

Round 11

22nd July 2023

BBH v South Clare

A1 - No Game

A2

BBH 41 def SC 23

BBH settled early in the piece giving them an early lead in the first quarter. Great pressure by South's GD Poppy Wilson creating many turnovers. BBH's defence line worked consistently throughout the whole game. Kylie Murphy's direction and maturity kept South's composure as BBH's lead went to eleven at three quarter time. Hard drives and great backup from BBH's Megan Brooks helped extend their lead and run away with a convincing win.

B1

BBH 42 def SC 35

Both teams came out with high energy and a determination for a win. BBH had control of the game early and with accurate shooting from Flick Stockman made a healthy lead. Amazing defence from BBH's Meg Malycha and Ellie Oates made South shooters Chloe Stanway and Ruby Stringer work hard. Several good passages of play in the last quarter from South had BBH working hard to maintain and keep their lead. Great first win for the BBH girls.

B2

BBH 35 lost to SC 37

BBH came out firing, both Maddy Taylor and Amy Berryman provided accurate shooting and easy targets in the circle. South slowly chipped away at the score line, out-shooting BBH each quarter. Amber Harris was a solid player all game for South. A well fought game by both teams with South getting ahead in the end.

C1

BBH 20 lost to SC 35

A great close first quarter. Both teams getting plenty of turnovers. South took a good lead in the second quarter with Mandy Knight taking some great intercepts and Scarlett Liebelt shooting well. BBH made some changes in the third, putting Reagan Van Gasteren into goals and Tahlia Lockwood into defence. BBH had a bit more of the ball in attack, but South were just too strong.

C2

BBH 15 lost to SC 32

South's Rhianna Loughton created many turnovers for their shooters to capitalise on. BBH's defence Rochelle Saint and Sienna Stockman had hands on every ball giving BBH plenty of opportunity. South had a strong lead of 16 by half time, but BBH's determination kept South's margin minimal.

15U

BBH 46 def SC 21

South came out on fire, moving the ball down the court effortlessly. BBH defence Millie Bavistock and Evelyn Klem worked together with beautiful turnovers. BBH came out with a bit more pep in their step and took charge of the game. South continued to play hard and well, but BBH's shooters were too strong in the end.

J1 - No Game

J2

BBH 27 def SC 6

BBH started off strong with South staying even throughout the first quarter. South's Amali Murphy working hard in the midcourt. BBH took the win with Marissa Bevan and Madison Harvey shooting goal after goal.

J3

BBH v SC

A well contested game by both teams with South's Scarlett McDonnell strong in the centre court providing many turnovers. Shanae Dulloway worked hard in defence helping BBH score.

J4

BBH v SC

Great start by South with accurate shooting by Shyla Williams. More even play in the second quarter. Lily Dalla and Lizzy Sullivan worked hard in BBH's defence.

J5

BBH v SC

A great game of netball played by both teams. Everyone got plenty of the ball with lots of shots at goal by both teams.

Blyth Snowtown v BSR

A1

Blyth Snowtown 47 lost to BSR 54

BSR started well and shot accurately all game through sisters Jemma and Taryn Kelly. Blyth Snowtown adjusted and outscored BSR by one in the second with patient feeding into their goalies and again reduced the margin at three quarter time to two. Kasey Bigg and Ellie Gould were hard to stop with fast strong leading and feeds to keep Blyth Snowtown in the game. BSR stepped up the pressure again in the fourth with Anna-Grace Close making it hard work for Blyth Snowtown and limited their scoring opportunities to take the win by seven.

A2

Blyth Snowtown 52 def BSR 42

Both teams started the game with intensity. The first quarter being tightly contested with accurate shooting by both BS's Kristen Allchurch and BSR's Alicia Thomas to have a one goal game in favour of Blyth Snowtown at quarter time. Continual defensive pressure from Blyth Snowtown's 300 gamer Hayley Zweck saw many turnovers. BSR played a defensive game and challenged Blyth Snowtown. Changes in the third quarter for both teams. Natasha Liddy provided extra voice and mid court drive for BSR. Into the last Blyth Snowtown came out with drive and extended their lead to win by ten.

B1

Blyth Snowtown 35 def BSR 29

Blyth Snowtown started off strong with accurate shooting by Chloe Freebairn and Ruby Jacka to take a comfortable lead at the first change. Mid court pressure by BSR Abbey Dare helped BSR come back to within four at half time. Changes to BSR in the third quarter with lots of defensive pressure by both teams kept the third quarter scores even. Lauren Ferme in defence for Blyth Snowtown put pressure on with multiple intercepts and touches to help Blyth Snowtown win by six.

B2

Blyth Snowtown 48 def BSR 31

An even first quarter with accurate shooting at both ends of the court. Blyth Snowtown up by five at quarter time. Amanda Harris and Nicola Ross stepped up in the second quarter and shot solidly for Blyth Snowtown with strong pressure from BSR defenders Erin Cousins and Amelia Hinge. Blyth Snowtown up by eleven at half time. Blyth-Snowtown continued to build pressure to make it hard for BSR to score, however they made the most of all their opportunities. BSR continued to work hard until the end, and Blyth Snowtown continued to build their lead until the final whistle.

C1

Blyth Snowtown 49 def BSR 43

A solid tussle from both teams throughout the match. Brooke Witcombe provided great drive and accurate shooting for BSR and Kristie Pengilly provided great direction in attack for Blyth Snowtown. Blyth Snowtown maintained the lead throughout a well contested game with scores BS 23 – BSR 21 at half time. Aleesha Baker and Laura Turley for Blyth Snowtown capitalised on great defensive pressure by Blyth Snowtown.

C2

Blyth Snowtown 41 def BSR 24

Blyth Snowtown scored quickly in the first few minutes to take the lead early. Lily Stirling fed well into Skye Ebsary and Ava McCauley, who were shooting accurately for Blyth Snowtown. Madison Robson and Denisia Jackson applied great defensive pressure and kept BSR in the game for the first half. Blyth Snowtown extended their lead in the third quarter, with swift movement down the court. BSR continued to fight hard, but Blyth Snowtown were too strong in the end.

15U

Blyth Snowtown 32 lost to BSR 49

The game started evenly in the first quarter with both teams making the most of their scoring opportunities with both teams drawn at the first change. BSR settled in the second quarter and worked well in the mid court to give their goalies more opportunity with Lara Sommerville outscoring Blyth Snowtown convincingly. Blyth Snowtown made changes at half time which saw the scoring for both teams increase. The game was very fast paced giving both teams some specky intercept opportunities with Charlotte Welke in GK for Blyth Snowtown and Lara Meyer in C for BSR. The final quarter was won by BSR who continued their consistent strong game outscoring Blyth Snowtown to come away with a solid win.

J1

Blyth Snowtown 23 lost to BSR 30

BSR started strongly and moved the ball down the court well. BSR up by four at quarter time. Sophie Weckert played well in Centre for BSR and took many intercepts. Whilst in the circle the BSR defenders were tight and physical. BSR up by seven at half time. Blyth Snowtown made many changes at half time which improved their game play. Kartia Altmann was a great link in Centre to bring the ball down and her defence was tight. Charlotte Muller continued to work hard in GS for Blyth Snowtown and shot and rebounded well. BSR up by ten at three quarter time. The final quarter was a more even contest with pressure all over the court from both teams. BSR capitalised on their turnovers more effectively than Blyth Snowtown. Final score, BSR up by eight.

J2 – No Game

J3

Blyth Snowtown v BSR

Blyth Snowtown started strongly and had pressure all the way down the court and accurate shooting by Georgia Schramm and Harriet Walker. BSR's Sophie Adams took some lovely intercepts and proved strong in defence. Isabella Thomas showed some great leads and movement down the court. Blyth Snowtown steadied their play and worked hard to capitalise on every ball. Blyth Snowtown's Lucy Wandel worked hard in centre providing opportunities down the court and Freya Philipps, Taylee Clifford and Harper McCormack had some beautiful turnovers. BSR's Sophia Richards lead beautifully and kept the intensity up all game. While Blyth Snowtown's Milly Davies and Georgia Edmunds had great strong hands over each ball with many touches and lovely backing up. Well done to both teams.

J4 – No Game

J5

Blyth Snowtown v BSR

A great display of netball by both teams and clear that all have been learning skills at training. Alexis Hentschke and Leni Ottens started strongly in goals for Blyth Snowtown. Alicia Pudney and Sadie Thomas were strong for BSR. A very enjoyable match played in great spirit.

Eud/Rob v Min-Man

A1

Eud/Rob 36 lost to Min-Man 44

A fast-paced first quarter by both teams. Saints came out flying with good defence by Mem Dunstan and Georgia Huppatz but Min-Man fought back to be even at quarter time. The game continued tight and fast with good movement by Min-Man through the midcourt by Leah Carling and Emma Carling, and Saints players Georgia Huppatz and Coby Rodda. Both sides made changes at halftime with young players Breea Schutz and Halle Smith coming on, but scores remained tight with Min-Man up by one at three-quarter time. Min-Man were the more composed in the last quarter and capitalised on Saints' errors to get the win.

A2

Eud/Rob 46 lost to Min-Man 55

Both teams came out fighting at the start, with even scores in the first quarter until the Saints took to the lead by two goals. ER Lisa Ah Chee and MM Lucy Nicholls had a strong competition in the second quarter, both fighting hard down the court. Min-Man came out strong after halftime taking the lead with both goalies shooting well. Despite Saint's efforts in the last quarter, Min-Man were just too strong and took the win by nine.

B1

Eud/Rob 46 def Min-Man 45

A great start for both sides. Min-Mans height in the ring was giving them the edge. Min-Man were up by five at the end of the first quarter. A lift by the Saints mid-court was working hard and some good defence made the game even at the main break. Again, another even quarter with both teams fighting hard Min-Man was up by one goal and the end of the third quarter. During the last quarter, it was a goal for goal, but the Saints came away with the win by one goal.

B2

Eud/Rob 30 lost to Min-Man 44

An evenly contested first quarter which was level at the quarter break. Min-Man came out strong in the second quarter to gain a good lead. Min-Man goalies were shooting accurately with the Saints working hard in the last quarter turning the ball, but Min-Man were too strong on the day.

C1

Eud/Rob 36 lost to Min-Man 38

Min-Man had a strong start with a consistent flow down the court making it hard for the Saints to score. The Saints quickly caught up but found it hard to maintain with Min-Man's tight defence to catch up to and gain the lead for a while in the last quarter it was close in the finish, but Min-Man showed they were just too good.

C2

Eud/Rob 48 def Min-Man 36

Saints took a lead in the first quarter with strong drives and accurate shooting by Jaz Williams (GA) and Julia Schutz (GS). During the second quarter, Min-Man caught up to make it even a 20-20 score at halftime as they capitalised on the Saints' errors. The addition of Madison Ah Chee in GA for the Saints was beneficial for the rebounds in the goal circle. Min-Man continued to fight hard to contest with the Saints all game. Min-Man's change in the goal circle during the fourth saw them be consistent for the rest of the game. A great game by all.

15U

Eud/Rob 49 lost to Min-Man 53

Min-Man were the first to settle, scoring the first four goals of the match. The Saints found their rhythm late in the first quarter, taking the lead by three at first quarter time. Min-Man lifted their intensity in the second quarter, out-scoring the Saints by ten goals. Changes at halftime saw Saints defensive duo, Regan Mosey and Jaz Williams, get hands to the ball to bring the score back to within reach. Min-Man's Tatum Giles shot brilliantly all match seeing her beat multiple Saints opponents. A big last quarter saw the Saints lift in all areas of the court. A consistent four-quarter effort saw Min-Man take the win by four goals.

J1

Eud/Rob 40 def Min-Man 19

An evenly contested first quarter with both teams a bit rattled to start the game. The second quarter Saints settled with Leni Geister taking great intercepts through the middle of the court. Jade Jenke and Bridget Williams provided great pressure in defence making it hard for Min-Man to get the ball into the ring. Amelia Duncan provided a good drive through the centre third for Min-Man. The Saints finished strong with accurate shooting by Zoe Neal.

J2

Eud/Rob 9 def Min-Man 7

It was an even game with the ball going up and down the court plenty of times. The Saints played most but couldn't capitalise in the goal ring. Min-Man outscored the Saints in the second half with some beautiful shots. A low-scoring game played in good spirits between the two teams.

J3

Eud/Rob v Min-Man

The Saints had a great start to the game after having two weeks off. Min-Man put pressure on the Saints throughout the game and didn't hold back. The first three quarters were brilliant by both teams and the Saints were placing pressure throughout.

J4

Eud/Rob v Min-Man

Min Man started well with good ball movement and accurate shooting by both goalies. The Saints lifted their pressure gaining defensive turnovers for their attack line. Saints worked the ball into their attack in the second quarter with more confidence and strong leads from Jessica Preston. Min-Man's Lyla Allmond worked hard in defence all game turning over numerous balls giving their attackers plenty of opportunities. Both the Saints and Min-Man worked hard throughout the whole game.

J5 - No Game

North Clare v RSMU

A1

NC 35 lost to RSMU 60

From the first whistle, RSMU's Sarah Noack took control of the game. Abby and Sophie Griffiths presented well and shot accurately, capitalising on turnovers, to have a solid lead by the end of the first quarter. North's Millie Heinjus worked very hard to stop many attacking efforts, but North lacked the transition drive to convert into goals. North Clare tried a few different things to try and combat RSMU, but RSMU just kept building on their lead all game.

A2

NC 30 lost to RSMU 53

Wet conditions saw a steady start to the game. RSMU gained an early lead, with Paige Rowett and Zoe Hier showing consistent accuracy in the ring. North's Kelly Shekle and RSMU's Kerry Heinrich had a physical battle through the mid court, controlling the ball for both teams. North's Kel Vasek got her hands on valuable turnovers in the third term, however North failed to capitalise. RSMU's Rebekah Lockwood's defence in the ring proved too strong for the Roosters, as they extended their lead further in the final quarter.

B1

NC 43 def RSMU 38

RSMU came out firing, turning over the ball and outscoring North by three in the first quarter. Great defence by RSMU's Jasmine Connell. Great passages of play by both teams. RSMU continued their run in second quarter ending up by two at half time. North gained their composure. Lara Jaeschke shooting and moving well considering height difference. North slowly outscoring to win the game by five.

B2

NC 45 def RSMU 37

North started strong with great defence from Madi Coles and accurate shooting from Leonie Player and Sophie McLennan. In the second quarter RSMU steadied and came back strong with great attacking from Tayla McBride and great shooting from Hayley Busch. North regrouped and held the lead at half time. North made some changes and stepped up in the second half although RSMU's defence was strong North ran away in the last quarter for a good win of a great match.

C1

NC 49 def RSMU 23

North quickly got a lead on the scoreboard. North's mid court feeding will into goals with Ruby Redden and Mikayla Mason not missing a beat, winning the quarter NC 19 – RSMU 3. RSMU changed at quarter time put Kasey Jenner into goals giving them some advantage but North's defence by Amelie Smith turned any loose balls that came her way. Congratulations Yana on your 300th game, what a win.

C2

NC 48 def RSMU 19

A strong start by both teams. RSMU's mid court were strong, and this resulted in some strong attacking and goal shooting by their GA and GS. Great team effort by North with some excellent interceptions by Bec Wilson and Alice McMurray. The rain made for a hard, scrappy finish for both sides.

15U - No Game

J1

NC 26 lost to RSMU 27

A tightly contested game throughout, with accurate shooting by North's Ella Coles and RSMU's Ryleigh Senar keeping it goal for goal and even throughout the first half. Very close last quarter with RSMU taking the lead by one in the last 30 seconds.

J2 - No Game

J3

North Clare v RSMU

An even start by both teams in the first. Some great intercepts by North's Caitlin Scott created many opportunities for them. RSMU had some great drive down the court and some great shooting by Isabel Berry. A very exciting last quarter going goal for goal. A great game to watch well done to all the girls.

J4

North Clare v RSMU

It was an evenly contested game throughout the whole court with great defence from both teams. Both teams worked hard for each other and had some lovely passages of play.

J5 - No Game