR 25

Both teams started quickly, but midway through the first quarter Saints settled and netted some great goals. The Saints pushed ahead in the second quarter with strong defensive pressure. The third quarter saw a spirited comeback by BSR, applying intense defensive pressure. However, Saints stayed composed in the final quarter, securing a solid finish.

Inter 1

Saints 23 Vs BSR 46

Both teams started strong, but BSR found their groove early in the second quarter with accurate shooting. Saints responded with strong intercepts to create opportunities for their goalies. However, BSR maintained a strong and consistent game to claim the win.

Saints 7 – BSR 37

BSR started the game strongly, creating great intercepts early to take control. The Saints remained consistent and worked hard across the court, but BSR's defensive pressure continued to create plenty of turnovers. Grace Jenke and Nellie Mepstead had standout performances, helping to lessen the impact of BSR's dominant win.

Saints 7- BSR 22

BSR began strongly, making the most of their scoring opportunities despite even possession between teams. The ball flowed freely to both ends, with all girls putting up a determined contest. In the third quarter, BSR GD Madeline Hayes provided strong pressure against the Saints' attack line. Saints made several changes for the final quarter, with Lexi Stubbs (GD) and Skylar Grimwade (GK) providing solid defence. Despite Saints' persistence, BSR took a comfortable 16-goal win.

Sub J 1

Both teams started strongly in the first quarter, showing plenty of enthusiasm and energy. Saints were particularly sharp in attack during the second quarter, while BSR worked hard to apply pressure in defence. In the third quarter, BSR found their rhythm with strong, accurate passing, helping them build momentum. Overall, it was a fantastic first game of the season for both teams, with plenty of promising signs for the year ahead.

Sub J 2

Both teams took to the court with some early nerves in their first game of the season, but it was Saints who settled quicker, getting off to a strong start. After some changes, BSR found their groove and matched the intensity, leading to a fantastic and competitive game by both sides. There was great teamwork and improvement shown throughout the match.

RSMU V NORTH CLARE

RSMU 51 NORTH CLARE 27

RSMU and North Clare played out a competitive and entertaining A1 match, with RSMU pulling ahead thanks to a dominant second quarter. After a tight opening term, RSMU lifted their intensity, applying pressure all over the court to build a strong lead heading into half time — a margin that proved crucial in the end. Sophie Griffiths was outstanding for RSMU in Goal Shooter, holding strong under the post and finishing with accuracy. Kerry Heinrich and Sarah Noack also had a major impact in defence, making it extremely difficult for North Clare to feed the ball into their goal circle. Their tight pressure and ability to force turnovers were key to RSMU's success. For North Clare, Tayla Edwards stood out with a hardworking and composed performance, while Kirsty Baum was solid across all four quarters, providing consistency and drive for her team. Both sides played with great spirit and determination, but RSMU's strong second quarter gave them the momentum they needed to claim the win.

RSMU 43 NORTH CLARE 36

RSMU started the game strongly, scoring from the first few centre passes. Great shooting from Jess McInerney and Zoe Heir gave RSMU a two-goal lead at quarter time. North Clare started the second quarter strongly with great ball movement and feeding into North goalies Renee Scott and Stacey Mugge. The third quarter saw plenty of even play throughout the court with the mid-courtiers from both teams running solid games and finding their attackers with ease. Defence from both ends worked exceptionally well all game getting several turnovers and intercepts. RSMU finished the game winners by seven.

RSMU 52 NORTH CLARE 30

A great start to the season with both teams keen to get off on the right foot. The first five minutes was frantic netball running out early game energy. RSMU steadied the better of the two teams and were able to make the most of their scoring opportunities. An even second quarter saw some great passages of play and desperation to create turnovers. The third quarter was the big difference with RSMU's Kalee Noble deflecting many of North's attacking moves and accurate finishing by newcomer Carley Piggott saw RSMU take the quarter by 13 goals. North Clare rallied in the last quarter through Leonie Player and Ellie Redden to provide a more even contest. RSMU was too strong in the end.

RSMU 35 NORTH CLARE 19

RSMU started decisively taking the lead in the first quarter. North fought back in the second quarter with great defensive pressure by Alex Butterick and accurate shooting by Lilli Smith. RSMU's full court defensive play kept the game interesting with tight pressure from Amanda Vandeleur. RSMU kept the lead in the last quarter to have a strong finish, and accurate shooting by Chloe Oakley.

RSMU 44 NORTH CLARE 18

RSMU started strongly with the accuracy of RSMU goalies Lucy Smith and Stevie Lee Dutton playing a major role in the seventeen-goal lead at half time. North made some changes at half time and accurate shooting by Olivia Muchan saw them claw back some of the deficit. Great defence by RSMU's Alyssa Allen and Tegan Senar saw RSMU maintain the lead and come away with a twenty-six goal win.

RSMU 41 NORTH CLARE 29

RSMU shot out of the blocks and raced to an eight-goal lead at the first break, with Penny Goodfellow and Emma Zanette providing great drive through the centre court. North came storming back after some positional changes, with Yana Zanette going in to goals and shooting the lights out to reduce the deficit to one during the third quarter, as the North defence led by Sam Davey stood tall. RSMU steadied, and with Lizzie Rex moving to goal keeper and creating crucial turnovers, the home side finished with a 12-goal victory in the first version of the Zanette cup!

RSMU 46 NORTH CLARE 14

RSMU hit the court with a great level of intensity, taking an early lead over North Clare. Opportunities presented early in the second quarter for North Clare who took the ball on, however RSMU's tight pressure in circle defence from GD Jemma Miller and GK Leighla Brown was hard to beat. RSMU continued to move the ball down the court well in the second half, providing their goalies with great feed. North Clare's GK Sophie Green contested the ball well and made RSMU goalies work hard to score. RSMU were too strong in the end, displaying a great brand of netball for the first game of the season.

RSMU 36 NORTH CLARE 10

RSMU came out ready to play with strong full court defensive pressure from Macy Glynn and Sienna Condon. North Clare had a strong third quarter and capitalised on great ball movement through the midcourt by Aimee Lang and Carla Verco. It was an excellent contest and RSMU finished off with a convincing win.

RSMU 32 NORTH CLARE 12

RSMU started strongly, turning North Clare's first centre pass. RSMU defenders Elise Bastian (GK) and Amelia McInerney (GD) were an impenetrable wall, keeping North Clare to just two goals. Changes in the second quarter benefited North Clare and they were able to go goal for goal with RSMU, winning the second quarter by one. At the main break, RSMU led 14 to seven. RSMU had a very strong second half, with accurate and high volume shooting from Aurora Wilden (GA) and precision passing from Phoebe Rowett (C).

RSMU 12 NORTH CLARE 9

RSMU transitioned the ball cleanly with precision to commence the game. Grayce Kelman (GA) was accurate in goals, rewarding the great defensive efforts of Estelle McInerney (GK) & Taina Williams (GD). North Clare steadied and fought back in the second half through Ellie Meaney (C) and Charlotte Ward (GA).

SJ1

RSMU and North Clare played out a strong and competitive netball match, with both teams showing great skill and teamwork. RSMU's defence was led by Anna Wewzow and Pippa Miller, who worked hard to limit North Clare's scoring opportunities with tight pressure and smart intercepts. For North Clare, Ruby Milburn and Leah Beath were consistent performers, moving the ball well and helping their team maintain momentum through the court. Their calm and steady play kept North Clare in the contest across all four quarters. It was an entertaining and hard-fought game from both sides, with all players contributing to a high-quality match played in great spirit.

SJ2

Both teams had lots of energy and excitement for their first game of the season. North Clare came out strong, displaying sharp skills across the board, with Chloe Redden a standout, creating numerous turnovers to give her side momentum. RSMU goalies had a great connection, demonstrating teamwork and capitalising on scoring opportunities. RSMU Elsie Lines proved amazing in defence and brought lots of ball movement down the court.

BLYTH SNOWTOWN Vs MIN MAN

A1

Blyth Snowtown 53 V Min-Man 44

Blyth Snowtown started with a high error rate and found it hard to hit a target. Min-Man played a consistent game with great shooting by Charlie Ross and Molly Ross. Ella Roberts kept Blyth Snowtown in the game with Min Man having a two goal lead at the first break. Blyth Snowtown took the lead in the second to be up by one at the main break. Blyth Snowtown improved as the game went on and had a great last quarter to take a nine goal win.

Blyth Snowtown 39 V Min-Man 27

Blyth Snowtown started strongly, led by talented youngster Kartia Altmann in centre. Both teams increased their scoring rate in the second quarter, Min Man goalies being well supported by WA Lucy Hill. Blyth Snowtown defenders were difficult to overcome in the second half with Maygan and Tayler providing many intercepts and rebounds for Blyth Snowtown. Blyth Snowtown pulled away with the win after leading by 2 at half time.

Blyth Snowtown 48 V Min Man 42

Blyth Snowtown started well with accurate shooting from Blyth Snowtown's Donna Stewart. Min Man settled in the second quarter with their mid court feeding the ball effectively into Min Man goalies Emmi Nicholls and Emma Koch. Blyth Snowtown made a lot of changes in the third quarter which saw them play a quite unsettled game and Min Man capitalising on their errors narrowing the margin to four at third quarter time. Fourth quarter saw Blyth Snowtown settle with defensive pressure by Blyth Snowtown's Poppy Wilson to hold on for the win.

Blyth Snowtown 53 V Min Man 35

An unsettled start by both teams, suffering under the hot conditions and new team mates. Blyth Snowtown found their rhythm, with incentive given to the team by intercepts from Belinda Stringer, giving them the lead at the end of first quarter. Min Man brought Danielle Wells out to Goal Attack in the second quarter, which gave Min Man more momentum putting the scoreboard under pressure. Blyth Snowtown met the challenge with tight pressure and high intensity in the youth of Greta Pratt. While Megan Parish worked hard in the goal ring for Min Man, Chloe Ackland attempted to unsettle the dynamic partnership of Amanda Harris and Britt Lane. However, the attack line for Blyth Snowtown held too much experience to finish the game with an eighteen goal lead.

Blyth Snowtown 39 V Min Man 28

The game started with a strong attack from Min Man, scoring four goals in the first few minutes. Blyth Snowtown defence quickly converted multiple times to see Blyth Snowtown score six consecutive goals, putting them in the lead at quarter time. Blyth Snowtown continued with incredibly strong defence, with Madi Delmenico, Abby Andriske and Keryn Gebert turning the ball over for Blyth Snowtown to maintain the lead at half time. Min Man defender Lani Cook took multiple intercepts making it tough for Blyth Snowtown to keep the lead, however, the combined defensive efforts and smooth play from the goalies saw Blyth Snowtown walk away with the win.

Blyth Snowtown 8 V Min Man 54

Min Man started strong with a big lead ending the first quarter ten to one. Both teams drove the ball well through the mid court, with Min Man finishing off with strong work from their goalies. Rebecca Niland-Walsh shot well for Blyth Snowtown, but with great shooting and defence from Min Man they were able to come away with a strong win to start the season.

Blyth Snowtown 29 V Min Man 37

An even start for both teams, with highly contested passing and defensive pressure. A seven all tie at quarter time, saw the girls come back on firing from both sides. Chloe Ackland intercepted many of Blyth Snowtown's attempts to move the ball into their attacking end and Dakota Giles was efficient in moving the ball for Min Man. Ruby Fabian worked hard in the third quarter, shooting well for Blyth Snowtown and Charlotte Welke made for a good passing target in the mid court. The game continued to be mostly even until the final quarter, where Min Man was too strong in the end.

Blyth Snowtown 17 V Min Man 37

Strong start by Min Man with accurate shooting by Marissa Ross leading at half time by nine goals. Blyth Snowtown defensive pressure and movement through the mid court improved as the game went on. The last quarter was even with six goals each, with solid shooting from Blyth Snowtown's Eliza Walker. Min Man held a good lead finishing with a solid win.

Blyth Snowtown 24 Min Man 18

Both teams started well and scored off each centre pass finishing the quarter even. Blyth Snowtown started to come away as shooters Georgia Schramm and Matilda Manhood worked well in the ring. The third quarter saw changes for both teams. Blyth Snowtown still stayed strong. Last quarter Min Man made a comeback with strong defence through the centre from Indigo Dixon and the defences turning it over in the heat. Blyth Snowtown stayed calm and came away with the win.

Blyth Snowtown 3 V Min Man 17

The court play was very even with both teams having lots of opportunities to score. Min Man's shooting accuracy was the difference in the final score. Defensive pressure from Blyth Snowtown's Millie McCormack was solid with numerous interceptions. Min Man rotated their players well to come away with a solid win.

SJ1

Min Man started the game strongly with great shooting from Amelia Ackland. The game evened out in the second half and Blyth Snowtown's Leni Ottens provided a strong option through the centre.

SJ2

The girls came out firing, full of confidence and showing off some impressive skills across the court. Strong defensive pressure from both sides led to plenty of turnovers through the midcourt, providing opportunities for their teams.
