

Round 8

28th June 2025

RSMU V BSR

A1

RSMU 26 BSR 62

RSMU faced a strong and determined BSR side in this week's A1 match, with BSR setting the pace early and showing dominance across all areas of the court. Their intensity and clean ball movement gave them the edge from the outset. Rebecca Kitschke and Marlee George were standouts for BSR, providing excellent attacking drive and combining well to keep their team on the front foot. Their ability to control play through the midcourt and feed accurately into the goal circle was a highlight. RSMU made several changes throughout the game, and each position worked hard to adapt and apply pressure where possible. While it was a challenging contest, RSMU continued to show effort and determination right to the final whistle. It was a strong performance from BSR and a valuable learning game for RSMU.

A2

RSMU 45 BSR 37

Both teams contested the ball strongly in the first quarter with RSMU going into the second half with a four-goal lead. RSMU really stepped it up and extended their lead in the third with great defensive work by RSMUs Paige Rowett (GD) followed by strong shooting by Zoe Hier (GA). BSR put the pressure on in the last quarter with great midcourt pressure by BSRs Stella Benger (WD) and great goalie movement by Charlotte Heinjus (GA) followed by accurate shooting. RSMU managed to hold on to win by 8 goals

B1

RSMU 51 BSR 49

With RSMU's season and contact with the top four on the line this was always going to be a great contest between two evenly matched sides. BSR took the chocolates in the first encounter and showed early why they did so. Outstanding circle defence from Lexi Bache and Lucy Wilsdon made life difficult for RSMU to settle into steady play. Their counterparts at the opposing end Jas Klavins and Kalee Noble for RSMU were equally up to the task. Changes by both teams throughout swung the momentum in favour of both teams equally with RSMU hanging on to secure a much needed two goal win.

RSMU 35 BSR 52

Both teams came out strong for a tightly contested first quarter. BSR came out strong in the second quarter with tight defensive pressure from Annabel Sanders in GK. RSMU were out run in the mid court and BSR extended their lead at half time. RSMU made some changes to the side, with Jordy Purvis consistently applying pressure in the goal ring. BSR also made some changes which helped keep their lead. Their goalies shot accurately which helped BSR to a convincing win.

C1

RSMU 26 BSR 41

BSR started strongly with great defence by the Robson sisters. RSMU struggled to get the ball cleanly into the forward lines and BSR had a good lead at half time with some very accurate shooting by BSR's Jordan Hentschke. RSMU swapped the team to try to find the right combination and in the last quarter settled on a side that gelled with Stevie Lee Dutton from RSMU playing her first game in Centre. Brooke Rollins in goals for RSMU made a huge difference but this didn't change the good win by BSR by fifteen goals.

C2

RSMU 25 BSR 34

BSR jumped out of the blocks to set up an early lead, Sierra Heard shooting accurately as she capitalised on great defensive work led by Maddi Robson. The lead blew out to a match high of fourteen goals during the third quarter, but great hustling by RSMU defenders Claire Crouch and Rachel Moore saw the home side peg the margin back, both sides competing evenly for the rest of the game as the visitors steadied to win by nine.

INTERMEDIATE 1

RSMU 37 BSR 45

BSR came out with high intensity putting full court pressure on RSMU causing early turnovers across the court leading to a well-earned lead at quarter time.

BSR continued to pressure RSMU in the second quarter with great defence in the midcourt from BSR's C Ava White and WD Ivy Weckert. RSMU found it hard to convert and equal BSR's drive and confidence on court. The Second half saw RSMU step up at both ends of the court with RSMU's GS Ryleigh Senar holding strong with accurate shooting. Circle defence turnovers from RSMU gave them more opportunities to capitalise and decreased the end margin winning the last quarter.

RSMU 16 BSR 38

BSR started strongly and shot accurately (Paige Jones GS and Maya Beart McKay GA) to take the first quarter 10-4. RSMU's WD, Emily Altus, had a great quarter getting many deflections. The second quarter was evenly contested with both teams going goal for goal. RSMU's Phoebe Rowett and BSR's Olive Hombsch had a great battle in the mid court. BSR extended their lead in the third and fourth quarters and capitalized on errors from RSMU. Amelia McInerney (RSMU GD) worked hard all game.

RSMU 5 BSR 24

In wet conditions BSR started strong with early goals in the first quarter. Violet Lange combined well with Ana-Marie McPherson to be dangerous in goals. Riley Przbilla had a great game in the mid court linking up with Grace Kellman and Ivy Smart. The game was played in good spirit and both teams have shown great improvement since the last clash at Redhill.

SUB-JUNIOR 1

This week, RSMU took on BSR in a fast-paced and competitive Sub Junior 1 match. Both teams impressed with their ball speed and smart decision-making throughout the game. For BSR, Liam Thomas and Imogen Burgess stood out with their strong play and consistent efforts. RSMU's Bridie Osman and Imogen Vandeleur also had great games, working hard and contributing well across the court. It was an enjoyable match with great teamwork and plenty of exciting moments from both sides.

SUB-JUNIOR 2

BSR came out strong, with Evie Andrew, working tirelessly up and down the court, picking off several impressive intercepts. RSMU's Centre, Lucy Rowett, matched the challenge with sharp preliminary movements and quick thinking through the midcourt. In goals, Lola Kolencik was a standout performer, showcasing great ball movement and finishing with beautiful, accurate shooting. It was a competitive game played in great spirit, and it is clear that both teams have made fantastic progress since round 2 – a promising sign for the rest of the season!

Eudunda/ Robertstown v South Clare

A1

Eudunda/Robertstown 40 def. by South Clare 47

South Clare came out firing, forcing Eudunda/ Robertstown into chase mode early. Midcourt changes by Eudunda/Robertstown helped them settle, trailing by just one at the first break. The intensity lifted in the second quarter, with a strong midcourt battle between Sophie Nietschke (Eud/Rob) and Ellie Falconer (South Clare). Scores were tied at halftime. The final quarter began goal-for-goal before Eudunda/Robertstown struggled under pressure, with South Clare pulling ahead and securing a seven-goal win.

A2

Eudunda/Robertstown 27 def. by South Clare 44

Eudunda/Robertstown started strong with early turnovers, matching South Clare's intensity. A change in the goal ring gave South Clare momentum, allowing them to edge ahead by halftime. South Clare's defensive pressure caused turnovers in the goal circle, gradually extending their lead. Although Eudunda/Robertstown found rhythm in the final term, it was too late to close the gap, with South Clare running away with the win.

B1

Eudunda/Robertstown 43 def. South Clare 31

A tight first quarter saw strong defensive work from Regan Mosey and Matilda O'Brien, giving Eudunda/ Robertstown a narrow lead. Accurate shooting from Charlotte Nietschke and Makaya Sauer helped stretch that margin at halftime. South Clare responded in the third, led by Emily Bradley and Scarlett Liebelt's sharp shooting, but Eudunda/ Robertstown lifted again in the last to secure a convincing win.

Eudunda/Robertstown 41 def. by South Clare 51

A shaky start by both teams saw South Clare find their rhythm first, holding a six-goal lead after the first quarter. Eudunda/ Robertstown responded strongly to come within one goal at halftime. South Clare's goalies proved dominant, extending the lead to twelve by the third break. Despite a solid final quarter from Eudunda/ Robertstown, South Clare held on for a ten-goal win.

C1

Eudunda/Robertstown 44 def. South Clare 25

Chantel Schutz set the tone with accurate shooting, giving Saints an early lead. The defensive end stepped up, forcing turnovers and creating opportunities. Despite South Clare applying midcourt pressure, Eudunda/ Robertstown managed the wet conditions well and maintained control throughout. A huge congratulations to Chantel on her 450th game — a true club legend!

C2

Eudunda/Robertstown 40 def. South Clare 31

A strong start from both teams saw early goal-for-goal play. Eudunda/ Robertstown capitalised on key interceptions and displayed tight matchups across the court. Mistakes were minimal, making every turnover count. Eudunda/ Robertstown maintained composure to finish the match on top.

Eudunda/Robertstown 34 def. by South Clare 39

Both teams came out fast, trading goals early. South Clare took a slight lead at quarter time, thanks to key intercepts from Issy Quinton. A burst of defensive pressure in the second quarter put Saints on the back foot, but they steadied with strong efforts from Regan Mosey and Imogen Noack. With only two goals separating them at halftime, the third quarter remained tight. In the final term, South Clare lifted again, limiting Eudunda/ Robertstown's attacking opportunities and holding out for the win.

Eudunda/Robertstown 42 def. South Clare 22

Eudunda/ Robertstown came out firing, with Zoe Neal and Jaymie-Lee Vandenberg combining well in goals. South Clare made multiple changes across the court to disrupt momentum, but strong midcourt matchups kept the game tough. Eudunda/ Robertstown stayed composed and pushed ahead each quarter to take a comfortable win.

Eudunda/Robertstown 5 def. by South Clare 45

Eudunda/ Robertstown opened the scoring but struggled to hold possession against South Clare's relentless pressure. With strong intercepts and quick transitions, South Clare controlled the game end to end.

Eudunda/Robertstown 15 def. by South Clare 19

A close contest from start to finish. Eudunda/ Robertstown started strongly with accurate shooting and solid defensive work, but South Clare stayed composed to edge ahead in the final stages and claim the win.

SUB JUNIOR 1

South Clare started strong, but Eudunda/ Robertstown lifted in the second quarter with fantastic defensive efforts. South Clare's accurate shooting was matched by Eudunda/ Robertstown's persistence. The last quarter showcased great pressure and teamwork from both sides in a well-contested game.

SUB JUNIOR 2

An even first quarter displayed strong skills from both teams. Eudunda/ Robertstown impressed with great court movement through the midcourt and into attack. South Clare responded with energy after positional changes, resulting in an even and entertaining contest.

North Clare vs MinMan

A1

North Clare 45 - MinMan 54

The game started at a fierce pace with both sides defending hard with lots of balls being turned over. North finished the quarter ahead by 2 with some fantastic drive through the court by Kirsty Baum and Chelsea Panoho. A tightly contested second quarter saw both teams goalies shoot accurately with North going into the half time break up by 1. Min Man lifted their intensity in the 3rd capitalising on turnovers and finished with accurate shooting by Molly Ross putting them ahead by 11 at three quarter time. North fought back in the final quarter with some amazing shooting by Zoe Pawelski however Min Man's strong third quarter saw the lead too hard to peg back with a final margin of 9 goals.

A2

North Clare 29 – MinMan 40

The first half was fast-paced and tightly contested, with strong play displayed across the court. In the third quarter, MinMan managed to settle into their rhythm and take control of the game. They capitalised on key turnovers and made the most of their scoring opportunities. With consistent pressure and composed play, MinMan extended their lead and finished the match with a convincing win.

B1

North Clare 30 – MinMan 55

North Clare started strong, with Layla Schultz taking some early intercepts to disrupt MinMan's play. However, MinMan quickly capitalised on North's errors, combining strong defence with accurate shooting to take a commanding 15–4 lead at the first break. The second quarter was more evenly matched, with North working hard to close the gap. MinMan's goal shooter, Lydia Schwartz, was a standout, shooting with confidence and accuracy. Min-Man extended their lead in the second half to come away with a convincing win.

B2

North Clare 31 – MinMan 47

The opening quarter was tightly contested, with both teams matching each other across the court. MinMan held a narrow 3-goal lead at the first break.

North's Bec Court was a steady presence in the goal circle, shooting consistently throughout the first half. MinMan, however, continued to move the ball confidently through the midcourt, gradually building momentum.

Heidi Kruse (MinMan) was a strong contributor in defence, delivering a consistent performance across all four quarters, while Hayley Reid (North Clare) worked tirelessly for her side.

As the game progressed, MinMan's composed play saw them extend their lead, eventually claiming a solid 16-goal win.

C1

North Clare 37 - MinMan 44

It was a tightly contested game, even with North Clare bringing in four last-minute players to complete their team. Min-Man's Tatum Giles shot with great accuracy, while Shayla Lewis controlled the centre court with precision. North Clare's Ava Smith displayed clean, disciplined defence, and Ella Hoyle was a standout through the centre, consistently feeding the ball into the goal circle to keep North in touch throughout the four quarters. MinMan's consistency proved the difference in the final quarter, allowing them to maintain their lead and secure the win. A great game played by all.

C2

North Clare 37 - MinMan 64

The first quarter was strongly contested with excellent shooting from MinMan's Emily Linkers and Taylah Cook. Ashley White and Mikayla Mason found their groove together in the second, moving in sync with one another around the ring.

Kerry Ann Ahern kept North Clare calm and settled in the third as Laurel Lees and Emmelie Nijkens ramped up their defensive pressure in the circle, helping Min Man increase their lead. North found their fight in the fourth and challenged MinMan right to the end but Minman ran away with the win.

INTERMEDIATE 1

North Clare 32 – MinMan 44

A great contest across the first half saw MinMan with just a 6 point lead. MinMan's Emily Linkers and Taylah Cook displayed accurate and flawless shooting but North's defence in Sophie Green, Zoe Lynch and Tesha Jaeschke sure made them work for it. MinMan controlled and steadied in the third to increase their lead to 10, but North continued the fight with strong pressure and more control and accuracy in the ring by Olivia Muchan and Tegan Kloock. Chloe Ackland maintained tight defensive pressure throughout the game to ensure MinMan kept their lead to win the game.

INTERMEDIATE 2

North Clare 10 – MinMan 67

MinMan opened the game with strong and accurate shooting from Marissa Ross and Eloise Plueckhahn, putting early scoreboard pressure on North.

North's defensive pairing of Isabella Stevens and Kiera Kerslake combined well in the ring, reading the play and applying smart pressure to challenge MinMan's attack.

However, in the second quarter, the game began to slip away from North as MinMan lifted their intensity and applied strong defensive pressure across the entire court.

Despite the mounting challenge, the North girls remained positive and gave their all for four quarters, showing great resilience and teamwork throughout the match.

JUNIOR 1

North Clare 17 – MinMan 37

MinMan started the game with intensity, dominating the first half thanks to accurate shooting from Jorja Schutz and Stella Schwartz, backed by strong feeding from their midcourt.

North Clare responded with strategic changes in the second half, lifting their intensity at both ends of the court and managing to take out the third quarter with a strong performance.

Despite North's spirited fightback, MinMan's early lead and consistent flow of play proved too much, securing them a convincing win.

North Clare 11 - MinMan 28

It was a tightly contested start to the game, with both teams matching each other goal for goal. MinMan held a narrow lead of just four goals at half time. North Clare's Lucy Redden impressed with several strong intercepts, while Ellie Meaney provided great drive through the midcourt to keep her team in touch. However, MinMan found another gear in the third quarter, with Charlee Hall delivering excellent court coverage and drive, and Brooklyn Williams standing out with her strength and accuracy in the goal circle. From there, MinMan continued to build momentum and pulled away, finishing the game with a convincing win.

SUB-JUNIOR 1

North Clare Vs Min Man

Strong defence and sharp movement saw MinMan take control early in the first quarter. Centre Chase Gillings confidently fed the ball into the shooting circle, linking well with Lexi Lillicrapp and Abigail Edwards.

MinMan maintained their momentum in the second quarter, converting every opportunity with impressive shooting accuracy. Tight defence from North's Aliya Hawker and Harper Scott forced MinMan to work harder for every goal.

North Clare found some rhythm in the middle quarters, with Ruby Milburn scoring valuable goals in the second and third. Annabelle Barry added to the tally in the final term, but despite North's determination and best efforts, MinMan's early all-court pressure proved too much, securing them a well-deserved win.

SUB-JUNIOR 2

North Clare Vs Min Man

A strongly contested game. MinMan's accurate goal shooting and determination to maintain possession of the ball enabled to get the jump on North Clare.

Once North Clare settled and became more competitive it was a great game to watch.

Blyth Snowtown V BBH

A1

Blyth Snowtown 52 v BBH 23

Blyth Snowtown settled early with great defensive pressure by their defenders Millie Roberts & Hayley Weatherald and took an early lead. BBH rallied with accurate shooting by Shae Glacken with a more even second quarter. Blyth Snowtown lifted with great feeds to Kristen McRae who had strong holds all game. BBH worked hard however Blyth Snowtown maintained composure and finished with a strong last quarter.

A2

Blyth Snowtown v BBH

NO GAME

B1

Blyth Snowtown 39 v BBH 31

Blyth Snowtown got off to a good start in wet conditions, with Elise Honner moving the ball clearly through the mid court and feeding efficiently into goalies Rachel Carling and Donna Stewart to lead by 10 at quarter time. Blyth Snowtown extended their lead in the second quarter capitalising on turnovers and steady shooting. In the third quarter, Blyth Snowtown continued to control the game despite taking a while to settle. Great defensive pressure from Greta Pratt and Sam Mackay helped them keep their advantage into the final quarter. The last quarter saw BBH come out strong and determined, putting together some great passages of play and capitalising on every opportunity with great shooting from Kloe Berryman. Blyth Snowtown remained settled to finish with a win.

Blyth Snowtown 55 v BBH 37

Both Blyth Snowtown and BBH came out steady and wary of the wet conditions. Blyth Snowtown's experience and persistence held strong to take the lead at the end of the first quarter by 4. BBH's Amy Berryman shot accurately to keep BBH in the game with strong defence from BBH's Kiara Sosa capitalising on their goals through to the third quarter. Strong defensive pressure from Kayla Harrison in the mid court and Susie Schramm in the defence helped stretch out the lead for Blyth Snowtown.

C1

Blyth Snowtown 35 versus BBH 37

Blyth Snowtown had a strong and steady start, quickly taking the lead, however, even defensive pressure saw BBH catch up steadily. Blyth Snowtown and BBH have always been evenly matched in the C1s with both teams having to work hard for the duration of the game. Strong defence from Blyth Snowtown players Britt Lane and Keryn Gebert saw Blyth Snowtown lead by 5 at half time. In the second half of the game, BBH shooters Jodie Stockman and Reagan Vangasteren rarely missed with quick feeds into the ring. Similarly, Blyth Snowtown shooters rewarded any turnovers with a particularly notable and spectacular goal by Hayley Ward. Despite holding the lead all game, the rain set in in the fourth quarter and with Blyth Snowtown players hesitating slightly, BBH were able to take the lead and ultimately win by 2 goals.

C2

Blyth Snowtown 15 VS BBH 44

Blyth Snowtown and BBH came out strong in the first quarter, with BBH taking a 5 goal lead at the first break. BBH's Hannah Neill was dominant in GA, barely missing a shot and keeping the scoreboard ticking over. Blyth Snowtown's mid court worked hard to transition the ball down the court, while Trinity Schult from Blyth Snowtown was a standout in defence, disrupting BBH's smooth play with several intercepts.

INTERMEDIATE 1

Blyth Snowtown 27 V BBH 56

A strong and steady start from BBH, who took the lead early with efficient drive down the court by Emmy Lou Cooper and Lily Hancock. Lily Stirling provided good defensive pressure and turnovers for Blyth Snowtown, but BBH continued to extend their lead throughout the first and second quarters. Changes by Blyth Snowtown at half time improved their confidence, but the Rams were still too quick and skilled for them to catch up.

INTERMEDIATE 2

Blyth Snowtown 34 V BBH 34

BBH goalie Darcie Oppermann was hot from the start of the game with accurate shooting that helped push BBH lead in the first quarter. Blyth Snowtown attacked the ball well in the second quarter with defensive pressure from Trinity Schultz and Hannah King providing great turnovers. Gemma Gebhardt was solid in C for BBH. An exciting game with goal for goal scoring in the final quarter ultimately ending in a draw.

Blyth Snowtown 4 V BBH 34

BBH moved the ball quickly into their goal circle with accurate shooting from Maddison Harvey. Blyth Snowtown mid court worked hard to get front position and had scoring opportunities, but BBH defence Pippa Benson was solid with multiple intercepts. A tough game for Blyth Snowtown who did give up and had some lovely passages of play struggled to convert on the score board. BBH too tough with a convincing win.

Blyth Snowtown 20 V BBH 20

Quick start by BBH with a flurry of goals, their accurate passing was lovely to watch with BBH C Mia driving well. BBH led the first quarter by 6 goals. Blyth Snowtown rallied and picked up their defensive pressure through the mid court with good conversion from Florence Fabian shooting strongly and goal ring defence by Maleigh Schultz leaving scores very even at the half time break. Both teams' movement of the ball was lovely to watch with goal for goal over the second half of the game and super effort by all players with lots of mid court intercepts and accurate shooting by all goalies.

SUB-JUNIOR 1

Blyth Snowtown v BBH

The game started very even, with both teams playing some great netball. Great tussle between Blyth Snowtown's Leni Ottens and BBH Alexandra Robinson. BBH started the second quarter with a few quick shots. Blyth Snowtown then settled in the second half with some great shooting from Sophia McKean. Both teams showed some great defensive pressure through the whole game.

SUB-JUNIOR 2

Blyth Snowtown v BBH

A very even start to the game saw BBH and Blyth Snowtown fight hard for every pass with lots of great intercepts from both sides. Blyth Snowtown showed some great defensive pressure from Indi Hitch and Elka McCormack, matched well with BBH's Tess Noack & Annie Hall. Both sides made last quarter changes with Chloe Schramm coming out strong in the goal circle for Blyth Snowtown.
