

Round 9

5th July 2025

BBH v EUDUNDA/ROBERTSTOWN

A1

BBH 29 v ER 43

Both teams came out strong and fast paced, which continued through the whole game.

BBH's Tahlia Darby and Hannah Paech McMahon fed well to their goalies to keep a lead for most of the first quarter.

ER's Bree Morton created many opportunities in their defence to gain the lead at half time by ten.

ER's goalie, Jourdan Jenke stepped up her accuracy and positioning allowing ER to hold the lead.

BBH's defender, Jess Freebairn worked hard to minimise the lead to 14 at the buzzer.

A2

Result: No Game

B1

BBH 43 v ER 38

A tightly contested game from both teams. BBH's Abigail Duncan-Tiver started early in the game, getting touches and turnovers. ER's Matilda O'Brien defended well for the duration of the game, giving extra opportunities for the team. In the final quarter, BBH goalies Kloe Berryman and Emily Lines settled into shooting accurately, providing a win from four solid quarters.

BBH 39 v ER 34

A tightly contested game saw BBH take a small early lead with every player applying pressure down the court. After some changes at quarter time, Jodie Mosey helped give ER more control in the attack end, creating an even second quarter. BBH again rallied early in the third quarter, helped by excellent second efforts from Lara Jurkovic and great team back-up.

ER took control again in the last quarter but BBH held onto their lead for the win.

C1

BBH 14 v ER 31

An even first quarter saw strong efforts from both sides. ER's GK Amy Mepstead covered the ring putting constant pressure on BBH's GS Jodie Stockman. ER settled in the third quarter working hard for loose balls. BBH continued with heavy defence, however, ER proved their ability right to the end.

C2

BBH 16 v ER 51

The second quarter showed great defence from Ashlie Pontt and Emily Riggs. TAccurate shooting from Ashlee Launer and Tegan Fabrich grabbed a good strong lead. ER ended up winning by a huge margin, but did not reflect how well the BBH girls played.

INTERMEDIATE 1

BBH 31 v ER 43

A different look BBH team took their time to settle against a steady ER side, trailing by six at quarter time. BBH made changes in the second quarter to win the quarter. BBH's Kaidence Tippet and Emilie Stockman were tight in defence, with Emmylou Cooper providing many opportunities for her team. ER's Zoe Neal and Angela Aves were accurate in goals all game. BBH lost momentum in the third quarter, fighting back in the fourth, but ER were too strong.

INTERMEDIATE 2

BBH 63 v ER 27

Both teams started strong in the first quarter. ER GS Zoe Neal moved well in the ring and shot accurately. BBH had strong hands in the mid court with Gemma Gebhardt creating turnovers, resulting in BBH being able to take a strong lead at half time. Third quarter, ER made mid court changes, bringing Angela Aves on and providing steady hands and good feeds into their shooters. However, BBH's defence Pippa Benson and Brianna O'Bryan proved to be too strong on the day.

JUNIOR 1

BBH 30 v ER 0

BBH started strong with accurate shooting from Jorja Gebhardt keeping the score turning. ER's GA Nellie Mepstead worked hard and created opportunities for her team. BBH's Aaliyah Edwards took multiple intercepts in the defensive end.

BBH 28 v ER 10

The first quarter saw BBH goalies Jorja Gebhardt and Tahya Dix setting, moving and passing well. Second quarter ER GD rebounded well when the opportunity arose. BBH's Sienna Thamm and Lily Dalla worked well in defence getting touches and turnovers for their team, converting to goals. ER's C and WA worked well in patches trying to get some movement in their goal third.

Sub Junior 1

BBH and ER had a fun and fast game. ER worked hard through the middle, moving the ball quickly into their goal circle. BBH defenders were strong and made it tough for ER goalies to shoot. Both teams did some great shooting and showed awesome teamwork.

Sub Junior 2

ER came out strong showing focus and determination to hold possession. BBH's Meila Down and Peyton Gebhardt demonstrated strong defence. ER's Hannah Saegenschnitter showed passion and fought hard to give them shooting opportunities for Macy Neuman and Georgia Prior. BBH's Olivia Tolhurst continued offering, helping BBH find their groove in the last quarter.

MIN MAN V BLYTH-SNOWTOWN

A1

MIN MAN 33 BS 39

A tough physical game by both teams for all four quarters.

Min Mans Molly Ross had accurate shooting in the first quarter to give Min Man the lead, however strong shooting consistency from Blyth-Snowtown's Poppy Gilfillan-Silk throughout the consecutive quarters gave Blyth-Snowtown the win

MIN MAN 36 BS 37

Min Man started strong with great play through the centre and accurate shooting from Brooklyn Hallam and Addisyn Ackland, securing a decent lead at quarter time. Blyth Snowtown responded strongly, winning the 2nd quarter and closing the gap on the score board to be only 2 goals down at half time. A dominating 3rd quarter by Blyth Snowtown with great defence from Poppy Wilson and Tayler Nelson combined with lifted intensity through the mid-court and accurate shooting in goals from Olivia Carslake and Olivia Elsworthy. The last quarter was very evenly played with both teams struggling to capitalise on opportunities, scores levelled and Blyth Snowtown managed to inch in front by one goal to take the win.

B1

MIN MAN 29 BS 32

Minman B1 took on the formidable Cats in a tightly contested match. Both teams battled hard in the first quarter, going goal for goal. The Cats' relentless defensive pressure and accurate shooting gave them an edge by halftime. While the third quarter remained evenly fought, Cats maintained their lead with consistent play. Capitalising better on turnovers, the Cats secured the win despite Minman's determined efforts.

MIN MAN 45 BS 52

Tight defensive game with Blyth-Snowtown having the edge with many tips from hands causing turnovers. Very accurate shooting by Blyth-Snowtown's Amanda Harris and strong leading and shooting by Min Mans Lydia Schwartz.

C1

MIN MAN 41 BS 40

It was an even start to the match, with both teams trading goals in the first quarter, though Blyth Snowtown managed to edge ahead by one. Min Man defender Lani Cook worked tirelessly to keep Blyth Snowtown shooter Kimberley Hoepner in check, making for an intense contest in the circle. The third quarter saw plenty of ball movement and midfield play, but scoring was limited as both sides struggled to convert opportunities into goals.

In the final quarter, Min Man dug deep and showed real determination, mounting a strong comeback. Their persistence paid off, as they managed to snatch a thrilling one-goal victory in the dying moments of the game.

C2

MIN MAN 48 BS 27

Both teams came out strong, showcasing accurate shooting and high intensity from the first whistle. Min-Man's defence worked hard to disrupt play, successfully turning over some of the centre passes. Despite pressure from the opposition, Min-Man maintained the lead on the scoreboard, thanks to consistent teamwork. Both sides displayed great determination throughout the game.

INTERMEDIATE 1

MIN MAN 46 BS 17

Min man started off strong with great defensive play from Chloe Ackland and Larni Cook keeping Blyth/Snowtown goals to 6 in the first half. Blyth/Snowtown came out firing in the second half with accurate shooting from Sienna Nelson and Ava McCauley. Both teams fought hard with the score not reflecting the even contest over four quarters. Min Man took the win by 29.

INTERMEDIATE 2

MIN MAN 52 BS 11

Some timely intercepts by Min- Mans Ruby Maloney and Alliahna Hodges gave Min-Man plenty of scoring opportunities. The second half of the game saw intensity lift through the mid court with plenty of contested balls by both sides. Min-Man were able to build their connections all the way through the court which enabled them to take the win.

MIN MAN 24 BS 24

Min Man's start was super strong with valuable intercepts by Indigo Dixon. A tight 2nd quarter with Blyth-Snowtown closing the gap. A low scoring 3rd quarter with great defensive pressure from both teams. Amazing fight by both teams for the game to finish in a draw.

MIN MAN 15 BS 14

Blyth-Snowtown started strong with great defensive pressure and quick court play in the mid court from Blyth-Snowtown's Millie McCormack. Blyth-Snowtown's goalies, Violet Welke and Annie Honner made good use of turn overs by their team, shooting accurately. The second half of the game Min Man stepped up their pressure across the court, with a strong presence in the mid court by Charlee Hall. Accurate shooting in the ring from Min Mans Brooklyn Williams and tight defence from Min Mans Olivia Taylor helped Min Man hold their 1 goal lead for the win.

SUB-JUNIOR 1

Min Man played consistently and with enthusiasm turning over the ball well out of Blyth Snowtown defence. Amelia Ackland had a great day in goals shooting with accuracy. Blyth Snowtown found better rhythm in the second half and played with determination under pressure. A solid all-round effort from all.

SUB-JUNIOR 2

An evenly matched game with lots of turnovers but Min Man were able to consolidate. Well done to all the girls from both sides.

South Clare V RSMU

A1

South Clare 43 RSMU 39

This turned into a cracker of a game, RSMU starting strong with Sarah Noack and Demi Jenner creating many turnovers. Their quick play contributed to a lead of 5 goals at half time. South came out more determined with Rachel Weidemann and Hailey Greenhill applying defensive pressure allowing South to peg back the difference. The last quarter was goal for goal with South's Jorja Rogers turning the game to put South in front at the last whistle.

South Clare 43 RSMU 40

It was a clash both teams were excited for being placed 1st and 2nd on the ladder. South Clare demonstrated determination and led the way throughout the game. Mia Parkinson played well and kept Jade Chapman fighting hard in WA. Terri Wilkinson and Simone Miller worked hard in the goal circle defending and making the mother daughter duo of Katie Liebelt and Scarlett Liebelt-Seymon work hard for every goal.

B1

South Clare 47 RSMU 47

A powerful start by both teams with even matches over the court ending the first and second quarters with RSMU up by one. Pressure was felt by both teams coming into the second half. South Clare shooters, Milly Lalic and Emily Bradley going goal for goal with RSMU's shooters Carley Piggot and Tammi Mullins. The third quarter saw South advance to a 2 goal lead. Last quarter was a real test of intercepts and capitalising off opposition mistakes for both teams. A real battle until the end, resulting in a 47 all draw.

South Clare 28 RSMU 49

RSMU started strong with tight defence by Jordy Purvis and Kasey Jenner utilising every opportunity. South started to peg back the difference with good play by Jazz Gilbertson and Emma Ward with the difference being seven goals at three quarter time. The final quarter saw RSMU's experience and controlled play take a convincing win with their GS, Chloe Oakley, not missing.

South Clare 38 RSMU 39

Both teams came out to the court for a good spirited game. RSMU's shooting pair, Lucy Smith and Molly Goodfellow, worked hard against South's defence with the accuracy giving them a four goal lead at quarter time. A few changes for South saw a consistent and even second quarter. RSMU's Lucy Smith held her ground extending the lead by 1. The third quarter continued to see consistent even play from both teams. South's Immy Nitschke worked hard with hands to the ball in defence. The final quarter was a tight tussle, with RSMU scoring the winning goal in the final seconds.

South Clare 42 RSMU 32

Emma Zanette was strong through the mid court for RSMU and feeding into the goal circle for Nicole Saunderson. RSMU carried the ball down the court well, though South Clare's defence worked hard with Tayla Blight in centre turning the ball over multiple times giving them the lead. Dani Harvey fought hard in the ring gaining rebounds for RSMU, but South's accurate shooting meant they came away with the win.

INTERMEDIATE 1

South Clare 41 RSMU 40

After a close first quarter, South Clare struggled to keep up with RSMU with their accurate goal shooters Emmison Heinrich and Ryleigh Senor. South Clare's shooter Jordie McCarthy shot well over her tall opponent Leighla Brown with Isla Manhood moving well in the ring and getting good rebounds. Georgia Dixon was strong in the mid court. RSMU held the lead the entire game but South Clare's full court defence saw them fight back and come away with the win in the final minute.

INTERMEDIATE 2

South Clare 30 RSMU 38

South came out strong with strong leads and passing into the ring. Accurate shooting by Erin and Ebony put South in the lead for the first quarter. The second quarter proved tough with RSMU capitalising from defensive turnovers. Each fought hard all the way through with RSMU turning the game and taking the win.

South Clare 27 RSMU 23

Both teams started strong, with RSMU leading by two at quarter time, with excellent movement and shooting by Aurora Wilden. South Clare's whole team defence, led by Ellie Ruffles and Chinyere Alozie brought South Clare up by one at half time. An even second half saw RSMU push South Clare to the end but they held strong to win by four in the well contested game.

South Clare 11 RSMU 23

The game started with both teams coming out hard and defensive with quarter time being a one goal to two. The second quarter was goal for goal. Half time RSMU took the lead shooting accurately. The fourth quarter saw South Clare with strong defence, try limit goals, with Tiana Williams very rarely missing a goal.

SUB-JUNIOR 1

Another strong game for the South Clare juniors. Strong ball movement from both teams saw the ball travelling up and down the court most of the game. Summer McCarthy played well in goal shooter. RSMU's young team played hard, showing great promise for the future.

SUB-JUNIOR 2

A competitive game between the two teams. They were well matched in skill level. Souths had a strong defence game. Great to see players starting to find space on the court and spreading out for both teams.

BSR VS North Clare

A1

BSR 67 VS North Clare 27

BSR settled first and capitalised on turn overs with fast ball movement down the court with fast passes in the circle by Taryn Kelly and Emily Ashby. BSR took the lead early and continued to build their lead each quarter. Kirsty Baum provided drive through the centre court for North and Isabella Rawlings shot accurately with long shots. Marlee George for BSR picked off balls to provide drive for BSR despite switching to C for the last quarter.

A2

BSR 36 VS North Clare 28

An even first half with strong defence from both teams. The mid court was very evenly contested with some great passages of play from both sides but BSR's Alex Fowler made the difference in centre with her solid game. North Clare played a tight third quarter with strong defence and accurate shooting, but it was BSR's game in the last quarter to win the game by 8 goals.

B1

BSR 38 VS North Clare 35

What a game!!! Pretty even to start with pressure from both sides. Great shooting by Petra Lade and Leonie Player from North Clare put North in front for the first half. Steady work down the court helped BSR trim down the lead at 3 quarter time, but the game was still on. Last quarter was a spectacle, both teams fought desperately for the win. Great shooting from BSR's Tash Harper and Lara Meyer, and fantastic defensive work from Emma Goss and Alexia Bache from BSR helped the tiger to a 3-point victory. Great game by all.

BSR 55 VS North Clare 27

BSR had a strong start to the game with quick movement and accurate shooting from Billi Nicholson. They maintained their pace in the second quarter with lots of turn overs in the centre court allowing them to grow their lead to be up by 20 at half time. North came out firing in the third quarter with great passages of play, accurate shooting from Lilly Smith and intense pressure from Emma Ryan. North won the third quarter convincingly. The fourth quarter BSR resettled to come home with a solid win.

C1

BSR 44 VS North Clare 35

BSR started the game off strong with Abbey Hampel leading well in centre. BSR executed some impressive passages of play establishing an early lead. North kept the pressure up with GA Olivia Muchan shooting accurately in the second quarter. BSR finished with a 5-goal lead at half time. North Clare fought hard for the ball, but BSR extended their lead winning the game by 9 goals. Well done to Jasmin Ross who moved brilliantly in the goal ring and shot well.

C2

BSR 32 VS North Clare 20

The game started quite evenly with BSRs shooters on 9 goals just pipping North Clare on 7 in the 1st quarter. Great defence from BSRs Denisia Jackson and Jorja Lillecrapp had BSR hold out the North Clare goalies Mikayla Mason and Isabella Callary. The 3rd quarter saw BSR pull away further holding a comfortable lead of 22 – 15. The last quarter saw both teams sub out players with injuries. Despite a brief comeback from North Clare, BSR turned over the ball and converted, cementing the win with 10 goals to 5 in quarter 4.

INTERMEDIATE 1

BSR 66 VS North Clare 19

Both teams started unsettled with unforced errors all over the court. BSR settled quicker and gained a good lead after the first quarter. BSR's Lara Meyer shot accurately, and Ivy Weckert controlled the defensive goal circle with pressure and intercepts. North Clare used accurate shooting in the third quarter to boost their score and apply pressure to BSR. BSR made some changes in the fourth quarter, extending their lead for a good win, with help from BSR's Billi Nicholson in the goals.

INTERMEDIATE 2

No game

BSR 36 VS North Clare 7

Both teams came out firing but some rushed passes from BSR allowed North Clare to gain some quick goals. BSR recovered quickly and their increased persistence throughout the game to chase up stray passes saw them quickly take control of the court. BSR's defence and mid court were confidently intercepting passes, and despite the strong hands of both Angelina Groutsch and Brielle Zuromski, BSR's goalies, Paige Jones and Maya Beart-McKay were able to capitalise on these turnovers and gain a significant lead. The game was called under the fair game rule early in the fourth quarter.

BSR 11 VS North Clare 13

BSR started with quick and accurate passing into the goal ring to be 2 goals up at quarter time. Both teams moved the ball efficiently through the mid court, but defences put great pressure on goalies. BSR and North Clare made positional changes at half time. North Clare's Matilda O'Brien and Sarah Victor worked well together taking many rebounds. BSR's mid court of Hanna Burford, Elsie Weckert and Anniece Stuart got fingers to lots of passes. North Clare's Ellie Meaney was super accurate which saw North Clare win a well contested game by 2 goals.

SUB-JUNIOR 1

Both North Clare and BSR started strongly, moving the ball confidently down the court with solid passing. BSR goalies Florence Matthews and Ella Smart worked well together in the ring, using quick passes to create scoring opportunities. North Clare defender Caitlin Victor and Olivia Rowley applied strong pressure, getting their hands on many balls in the circle. Sadie Thomas found good space through the midcourt for BSR, while North Clare's Harper Scott applied consistent defensive pressure. In defence Liam Thomas, Ivy Weckert and Imogen Wundke showed great vision and positioning, creating several turnovers at BSR's defensive end. North Clare's Brakalia Brimfield continued to contest every ball, giving her team valuable options through the midcourt. In the final quarter Aliya Hawker and Harper Scott worked hard in defence, turning over numerous balls to keep North Clare in the game.

SUB-JUNIOR 2

North Clare were very strong in the goal circle testing the BSR's defensive skills but the little BSR tigers rose to the challenge. Millie Weckert and Dylan Nicholson applied great pressure and were able to get a few turnovers! BSR were lucky to score a quick couple of goals in the last half. Lots of smiles and fun had by all!!
