

Round 6

3rd June 2023

BBH v BSR

A1 - No Game

A2

BBH 51 v BSR 41

BBH came out firing, looking for their first win of the season. BBH's Charley Traeger and Emily Lines settled quickly, giving them a nine-goal lead by first quarter break. BSR's changes opened up their attacking line with accurate shooting by Alicia Thomas, BSR had a chance to fight back. With great passages of play by BBH's midcourt this allowed them to maintain the lead. BBH were able to take a convincing win.

B1

BBH 21 v BSR 40

BSR's Amy Trengrove set the intercept bar early, reading the play into the BBH goalies. BSR moved the ball quickly down the court looking to find accurate goalie, Darcy Cousins. BBH improved in the second half with defenders Ellie Oates and Meg Malycha working cleanly off the body and reaching high to take the balls.

B2

BBH 18 v BSR 27

The match began well going goal for goal with BSR pulling ahead by three at the first break. BSR's Amelia Hinge provided great rebounding, providing BSR the chance to sneak ahead. BSR's Nikita Kennerley with her accurate shooting was pushed to her limits with BBH's Annie Kellock's defence in the circle. Tegan Jones showed great leading and reoffering all game, supporting BBH's offensive play.

C1

BBH 33 v BSR 24

A very clean, even match by both sides. BBH came out strong in the first quarter with a nine to five lead thanks to great shooting by Georgia Hook and Jodie Stockman. BSR put up a strong fight in the third and fourth quarters with great defence from Madison Robson and Monique Robson.

C2

BBH 23 v BSR 11

Both sides were even at the first break with BBH sneaking away with the lead. Jayde Lillecrapp worked hard in the midcourt for the BSR, but the BBH shooting combination of Bree Tiver and Keira Schuppan was too strong in the end.

15U

BBH 52 v BSR 24

BSR came out firing against the BBH with hands over the ball and strong use of turnovers. BSR's Lara Meyer connected well with her attack line. BBH settled in to the second quarter with great defensive intercepts. BBH's Emmylou Cooper and Evelyn Klem backed each other up which was fantastic to watch. BBH finished the game off strong against a tough BSR side.

J1 - No Game

J2 - No Game

J3

BBH v BSR

BSR proved to be a very well drilled team with great movement in the goal ring by Sophia Richards and Sophie Adams. BBH's Shanae Dulloway and Abby Sheridan worked hard in defence. In the third quarter BSR switched it up to make a more even contest, but proved too strong on the day,

J4 - No Game

J5

BBH v BSR

Another well matched game. Both sides had plenty of shots at goals. Positions were shared again this week so girls all get a chance to play at either end.

Eud Rob v Blyth/Snowtown

A1

Eud/Rob 37 v Blyth/Snowtown 40

The game started goal for goal with scores even at the end of the first quarter with Blyth/Snowtown's Leah Edmunds and Eud/Rob's Georgia Huppatz having a great contest in the goal circle. Mem Dunstan provided great defensive pressure to keep Eud-Rob in the game in the second quarter with Blyth-Snowtown managing to get a goal in front at halftime. The lead kept changing in the second half with both teams having their time to be in front by one goal until Blyth-Snowtown broke through to get a three-goal advantage. Maggie Hentschke and Ella Roberts kept the pressure on in Eud/Rob's attacking end and Blyth-Snowtown managed to hold their lead to win a very evenly contested game.

A2

Eud/Rob 39 v Blyth/Snowtown 38

It was a very evenly contested first quarter by both teams. Blyth-Snowtown capitalised on Georgia Mills' (GD) intercepts late in the first quarter. Eud/Rob scored off the missed shots by Blyth-Snowtown to narrow the lead to thirteen to fourteen. Eud/Rob came out firing in the second with strong defensive pressure by Olivia Schiller (GK). Blyth-Snowtown responded with strong drives in the midcourt by Elise Honner (C) and was finished off by accurate shooting from Hannah Hogg (GA). Changes by Eud/Rob at the halftime break saw them claw the lead back despite strong defensive pressure by Blyth-Snowtown. Eud/Rob stole back the lead by one going into the last quarter. An early lead was taken by Eud/Rob in the final quarter and the experience and composure was too much for Blyth-Snowtown, with the Eud/Rob taking the win by one in a nail-biter.

B1

Eud/Rob 42 v Blyth/Snowtown 35

A brilliant start by the Eud/Rob, scoring seven before Blyth-Snowtown scored a goal. Giving Eud/Rob a lead at quarter time. In the second quarter, all the players from both teams were working well around the mid-court. Eud/Rob were up by fifteen at the main break. Blyth-Snowtown goalies were shooting well in the third quarter, bringing the margin back to eleven. Blyth-Snowtown had a burst of goals in the last quarter but Eud/Rob took the win by seven goals.

B2

Eud/Rob 49 v Blyth/Snowtown 35

Both teams were very determined from the first whistle, with Blyth-Snowtown having a slight lead at the main break. The pressure was coming on both sides and the game went goal for goal. Both teams performed great shooting, and Eud/Rob settled and took control of the game in the second half but Eud/Rob were too strong and came out with the win.

C1

Eud/Rob 45 v Blyth/Snowtown 25

Eud/Rob had a brilliant start to the game with Blyth-Snowtown performing great mid-court defence. Accurate shooting by Eud/Rob's Jodie Mosey and Lucy Engel. Blyth Snowtown's Kimberley Hoepner took advantage of rebounding opportunities. There was great defence performed by Renae Sauer and Chloe Brohan which limited Blyth-Snowtown's opportunity to shoot. Both teams managed a range of great intercepts through the middle court.

C2

Eud/Rob 38 v Blyth/Snowtown 12

A strong start to the game from Eud/Rob girls with a score of nine to three in the first quarter. Blyth-Snowtown came back strong for the start of the second quarter, utilising turnovers in the ring. Pressure from both teams led to lots of back-and-forth movements in the mid-court. The game finished with accurate shooting from Julia Schutz and Bonnie Williams resulting in Eud/Rob taking the win.

15U

Eud/Rob 52 v Blyth/Snowtown 45

Eud/Rob came out firing and was quick to score. Blyth-Snowtown found their rhythm at the end of the first quarter to narrow the score by nine goals at quarter time. Eud/Rob's Regan Mosey, was causing havoc with tips and touches all over the court. Blyth-Snowtown continued their momentum in the second quarter, closing the score line by four goals. Accurate shooting by Blyth-Snowtown made it difficult for Eud/Rob's defenders. Changes made by Eud/Rob at halftime saw them increase the intensity and extend the lead by eight goals. A hard-fought last quarter saw both teams battle it out, but Eud/Rob got the win.

J1

Eud/Rob 15 v Blyth/Snowtown 11

A very evenly contested match from the start. Blyth-Snowtown's Zahara Bernhardt made Eud/Rob goalies work hard for every ball. Eloura Mosey chased hard to get every loose ball. Charlotte Muller played well and shot very accurately all game. With only one goal the difference at half-time Eud/Rob defence in Bridget Williams and Jade Jenke made it hard for Blyth-Snowtown to score. Eud/Rob made a change in the last quarter putting Leni Geister into goals creating movement and taking the lead to win by four.

J2- No Game

J3

Eud/Rob v Blyth/Snowtown

Excellent play from both teams with players moving well, creating many opportunities to get the ball down the court. Blyth Snowtown players applied a strong defence all over the court, making Eud/Rob players work harder to maintain possession of the ball. Mercy Rule came into play at halftime. Great game from both teams.

J4

Eud/Rob v Blyth/Snowtown

A strong game by both teams with Blyth-Snowtown showing great skills in the goal circle. By half-time Eud/Rob girls used their strong defence. There was great pressure by both teams in the mid-court. It was a great game by all the girls today.

J5 - No Game

Min-Man v RSMU

Min-Man 59 v RSMU 39

Fast start by both teams, with great movement down the court. Min-Man held the lead at half time 33-21. Many turnovers in the third quarter for Min-Man aided by great shooting by Molly Ross and Makenzie Schoenberg, with RSMU's Sarah Noack making them work hard. RSMU stepped up in the last quarter scoring on many turnovers outscoring Min-Man. Min-Man were too strong for RSMU but a good game of netball to watch.

A2

Min-Man 53 v RSMU 46

First quarter both teams came out strong ending in an even quarter at thirteen all. Second quarter saw Min-Man take the lead by seven goals with some great court work and defence by Karen Palmer and Olivia Hadley. RSMU came back in the third quarter with some great shooting by their goalies. Min-Man's defence, centre court and shooters all worked well together to take the win 53-46.

B1

Min-Man 32 v RSMU 35

A good competitive first quarter from both teams with RSMU taking the lead at the first break. Great defence by Min-Mans Annabel Sandow and Robyn Faulkner resulted in a number of turnovers in the second quarter bringing Min-Man within a goal at half time. An evenly contested third quarter but RSMU were able to slightly improve their lead. Good shooting by RSMU goalies Jessica Heir and Sarah Heaslip gave RSMU the edge they needed early in the final quarter securing an RSMU win.

B2

Min-Man 35 v RSMU 32

RSMU came out strong with two early goals to set the scene. Min-Man came back strong with consistent goal shooting from Lara Smith and Gabbi Scobie with RSMU's goal attack Hayley Busch matching Min-Man at the RSMU scoring end. Strong mid court action by both teams kept the ball moving quickly between each end. RSMU wing attack Indiana Kimlin and Centre Kelly Dutton were strong through the mid court and by capitalising on some crucial turnovers. RSMU fought hard in the fourth quarter and were strong in defence but Min-Man settled in the last few minutes to take the win.

C1

Min-Man 59 v RSMU 34

An even start with good drive through the centre from both teams. In the second quarter Min-Man increased the defensive pressure with GK Bridie Maher getting some great intercepts and GA Danielle Wells shooting accurately. RSMU made positional changes at half time and started the quarter strongly with GD Erica Parker and GK Emily Heathfield playing well and the goalies rewarding them. A good team effort in the last for a dominate win to Min-Man.

C2

Min-Man 34 v RSMU 18

An even first quarter with both teams working well. Min-Man stepped up in the second quarter with accurate shooting by Hannah Neil. Mia Berry did some great turnovers for RSMU and strong defence work by Larni Cook for Min-Man and Elizabeth Rex for RSMU. Min-Man were too strong in the end winning by sixteen.

15U - No Game

J1

Min-Man 23 v RSMU 14

RSMU had a good first quarter with Emmerson Heinrich in GA, shooting well to secure a lead of nine to five. After a tight second quarter Min-Man fought back with Daisy Bryksy in WD, getting some great interceptions to help secure a Min-Man lead of 11-10. Min-Man continued to hold the lead in the third quarter thanks to strong shooting by Alice Millington in GS. RSMU tried to claw their way back with Elle Richard's getting some good interceptions in the mid court however Min-Man were too strong.

J2 – No Game

J3

Min-Man v RSMU

Strong attacking through the mid court from Min-Man's Jorja Schutz and good defence on the wing by Ruby Dixon. A good contest was had between Min-Man's Stella Schwartz in GA and RSMU's Amelia McInerney in GD. The game was competitive and close.

J4

Min-Man v RSMU

Min-Man came out fast and with accurate shooting by Lily-May Barp to put quick scores on the board. Good defence by RSMU's Pippa Miller meant girls made good use of the full court. Great movement through the Mid court by Eliza Stockman and Isla Parker to move the ball quickly. Good attack in goals by RSMU's Estelle McInerney.

J5 - No Game

North Clare vs South Clare

A1

North 47 v South 35

For the first half there was a lead no bigger than three goals by either team. Katie Woodrow was a great target under the post and the feeding by Kristy McCarthy kept their team in it. Demon Alice Hart Lamont was a quiet achiever limiting Norths drive onto the ring in attack. Kristen Coles and Millie Heinjus stood their ground in North's defence and kept sending turnovers back into Norths attack. The game started to break open in the third quarter where North lead by eight goals at three quarter time. Chelsea Panoho and Kirsty Baum kept the pressure on through the midcourt and held their head and didn't give in. North won the last quarter by 11 goals.

A2

North 42 v South 40

Even contest between the two teams at the start. South goalies shot accurately and had great movement in the ring. North made changes at half time, helping them settle. Tight defence by North Clare in the last quarter helped them come back and get the win by two. Congratulations to Lara Jaeschke who played her first A2 game.

B1

North 49 v South 34

An even start to the game with each team capitalising from turnovers. North Clare up by four goals at quarter time. South Clare gaining points on North from rebounds and turnovers saw South Clare with the same margin at half time. Amazing shooting by both Lara Jaeschke from North and Ruby Stringer from South. North Clare coming home in the last quarter outscoring South by ten to win the game.

B2

North 42 v South 39

South started strong with solid attack down the court, however with some great intercepts from North's Elise O'Niell, North found their momentum and settled to take the lead at quarter time. South fought back to win the second quarter with strong defence from Annabelle Kruger and Lauren Nitchske. Both teams continued in the second half with great intensity, however with great persistence from Ellie Redden in the mid court and accurate shooting from Leonie Player, North managed to hold on for the win.

C1

North 33 v South 41

An even start to the game with each team capitalising from turnovers. South took the lead by one in the first quarter. North kept pace with strong turn overs from Layla Schults and Ella Jones. South's Jessica Schulta's accuracy in the goals was too good for North at the end of the day,

C2

North 26 v South 40

A fast pace start to the game with both teams coming out firing. South's Imogen Hennessey driving well down the court with good feeding into their goalies, with Molly Smyth shooting accurately. North's Makayla Noble in defence put pressure on down the court with some amazing intercepts. North tried to claw their way back in the last half but South's strong drive down the court by Jade-Lee Fisher made this tricky. Even with North's Evie Spurling's great shooting South were too strong.

15U

North 20 v South 43

The game started with intensity, both teams coming out firing, hungry for the win. North's Aimee Lang worked hard all game to provide turnovers for the team while South's Ebony Pearce shot beautifully. The score was just about even at half time before South got a run on in the third quarter. Despite the efforts of North's defence, they were unable to catch up. The score did not reflect the even intensity of the game and it will be an exciting rematch.

J1

North 16 v South 26

South had a strong first half with C Isabel Quinton confidently directing her team to drive the ball down. North came back hard in the second half with strong defence from Sophie Meaney and some great drives down the court. The last half was very even, making South's first strong half the deciding factor.

J2

North 3 v South 20

Great start by North keeping tight defence in the centre third. In the Second quarter South took the lead with smooth turnovers and accurate shooting. In the third quarter both North and South kept a steady game keeping up strong defending and intercepts. During the Fourth quarter North kept strong leads and passing through out the centre third. South triumphed in the fourth quarter taking out the win.

J3

North v South

An even start by both sides with some great passages of play. In the second South came out firing with some great intercepts. Good shooting by Koa Murphy in the second gave South a handy lead. Great defence shown by North's Maddie Papps in the third gave North opportunities. North came out hard in the fourth with some great drive down the court which made the margin closer. A great game played by all.

J4

North v South

An evenly contested game for the first half of the game with great passages of play by both teams. Accurate shooting from South allowed them to get a handy lead. Great defence by North in the last quarter kept South to only one goal. South were far too strong in the end.

J5

North v South

A very strong start from both teams, with lots of turnovers from both sides. North had a strong second quarter capitalising on their scoring opportunities. Ellie Meaney shot well for North and Summer McCarthy took some great intercepts for South. A very tightly contested game, enjoyed by all players.
