Round: 12

Date: 30th July, 2022

Match between: BBH v North Clare

A1

Result: BBH 33 v North Clare 56

Both teams came out firing and hungry for the win. An evenly contested first half with BBH's Amelia Rasheed applying great pressure and being rewarded with intercepts. North capitalised on their defensive pressure by Millie Heijus and Taylah Edwards with great feeding into the goalies by Kirsty Baum. The Roosters played a solid four quarters to bring home a convincing and well fought win.

A2

Result: BBH 31 v North Clare 47

BBH started strong with Maddi Millward contesting many balls in the centre third. North's Kristin Coles and Ariane Harnett's defence was tough and consistent throughout the whole game and Zoe Pawelski (NC) played a solid four quarters shooting accurately. Overall, North were the better team on the day.

B1

Result: BBH 16 v North Clare 65

North Clare's teamwork and accurate shooting from Jessica Lloyd and Renee Scott proved too strong for BBH. Sam Quinn worked hard for the rare rebound and Caitlin Stockman provided strong defence through the mid court. North Clare kept up the intensity and pace throughout the game and finished with a well-deserved win.

B2

Result: BBH 21 v North Clare 64

The game started with some great defence work which kept the scoring low and close, North Clare by two. North upped their defence work coming out in front by 13. Strong defence by Annie Kellock and Jessica Cousins couldn't stop the accurate shooting of the North Clare goalies with the Roosters taking the game away from BBH.

C1

Result: BBH 20 v North Clare 44

A strong performance from a young North Clare side. Marie Mulligan, North Clare GA shot well and kept BBH defenders Meg Malycha on her toes. BBH's Jess Sparrow drove well down the court providing options for her team mates. Quick passing and accurate shooting gave North Clare the win.

C2

Result: BBH 25 v North Clare 25

A tight game from start to finish saw BBH and North Clare draw. North goalies Sarayah White and Mikayla Mason were evenly matched by BBH defence. Tilly Noakes was particularly strong in the BBH mid court.

15U

Result: BBH 37 v North Clare 17

It was a hard fought first quarter with both teams struggling to find rhythm. The second half saw both teams settle into their pace with North's centre Amelia Smith providing great drive down the court. However, BBH's Millie Bavistock created many turnovers with her quick hands, which were converted into goals with accurate shooting from Keira Schuppan. This saw BBH run away with the win.

J1

Result: BBH 39 v North Clare 22

BBH came out firing and took the lead early in the first quarter. North's Mazie Fels put hands over the ball forcing turnovers creating scoring opportunities for the Roosters. The second half saw both teams come out hungry. BBH's Annabelle Quinn and Marissa Bevan drove the ball into the goal ring and the BBH defence proved too strong for Northy's in the end. A well fought game by both teams, but BBH remained consistent and were able to run away with the win.

J2 BBH 18 v North Clare 11

BBH had a strong first half getting lots of turnovers from GD Paige Blacksell. North Clare's C Edwina Callary's strong drive through the court narrowed the score at three quarter time. A tight low scoring last quarter meant BBH held onto their lead.

J3

No game

J4

A great even match with great sportsmanship. BBH had a lot of play in the first quarter but didn't capitalise. Defenders at both ends, Ava Smith (NC), Lucy Quinn and Alysia Hayford (BBH) were getting multiple turnovers. North Clare had a strong second half.

J5

It was a very well contested game by both teams. North Clare's GD Ruby Mason had some excellent pickups in the first half. Lilly Dalla for BBH played excellent in GD, intercepting the ball many times. A great game with great sportsmanship.

Match between: Blyth Snowtown vs Eudunda Robertstown

A1

Result: Blyth Snowtown 60 v Eudunda Robertstown 52

The game started at a fast pace with Blyth Snowtown taking a two goal lead at quarter time. Eudunda Robertstown's Georgina Pfitzner and Kyla Newman combined well in the ring with fantastic shooting to take the lead from Blyth Snowtown and be up at half time by six. The game again took a turn when Blyth Snowtown's Maggie Hentschke switched from GA to GK to curb the Saints goals with the Cats taking back the lead by four at three quarter time. Phoebe Rowett and Charlotte Plueckhahn created strong attacking opportunities for RSMU. RSMU swapped Amelia McInerney into defence and she created multiple turnovers. Amali and Koa Murphy defended strongly across the transverse line with Ella Wehr driving the ball into attack. Sammi McCarthy and Nishyoera Nelluri had a good tussle in the defensive circle. An open game down the court with both teams showing much improvement.

J5

A cold start to the day but the players warmed up quickly with strong and frequent goals throughout the game. Quick passing through the centre court by Grayce Kellman and Phoebe Rowett, and strong defensive play by Zara Lally and Zarah Cook. Great sportsmanship displayed by both teams.

Match between: Min Man and BSR

A1

Result: Min Man 39 v BSR 37

Accurate shooting by Min Man saw them take an early lead. Strong defensive pressure from BSR's Bec Moyne gave them opportunities to convert. The third quarter saw the margin narrow with accurate shooting from BSR's Taryn Kelly. A tight and contested last quarter saw a good tussle from both teams, with Min Man's Jana Dixon causing lots of turnovers.

A2

Result: Min Man 54 v BSR 53

Min Man started strong out of the blocks and gained an early lead on BSR. Accurate shooting from BSR's Alicia Thomas slightly closed the margin by half time. Min Man made some changes going into the third quarter, although BSR applied hands all the way down the court to create turnovers and bring the score even going into the last quarter. The game was goal for goal, but Min Man managed to steady and come away with the win by one goal. A great contested game by both teams.

B1

Result: Min Man 56 v BSR 24

A strong start for Min Man taking advantage of defensive turn overs, converting them straight to goals. BSR slowing the pace through the middle with a defensive zone making Min Man work harder to move the ball down the court. Min Man settled in the second quarter to take a strong lead at half time 29 to 13. Changes were made for both teams to shake things up and put to the test to see who could settle quicker. BSR's Annabel Smart provided speed down the court and had the Eagles running hard to stop the drive. Pressure in the ring from the BSR defence meant the Eagles needed to be strong with their hands if they wanted the ball and they stood up to the test. Min Man's ability to work as a team and settle the play, lead to them being the ultimate winners.

B2

Result: Min Man 43 v BSR 29

BSR started strong with very accurate shooting. A scrappy second quarter with many turnovers with Min Man having the lead at half time. A strong third quarter by Min Man capitalising on many turnovers with the score 33-19 at three quarter time. BSR worked hard in the final quarter, but Min Man held on to have a solid win.

C1

Result: Min Man 48 v BSR 29

A confident start in the first quarter from Min Man with GA Lara Smith shooting accurately. Good pressure all over the court from BSR evened up the game in the second and third quarters. Both teams made changes for the last quarter and Min Man settled better to extend their lead winning by 19 goals.

15U

Result: Min Man 54 v BSR 28

A strong start by Min Man with accurate shooting by both goalies. Great defence by Min Man in the second quarter saw them extend their lead. Changes in the third saw BSR close the gap, but Min Man were too strong in the fourth ending with a strong win.

J1Result: Min Man 34 v BSR 10

A fast start in the first quarter with some great moves and passes by Min Man's centre Amelia Duncan. The second quarter saw a lot of ball play across the whole court with lots of strong passes. Some good turn overs by BSR's centre Ava White. Some great defending by both teams but Min Man came off with a strong win.

J2No Game*J3

Wonderful shooting by both teams, lots of great encouragement throughout the game. The mid court contest was very even with both teams intercepting and having strong passes. Everyone had a great game with lots of great passages of play.

J4

Lots of turnovers in the first quarter, rarely making it into the Min Man goal ring. A slight shuffle of positions in the second quarter saw Min Man's Stella Schwartz with accurate goal shooting, bringing the game back to a close match. Plenty of intercepts from Isabella Thomas in the centre, overall, a great game to watch with both teams playing well.

J5

The game was evenly contested between BSR's defence and Min Man's attacks. BSR had fluent passages of play through the mid-court. Min Man's goalies worked well in the ring with tough defence.
