

Round 15

23rd August 2025

MIN MAN Vs NORTH CLARE

A1

MIN MAN 45 NORTH CLARE 45

A tough contested match the whole game. It was an intense battle in both rings with accurate shooting and tireless defence work. Key turnovers gave both teams the opportunity to increase their lead and it was a nail biter till the end.

Key players were Min Mans Charlie Ross and Lucy Nicholls and North Clare's Isabella Rawlings.

A2

MIN MAN 70 NORTH CLARE 27

North Clare started well, scoring a couple of quick goals to kick start the game. Min Man quickly settled into strong, consistent team play, forging ahead to be ahead by 9 at quarter time, led by strong mid court attacking from Lucy Hill and Remi Woods and accurate shooting by Emmi Nicholls and Emmerson Schoenberg.

This set the tone for the rest of the game with Min Man keeping consistent across the court, bringing home a strong win, despite the North Clare defenders working tirelessly all game.

B1

MIN MAN 71 NORTH CLARE 25

Strong defensive start from Min Man's by Chloe Ackland and Heidi Kruse allowing Min Man shooters lots of opportunity. North made the most of opportunities with accurate passing into the ring. Great feeding in the second quarter into the ring by Emmerson Schoenberg with accurate shooting by Emma Koch allowing Min Man to increase their lead despite strong defensive pressure from North Clare.

The third quarter had some strong circle movement from North Clare goalies with strong driving through the mid court by Eliza Fels. Accurate shooting by Emma Koch and Emmi Nicholls continued Min Man's strong start.

Strong driving through the mid court by North Clare in the final quarter allowed good opportunities for their goalies, however, Min Man were too strong and ran away with the win.

MIN MAN 62 NORTH CLARE 28

Min Man started well with a 6 goal lead at quarter time. Great shooting by North Clare Lilly Smith made for an even 2nd quarter. Min Man upped the defence in the 3rd with great interceptions by Abbie Skinner and Heidi Kruse. Alex Buttery worked hard at GK for North Clare. Min Man continued strongly in the last for a good win.

C1

MIN MAN 68 NORTH CLARE 19

Both teams came out with a point to prove, showcasing fast ball play across the court. Strong passing was seen from both sides, with Min Man staying ahead through accurate goal shooting. Min

Man's goal shooter, Taylor Cook, impressed with some great shots, while North Clare's Alice McMurray also delivered steady goals for her team. In the end, consistent gameplay saw Min Man come away with the win.

C2

MIN MAN 57 NORTH CLARE 27

Both teams played a consistent game where the score didn't reflect the contest. The warm conditions tested players' stamina. North Clare's accurate shooting by Ashley White and Mikayla Mason kept the pressure on. Min man responded with strong attacking drives from Milly Duncan and Chloe Kerber with Min Man securing the win.

INTERMEDIATE 1

MIN MAN 47 NORTH CLARE 21

Both teams came out strong but Min man took an early lead with great defensive pressure from Larni Cook and Chloe Ackland. North Clare kept up the intensity throughout the game with mid court players Teagan Kloock and Ava Smith taking great intercepts. Min Man ended up taking the win by 26 points.

MIN MAN 70 NORTH CLARE 15

A steady start from both teams. In the 2nd quarter Min Man found another gear and started to create scoreboard pressure from turnovers. Min Man's Ruby Maloney worked hard in the ring against North Clare's Keira Kerslake, while Min Man's Millie Duncan and Marissa Ross combined brilliantly together in attack.

JUNIOR 1

MIN MAN 28 NORTH CLARE 8

An even start to the match. The second quarter saw Min Man take the lead with strong attacking play. Half time there was lots of player and position changes for both teams. Min Man continued to hold a strong lead. North's Violet Wood consistent in centre court and Min Man's goalies Stella Schwartz, Indigo Dixon, Lacey Lillecrapp and Jorja Schutz all shot well.

MIN MAN 27 NORTH CLARE 23

Min Man came out strong in the first quarter, showing composure and strength across the court. In the second half, North Clare capitalised on turnovers, with sharp movement and accurate shooting from Ellie Meaney keeping them in the contest. The third quarter was tightly contested, with both teams going goal for goal. Min Man's changes in the final term and strong defence from Min Mans Rachel Cook applied the pressure needed to secure the win. Both sides played a competitive and hard-fought game across all four quarters.

SUB-JUNIOR 1

The first was fast paced and evenly matched. North Clare showed strength with impressive shooting, while Min Man hard defensively to stay competitive. Min Man bounced back with strong midfield play and skilful execution in the goal circle. Both teams displayed good skills throughout, but Min Man ultimately finished strong and secured the win.

SUB-JUNIOR 2

Both teams had a great start with some strong play down the court. Lacey Jaeschke and Olivia Faint shot some great goals for Min Man. Isabella Byles worked hard in centre for North and Georgia Arnold was strong in defence. Everyone passed well and made good use of space. All the girls have really improved since the last game.

BSR vs RSMU

A1

BSR 66 vs RSMU 24

The first goal had attempts made by both teams, BSR settled first with the first 8 goals, their full court defensive pressure created turnovers and BSR moved the ball quickly with purpose. BSR goalies Emily Ashby & Taryn Kelly created space and shot accurately. RSMU made changes at half time, which created some drive and more scoring opportunities, however BSR continued to apply pressure and created turnovers allowing them to increase their lead.

BSR 57 vs RSMU 39

BSR defeated RSMU with a strong all-round performance. Paige Rowett for RSMU was a standout at both ends of the court, dominating in both defence and attack. BSR's accurate shooting by Lara Meyer and Holly Weckert, and solid defence proved too much for RSMU, sealing a well-earned win.

B1

BSR 53 vs RSMU 44

The game started off strong and intense with both teams providing great pressure across the court. BSRs Emma Goss and Lexi Bache worked together well, causing many turnovers. The first half was closely fought out with Carley Piggott for RSMU shooting with great accuracy. In the second half BSR increased the pressure and got away with Zara Hicks and Tash Harper playing amazingly in the circle together. In the end BSR came away with a win.

BSR 21 vs RSMU 52

Fighting for second spot before finals meant both teams started off strong with many turnovers by Amanda Vandeleur from RSMU in the mid court. In the second quarter the gap started to grow with accurate shooting by RSMU's Emmison Heinrich. BSR made a number of changes but, with many players out, found it hard to settle into position. Darcy Cousins and Georgie Smart worked hard all day, but BSR struggled today and RSMU had a convincing win.

C1

BSR 52 vs RSMU 42

Both teams came out firing in an evenly contested first quarter with defensive pressure applied at both ends. RSMUs goalies Molly Goodfellow and Lucy Smith moved well in the goal ring, shooting accurately and keeping up with BSRs score. BSR settled in the second quarter with strong passages of play through the mid court by Abbey Hampel and Nadja McPherson, giving BSR a lead at half time. BSR continued to apply pressure to the play in the second half and capitalised on turnovers. BSR goalies Jordy Hentschke and Lara Sommerville shoot well together, giving BSR the win by 10 goals.

BSR 34 vs RSMU 31

This was always going to be a close game, with the teams on equal points, BSR in 4th place and RSMU sitting in 5th. Both teams started strong with the goals being shared between both sides. BSR were just 1 point up at quarter time. Despite BSR GS Paige Jones continuing her accurate shooting, SMU's GS Nicole Saunderson & GA Tameka Saunderson took RSMU to a 1-point lead at the big break. RSMU's C Penny Goodfellow was fast on the court, while WA Tarryn Senar played a strong game. BSR's goalies took it up a notch in Q3, with GK Denisia Jackson and BSR's wings frustrating the opposition and turning the ball over well. Some loose passing and good intercepts from RSMU saw them come closer, but BSR held out to win by 3 points.

BSR 44 vs RSMU 41

In a clash between the equal top teams, only separated by percentage, both RSMU and BSR came out hard, fighting for the win and top spot. BSR settled quickly going into the first break with a 6-goal lead. RSMU were consistently good all down the court with smooth transitions and accurate shooting from Ryleigh Senar. Maysie Freeman was good in the defensive goal circle getting valuable turnovers for BSR. In a loud and tense second half RSMU put pressure on BSR getting back within 1 goal several times. BSR worked hard to hold on, ending the game with a 3-goal lead.

INTERMEDIATE 2

No game

BSR 37 vs RSMU 21

From the first pass the intensity of this game was high. Both teams played extremely well with the score being goal for goal and equal at quarter time. BSR tightened their defence, and with the added pressure and precise feeding from Olive Hombsch and Matilda Zohs, their goalies took advantage of this slowing increasing their lead. Both teams continued to fight hard but BSR's increased intensity with turnovers happening all down the court allowed them to pull away to a 16-goal win.

BSR 17 vs RSMU 19

This match deserves a shoutout for its nail-biting intensity. Crowd cheers were at their highest for the season. Teams were tied at the main break 10 each. RSMU edged ahead with a one-point lead at  $\frac{3}{4}$  time. Both teams' defences worked extremely hard to create turnovers. In the final quarter RSMU capitalised on a few more turnovers with some accurate shooting taking the win with a final score 17-19.

SUB-JUNIOR 1

Both teams came out firing today, eager for the win. BSR's shooters Ella Smart and Florence Matthews showed great movement and accurate shooting in the goal circle. RSMU's Bridie Osman and Imogen Vandeleur was moving the ball well through the court, although BSR applied strong defensive pressure by Liam Thomas and Imogen Wundke. Great intense game showed improvement from both sides at the end of the season.

SUB-JUNIOR 2

BSR came out strong in the first quarter dominating in attack. A switch in positions brought some height to the Hawks defence in the second quarter. Both teams worked hard with lots of turnovers and hands up over each pass. Elly Weckert and Eva Jones played very well together in defence, keeping a tight leash on the Hawks goalies. Overall, a huge improvement in the skills of both teams since the first time we met. Well done to both teams!

SOUTH CLARE V SOUTHERN SAINTS

A1

South Clare 42 – Southern Saints 35

Southern Saints came out firing in the first quarter, gaining turnovers and scoring goals early with accurate shooting from Jourdan Jenke and Sophie Nietschke. South settled in the second quarter with strong defensive efforts from Jorja Rogers, Hailey Greenhill & Rachel Weidemann putting South 2 goals up at half time. The second half saw South take control through Ellie Falconers strong drives and defensive efforts to keep the lead and win by 7.

South Clare 56 – Southern Saints 32

South Clare was able to make a healthy lead in the first quarter with Katie Liebelt paired up with Katie Woodrow in goals. Emily Nordhausen took the court as GS in the third quarter showing some skill and enabling South Clare to maintain their lead. Kristen Winders and Claire Schiller worked hard in defence with Claire taking some incredible intercepts though they were unable to slow the goalies down. Issy Quinton ran hard and played strong against the experience of Kristen Winders and Demi Schutz. The score didn't reflect the efforts from Southern Saints but South rallied as a team and left nothing on the court.

South Clare 32 – Southern Saints 47

South Clare started strong with excellent defensive pressure and steady shooting from Emily Nordausen, and Isabelle Wilson helping them hold them in the game with the score equal at half time. Southern Saints lifted in the second half with accurate shooting from Makaya Sauer and Charlotte Nietschke to finish strongly and take a 47-32 win.

South Clare 54 – Southern Saints 46

Southern Saints started strong with Katherine Blunt and Sienna Noack working hard in defence to create lots of turnovers and a slight lead which they held onto into the second quarter. South Clare played hard with Tahlia Bridger creating turnovers and opportunities all down the court. Souths defence Anna Edwards and Rhiana Laughton were consistent in defence making the saints work hard to score. In the third and final quarters south came out strong to capitalise on loose balls and with accurate shooting and strong passing in the ring took the win after a close game.

C1

South Clare 33 – Southern Saints 60

Saints experienced team blasted out the blocks with their attacking end moving, and feeding into the accurate shooters leading at the start by 14. South's Nikola Lalic and Ashlee Wilson stepped up into South's attacking end well in the second quarter. Saints were too consistent throughout the second half, taking away a convincing win.

C2

South Clare 37 – Southern Saints 61

A great competitive game for the first 3 quarters. Jess Schutz and Lucy Kimber worked extremely hard in the goals for South and made the most of the opportunities given to them. The Southern Saints midcourters used their rolling subs effectively making it hard for the South to match and Saints goalies were exceptional for throughout all 4 quarters. Izzy Price and Tiarna Wastell got their hands to many balls and really made the Saints work hard though the Saints rose to the challenge and took home a strong win.

INTERMEDIATE 1

South Clare 49 – Southern Saints 34

South Clare's Ashlee Wilson was a steady and strong player through the mid court making sure her team valued the possession. Jordie McCarthy was shooting well and Isla Manhood had strong hands to get the rebounds alongside her. Bridget Williams was strong in defence and was able to switch players with ease with Imogen Noak. Elaura Mosey ran hard in wing attack, but Simone McInnes had her hands on the ball a number of times turning it over and allowing South Clare to capitalise.

South Clare 51 – Southern Saints 29

South Clare came out determined to win. Eudunda Robertstown responded with the same energy, with the early part of the game being a tight tussle. South however dug deep and settled early with excellent strong passages of play with Molly Smyth creating a settled mid court, maximising stunning turnovers by Souths Verdanshi Aggarwal and Regan Smith in goal defence. Saints shooters Roxy Prior and Jaymi-Lee Vandenberg were strong and took every opportunity rarely missing when given the chance against Souths strong defence. Kayala Krause from Saints worked very hard to keep the play flowing through the mid court. Souths shooters Erins Smith and Jessica Laws were on point with excellent movement in goals and accuracy. First win for the South girls this season – well done!

South Clare 34 – Southern Saints 4

South Clare were focussed from the first whistle with strong defensive pressure led by Koa Murphy and Tess Chapman. South's ability to turn the ball over across the court gave them the upper hand, which was quickly capitalised on with precision shooting from Sammi McCarthy. Ayla Schutz provided good movement in the Saints goal circle. Ella Prosser worked tirelessly to apply pressure in Saints defence. However, South continued their momentum with good passing and transitions through the midcourt and finishing in goals.

South Clare 16 – Southern Saints 15

An evenly contested game throughout the first quarter with Willow Cameron and Willa White for South Clare working solidly through the mid court. Strong defence from Southern Saints' Addison Williams and Makayla Smith in the second quarter limited South Clare's scoring opportunities and Saints took the lead at half time. Both Marlee Kotz from Saints and Scarlett McDonnell from South Clare moved beautifully in their respective goal circles and the scores were even at the end of the third quarter. Both teams came out firing in a nail-biting last quarter, with Scarlett Hopgood in South's defence making some important intercepts. All players gave 100% for their teams today and should be proud of the game they played!

SUB-JUNIOR 1

A tight start to the game with both teams moving the ball around the court with speed and precision. South Clare started to pull away in the second quarter with their goal shooters getting their shots in. In the second half the Saints players continued to fight hard and move well. A great game played by all, showing great improvement over the season.

SUB-JUNIOR 2

A fantastic game by both teams, with the Centres having a great game – Pia for South and Hannah for Southern Saints. All players showed great skills moving the ball down the court and fighting for possession. A well fought out game that ended in a draw.

BBH v BS

A1

BBH 19 v BS 71

BS capitalised on BBH's errors early on in the game. BS's Kasey Bigg had great direction for her goalies allowing easy feeds into the ring for BS's Breannah Nelson. BBH's Hannah Paech-McMahon worked tirelessly in the middle against the young BS Kartia Altmann. A few changes by both teams saw BBH's Amelia Squire and BS's Kaila Cook-Shakles tough it out in the ring, but BS were too good, taking the win by 52.

A2

No Game

B1

BBH 40 v BS 45

BBH came out in the first half doing everything right. Goalies Emily Lines and Kloe Berryman moved well and connected with their team mates. Half time BBH up by six.

As the game progressed, BS goalies were accurate and took their team to a win.

GS Donna Stewart led the charge.

Very proud of the BBH players pushing the top side in the comp right to the end.

B2

BBH 42 v BS 53

BS wasted no time in the first quarter, showing that they have continued to build as a team this year. After their five goal lead in the first quarter, BBH continued the fight in the second, with great pressure from Emmylou Cooper in WD. Kristie Pengilly countered with some great movement in the goal ring, helping her side to a 12 goal lead at three quarter time. Despite working tirelessly all game and winning the final quarter, BS were too strong for BBH as they continued their form towards finals.

C1

BBH 27 v BS 32

BS came out strong with heavy defence with Michelle Fafard forced errors in BBH's attacking end. BBH made changes in the third and fourth quarters to ruffle BS's attacking rhythm. A highly contested game across the court with BBH intercepting multiple passes. The game showed strength and determination from BS and BBH.

C2

BBH 51 v BS 34

Evenly contested first quarter with BS applying defensive pressure creating scoring opportunities with Nat Cooks shooting well resulting in a two goal lead. BBH's changes in the second quarter opened up space down the court with accurate shooting from Hannah Neil and Ellen Newbold taking the lead 26-18. BBH played a consistent game with great pressure up and down the court taking out the win 51-34.

INTER 1

BBH 43 v BS 32

Both teams made errors early, with plenty of ball going back and forth and scores tight at quarter time. BBH leading by two. Sienna Nelson made an impact for BS in the second quarter with accurate shooting, but BBH responded with changes. Seeing BBH's Lacey Borg hold off BS's momentum in GK, BBH still held a two goal lead at half time.

BBH had a dominant second half lead by great movement and shooting by Millie Bavistock to come away with an 11 goal win, despite continued efforts by BS's Anna Williams in the mid court.

INTER 2

BBH 41 v BS 34

BS came out strong with accurate shooting by Laura Cochrane, settling into the first quarter. BBH made some changes and defence stepped up for force turnovers with Gemma Gebhardt and Marissa Bevan the driving force through the mid court and feeding into the goal circle, capitalising on turnovers. BBH continued to stand up to BS's pressure and came away with a strong win.

BBH 20 v BS 28

BS came out strong and confident. Goalies Taylee Clifford and Matilda Manhood worked well together and were accurate in goals. BS continued their confident play throughout the game. BBH GD Pippa Benson worked tirelessly getting intercepts. Lucy Gunn moved well and supported her team with good voice.

JUNIOR 2

BBH 16 v BS 26

BS's Florence Fabian and Amity Weber moved well, passing into their circle quickly giving their team a slight lead at the end of the first quarter.

BBH's Lilly Dalla and Sienna Thamm adjusted in the circle intercepting and rebounding strongly, giving opportunities to their goalies at the other end.

Violet Welke from BS was accurate in goals assisting in pushing the lead for her team, giving them a win for the day.

SUB JUNIOR 1

The girls played with great energy this week, showing strong teamwork and improvement. The defenders kept the pressure on, the midcourt working hard to move the ball, and the shooters finishing well. A fantastic effort from everyone.

SUB JUNIOR 2

The game started in good spirits with BS's Elka McCormack using great passes to her teammates. BBH's Tess Noack had plenty of touches in their defence end, however BS's Indi Hitch's ability to shoot was a stand out for the match. BBH's Bobbi Eglinton worked hard in GK to keep pressure on BS's fantastic attack line.
