

Round 8

24th June 2023

BBH v Blyth Snowtown

A1 - No Game

A2

BBH 36 v Blyth Snowtown 52

With a fiery start by both teams, BBH settled early in the piece to lead by three at quarter time. Blyth Snowtown's defence Hayley Zweck and Georgia Mills worked hard to gain the lead by one at half time. BBH lost two dominant players due to serious injuries which changed the dynamics of the game. BBH's Holly Dale and Meg Malycha created many turnovers, however Blyth Snowtown were well put together in the last half for them to run away with the win by 16.

B1

BBH 30 v Blyth Snowtown 30

A scrappy first quarter by both sides, however a fantastic game to watch from then on. Blyth Snowtown's Chloe Freebairn played a strong three quarters, finishing off the fourth quarter with great drive and accuracy. BBH's Ellie Oates and Meg Malycha played a great game rebounding, giving extra opportunity to BBH goalies. It was hard to pick outstanding players as both teams played a brilliant game. Credit to Blyth Snowtown who were ten goals down at three quarter time to finish as a draw. The crowd enjoyed watching the game.

BBH 17 v Blyth Snowtown 56

The game began very evenly matched between both teams. Blyth Snowtown pulled ahead during the second quarter with no score from BBH. The smarts and speed coming from Blyth Snowtown's mid court put BBH under pressure every centre pass. The wind played a large part in the game. Changes to both team line ups during the second half saw a more evenly matched game.

C1

BBH 44 v Blyth Snowtown 39

Blyth Snowtown came out strong in the first quarter with great shooting from Aleesha Baker and Makayla Matthews. BBH fought back with strong defence by Jessie Klem and Tahlia Lock. In tough shooting conditions, both teams did very well. BBH fought hard and managed to get the win.

C2

BBH 18 v Blyth Snowtown 20

A low scoring game from the start. BBH and Blyth Snowtown went goal for goals for most of the game. Bonnie Williams was strong in the midcourt for Blyth Snowtown as was Gabbi Ford for BBH. In the end, Blyth Snowtown came away with the win by two goals.

15U

BBH 55 v Blyth Snowtown 18

Blyth Snowtown started strong with big arms over the ball making BBH work hard in defence. BBH's second quarter put the pressure on causing intercepts all over the court. Blyth Snowtown applied hard defence with their mid courts Hannah King and Anna Williams. BBH finished the game strong with good connection between Emmylou Cooper and Emilie Stockman.

J1

BBH 16 v Blyth Snowtown 38

Super proud of the BBH J1 side for fighting and keeping their heads up the whole game through against a very experienced and tall Blyth Snowtown side. Excellent defence by BBH's Lily Hancock and Pippa Benson and good midcourt with Ruby Fabian (BS) causing turnovers.

J2 & J3 - No Game

J4

BBH v BS

Strong attack by Blyth Snowtown in the first quarter with great drive from Annie Honner (BS) in centre. Lily Dalla and Sienna Thamm worked hard in BBH's defence. Blyth Snowtown led well all game with noticeable work by Florence Fabian.

J5

BBH v BS

A very well contested game. Both teams showed great defensive skills and got plenty of shots at goals.

Min-Man vs BSR

A1

Min-Man 42 v BSR 31

Min-Man started strong aided by strong hands by Gracie and Molly Ross, scoring on turnovers 10-6. BSR gained momentum with great shooting by BSR's Emily Ashby, with scores at half time 19-16. Min-Man kept their composure to lead by six goals heading into the last quarter. Hard fought game of netball, Min-Man too strong for BSR to have a good win 42-31.

A2

Min-Man 56 v BSR 39

Min-Man started well with a five-goal lead at quarter time with strong offensive pressure, gaining some important turnovers. Min-Man increased their lead at half time through full court defensive pressure and great teamwork, with their goalies shooting consistently. BSR made strategic changes and finished well in the last quarter. Nicole Blackwell was strong as the last line of defence. Overall, a great team game by the Min-Man girls.

B1

Min-Man 54 v BSR 33

Good intercepts by Min-Man's GK Karen Palmer allowed Min-Man to take the lead into the first break. Good strong attacking by Emma Koch and Helena Blieschke in the goal ring gave Min-Man a solid lead going into half time. In the third quarter, consistent shooting from BSR's GS Darcy Cousins saw an even quarter. More intercepts in defence in the fourth quarter allowed Min-Man to maintain the lead and finish the winners on the day.

Min-Man 39 v BSR 19

Slow start to the first quarter with Min-Man taking an early lead. Min-Man's strong defence resulted in many turnovers with a lead of 20-11 at half time. The third quarter was evenly contested and BSR moved the ball well down the court and capitalised on their opportunities. Min-Man settled and came out strong in the last quarter and dominated in attack, resulting in the final score 39-19.

C1

Min-Man 50 v BSR 17

A strong start from Min-Man, picking up loose balls and driving down the court with GA Scarlett Parker shooting accurately. BSR made changes at half time and with great rebounds from GK Monique Robson and GK Bek Mead, it was an even third quarter. In the last quarter, Min-Man set a target of 50 goals, reaching this for a convincing win.

C2

Min-Man 35 v BSR 27

Min-Man started well with a good lead at quarter time. The second quarter was evenly scored. Good defensive work by Madison Robson and Denisia Jackson for BSR. Strong passing by Min-Man's Lilly Pilkington and Shayla Lewis with Ella Stockman playing her best game. Min-Man ended up with a 12-goal win.

15U

Min-Man 25 v BSR 34

BSR shooters came out strong with GA Ava White holding well making it easy to feed the ball. Min-Man C Dakota Giles drove the ball down the court allowing the goalies to capitalise. Half time saw BSR up by three. Min-Man made some changes giving them some fresh legs. Both teams fought hard until the end, but BSR came away with the win.

J1

Min-Man 10 v BSR 21

A highly contested first half with many turnovers. Great shooting by BSR's Paige Jones. The second half saw a change in centre with BSR's Sophie Weckert controlling the play. BSR's tight play saw them come home with a win 21-10.

J2

Min-Man 14 v BSR 2

The first quarter was even with both defence ends working hard. Ruby Jaeschke was defending well in the second quarter, helping Min-Man take the lead. Min-Man kept their lead in the third, with Maeve Allen shooting consistently. BSR fought hard in the last quarter but Min-Man proved too strong.

J3 & J4– No Game

J5

Min-Man v BSR

Challenging game in the wind. Both teams moving well and creating plenty of options. BSR's Hanna Burford was strong in defence and Min-Man's Ava Mckay taking lots of intercepts. Even game throughout.

South Clare v RSMU

A1

South Clare 34 v RSMU 48

RSMU started strongly with Abby Griffiths dynamic in attack and Ellie Duffy providing pressure in defence to see RSMU up 13-8 at quarter time. South's Paryss Maunder and Sally Penny rebounded well in the second quarter for South with Katie Liebelt converting strongly. RSMU won the second quarter 10-8. RSMU came out firing in the third and were dominant all over the court winning the quarter 14-8. The last quarter was a tight contest (RSMU 11-South 10) with Kristy McCarthy (South) and Kelsey Noll (RSMU) having a great tussle. Sarah Noack led RSMU strongly and was dominant across the game.

A2

South Clare 23 v RSMU 75

RSMU came out firing with excellent full court pressure and accurate shooting by Zoe Hier and Paige Rowett in her first game back from injury, taking their team to a 20-4 goal lead going into the first break. Simone Miller played a tight defensive game for RSMU making it hard for South's goalies Emma Slattery and Lucy Malycha. Teagan Przibilla and Kylie Murphy battled all game. RSMU continued to increase their lead each quarter with great drive by Kerry Heinrich and Maddie Hadden to come away with an exceptional win.

B1

South Clare 38 v RSMU 42

RSMU came out very strong in the first quarter, with accurate shooting and pressure down the court. Injury saw RSMU without key mid court player Cath Greenslade part way through the second quarter. Both teams provided plenty of opportunity for goalies in very windy conditions. South came out on fire in the third, reducing the margin from 12 down to two. Both teams had brilliant passages of play but also some mistakes in the final quarter though RSMU held on to win by four. Wishing Cath a speedy recovery.

South Clare 29 v RSMU 41

South Clare came out strong with fantastic feeding into the ring by Libby Stringer and Billi Malycha. RSMU tightened the game with strong defensive pressure causing turnovers in the mid court, the game was even at half time. RSMU took control of the game in the third quarter with accurate shooting by Hayley Busch and Molly Goodfellow. A huge improvement by South since last meeting RSMU, but RSMU took a strong win away from home.

C1

South Clare 58 v RSMU 22

South Clare started strong and stayed strong throughout the game. The tough defensive combination of Kathy Woodrow and Dominyka Millard in goals with Bree Mensforth in WD made it a tough game for RSMU's attackers. Despite this, RSMU managed some strong passages of play. Madeline Naughton was a standout for RSMU in defence then in attack. All shooters struggled with the windy conditions, but South's Jess Schutz was able to adjust and capitalise on the numerous turnovers created. Even so, RSMU's Erica Parker and Emily Heathfield continued to work hard, creating some forced errors. In the end, South's shooters proved most accurate on the day and able to work with the tricky conditions, securing a solid win.

C2

South Clare 37 v RSMU 17

Great start to the game with South shooting the first five unanswered goals to lead by six in the first quarter. RSMU changed the team around to their benefit and had an even second quarter with Elizabeth Rex shooting accurately. The third quarter saw a few changes from South dropping Molly Smyth back into the ring who shot accurately while Imogen Hennessey and Jade-Lee Fisher caused many turnovers throughout the midcourt. Penny Goodfellow tried hard all game for the RSMU goalies as well as Jess Seeliger in C. South just had too much of a lead for them to catch up.

15U – No Game

J1

South Clare 38 v RSMU 11

A strong start from both teams providing strong leads down the court. South Clare's Maddison Wehr was exceptional in defence, taking many intercepts which then saw South Clare's Bridget Slattery and Cassidy Maloney capitalise with accurate shooting. RSMU's Ryleigh Senar was strong in the goal circle with strong feeding from Georgia Dixon. Both teams controlled the ball well down the court despite windy conditions.

J2 – No Game

J3

South Clare v RSMU

The first half saw lots of great intercepts by both teams, particularly Vedanshi Aggarwal and Sammi McCarthy for South and Amelia McInerney and Isabel Berry for RSMU. RSMU had strong leads to the ball as a team, enabling great passages of play down the court. South capitalised on defensive intercepts with Amaya Craig shooting well. Ella Wehr (South) played a strong second half in centre with tight defence, intercepts, and strong leads to the ball. Brianna Williams and Elise Bastian (RSMU) took some strong rebounds in defence, but South's defensive end applied fantastic pressure preventing RSMU from converting. Chinyere Alozie (South) stepped up from J4s and played a fantastic half of netball with some beautiful front cuts and leads in WA.

J4

South Clare v RSMU

The first half saw some accurate shooting from South's goalies, Clara Ottens (GA) and Jazlyn Sudan (GS). RSMU's Lola Lines (GK) worked hard in defence with some excellent intercepts. Riley Przibilla (C) for RSMU provided strong leads for her team in the mid court to assist with feeding the ball into the goal circle. Great sportsmanship displayed by both teams today.

J5 - No Game

Eud/Rob vs North Clare

A1

Eud/Rob 36 v North Clare 34

Both teams struggled to score in the opening minutes due to windy conditions. Both teams had many turnovers, but Saints defenders Mem Dunstan and Georgia Huppatz performed well, giving their team many opportunities. North Clare's goalies Stacey Mugge and Zoe Pawelski eventually settled to give North Clare the early lead before Saints fought back to cut their errors with good passing into the goal ring by Courtney Jensen which allowed for improved shooting. The Saints turned the score around to be up by four goals at halftime. At three-quarter time the Saints kept a narrow lead of two goals. Both teams performed good defence all over the court during the game.

A2

Eud/Rob 27 v North Clare 30

It was an evenly contested first quarter by both teams in tough windy conditions. The play was steady with strong drives by North Clare's Kelly Shekle and Saints Lisa Ah Chee. With the Saints taking the lead by one goal at the first break. Both teams struggled to adjust to the conditions in the second quarter, however, North Clare capitalised on Saints' missed shots. It was a tough battle in the third as North Clare was determined to get the lead back. The Saints' defence capitalised on North Clare's turnover balls to narrow the lead by one goal. Saints made lots of changes in the last quarter, however, North Clare's experience and composure were too much for the Saints.

B1

Eud/Rob 32 v North Clare 38

North Clare started the match strongly and were in the lead at the end of the first quarter fourteen to one. The Saints worked hard in the last three quarters to lessen the margin. North Clare kept control to win the game by a six-goal lead.

Eud/Rob 29 v North Clare 23

The Saints were in control from the first whistle, Meagan Pfitzner shooting well for the Saints. North Clare picked up the pace in the second quarter putting pressure on the Saints turning the ball on lots of occasions. There was equal pressure by both sides with North Clare's goalies shooting well, Saints pulled away in the last five minutes and won by six goals.

C1

Eud/Rob 32 v North Clare 13

The Saints had a great start in the windy conditions, up by seven goals at the end of the first quarter. Bella Chenoweth and Rachel Sagenschnitter's fantastic intercepts through the mid-court contributed to keep up the lead. North Clare fought back in the third quarter with even shooting by both teams. North Clare's Eliza Fels worked well through the centre but the Saints were too strong and finished well.

C2

Eud/Rob 54 v North Clare 21

Under testing conditions, the Saints and North Clare battled it out with an even contest for the first half of the game. The second half of the game saw the Saints getaway to be up by twenty-three goals in the second quarter. Saint's shooters Julia Schutz and Makaya Sauer shot accurately throughout the whole game. North Clare's defence was consistent throughout and capitalised on rebounds in the Saint's goal circle. Both teams played a great game in these windy conditions, however, the Saints came away with the win.

15U

Eud/Rob 56 v North Clare 9

The Saints started strong with full-court defence. North Clare took longer to settle but got a goal on the board with excellent defensive pressure by Lucy Green and Sophie Green. Changes at the quarter time saw North Clare capitalise on the Saint's errors. Consistency by Mikaya Sauer and Charlotte Nietschke saw the Saints lead by thirty-five goals at halftime. North Clare persisted across all areas of the court despite the scoreline. A hard-fought game by both teams.

J1

Eud/Rob 33 v North Clare 12

North Clare turned over the first centre pass and moved the ball quickly into their goal ring. The Saints picked up lots of loose balls and provided lots of backup down the court by Caitlyn Cameron and Bridget Williams. Macey Fels, worked hard to provide drive down the court and settle North Clare. Rubi AhChee drove well through the centre in the first half for the Saints. Both teams made changes at half time creating a more even game. Charlotte Wood (North) made Leni Geister (Saints) work hard for the ball all game. North finished with a strong last quarter making the most of their turnovers.

J2

Eud/Rob 10 v North Clare 2

The Saints started strongly making a few extra turnovers and taking the lead at quarter-time. During the second quarter Saints continued to put lots of pressure on the ball and maintained their lead. After half time North Clare made changes which saw more confidence in their leading and defensive pressure. The last quarter was evenly contested; however, the Saints maintained their lead to come away with the win.

J3

Eud/Rob v North Clare

Both the Saints and North Clare brought brilliant defence to the game and were moving the ball up and down the court. The Saints had great intercepts through the game, and North Clare held their strong teamwork over the court. Well done to all the girls for a well-played match.

J4

Eud/Rob v North Clare

Strong defensive pressure from both teams in the first quarter with good shooting from North Clare. By half-time, there was a lot of back-and-forth play in the midcourt with defence by the Saints. The last half of the game showed evenly contested play.
