

Round 12

29th July 2023

BSR vs North Clare

A1

BSR 52 defeated North Clare 32

A very close contested first quarter with BSR having more shots at goal, Taryn Kelly shooting strong and North defenders hungry for the ball. BSR were able to apply good pressure all over the court capitalising on North's mistakes. North were consistently competitive for the entire game, with strong drive from Chloe Cross and accurate shooting from Kristen Coles. BSR pulled away at half time proving why they hold the top position with their teamwork and defensive pressure.

A2

BSR 26 lost to North Clare 53

North Clare started the game with strong momentum and accurate shooting from Diesy O'Driscoll and Phoebe Helbig. North Clare continued this into the second half with great defensive pressure from Abbie Brereton and Lainey Mullighan. BSR stepped up in the third, to make a more even contest. BSR's Krystal Rains and Courtney Moller fought hard. North finished strong with a convincing win.

B1

BSR 35 lost to North Clare 55

Both teams started off strong in the heat with North having the lead by three at quarter time. North Clare's Renee Scott took the game away in the second quarter with excellent shooting. North maintained their lead but Annie Smart kept BSR in the game with some awesome intercepts through the mid court. Both teams fought well and North took a great win with their accurate shooting and tough defence by Jess Cullen in the ring.

B2

BSR 32 lost to North Clare 44

A strongly contested game across the court. Both teams had a strong attack on the ball and which contributed to a relatively even game. Nikita Kennerley (BSR) and Natasha McDonald (NC) shot well at their respective ends of the court. Jasmine Ross' move to WD and her defensive pressure helped create smooth passages of play for BSR. North Clare did well to capitalise on turnovers, securing themselves a well-earned win.

C1

BSR 34 lost to North Clare 54

Lots of turnovers in the first half had North Clare in front quite comfortably with their accurate shooting from both Lilli Smith and Mikayla Mason. A few injuries had some last minute changes to the BSR team, which made the team pick up pieces and scramble to work together. North Clare stayed strong and continued to gain ground. BSR's Monique Robson and Bek Mead tried hard in defence, however North Clare were able to keep the win.

C2

BSR 37 defeated North Clare 29

A strong game by both teams in warm conditions. Evie Spurling shot accurately for North Clare and North's Makayla Noble applied great defensive goal ring pressure. However, strong mid court play by BSR's Leisha Gribble and Michaela Rains resulted in several turnovers and strong goal ring movement and accurate shooting by Sierra Heard saw BSR take the win!

15U

BSR 55 defeated North Clare 18

The first quarter showed strong matchups between North and BSR, with defenders working extremely hard at both ends. The second quarter saw BSR taking many intercepts and defensive pressure down the whole court created many opportunities for them to score. BSR worked extremely hard in their attacking end in the third quarter using dynamic movement to transition the ball and score off opportunities. In the fourth quarter BSR extended their lead, North used strong defensive pressure but BSR's determination and attack for the ball helped them extend their lead.

J1

BSR 30 defeated North Clare 17

Both teams came out very settled to start the game. Ebony Whalan in WD for BSR got fingers to many balls. Lucy Nicholls was consistent back in GK and took many intercepts and rebounds. The game was even for the first three quarters with both teams capitalising on turnovers. BSR lead by three goals at three quarter time. In the last quarter BSR stepped up a gear and finished the game with strong leads, accurate passing and shooting. BSR pulled away to win the quarter by a massive ten goals.

J3

BSR v North Clare

Good passing through the centre court from BSR's Matilda Zohs and accurate shooting by Sophie Adams helped give BSR a strong start. The game became much more even in the second quarter, with strong defence by Madeline Papps and Olive Hombsch creating opportunities for North Clare.

J4 – No Game

J5

A tightly contested first quarter with strong defence by BSR and North Clare working hard to get the ball. Accurate shooting by BSR in the second half lead to BSR taking a firm lead. North Clare kept working hard and never gave up.

Min-Man vs BBH

A1 - No Game

A2

Min-Man 61 defeated BBH 32

BBH started confidently, with Min-Man taking a few centre passes to settle, but then the Min-Man defence made some critical intercepts and the team was able to convert from these opportunities. Min-Man up by five (13-8) at quarter time. BBH came out firing in the second quarter, following positional changes but Min-Man settled again with some great full court team play. Min-Man up (28-19) at half time. Min-Man built on this in the second half with Nicole Blackwell and Olivia Hadley were strong in defence and the goalies finishing off well, despite consistent effort by BBH's Megan Brooks and Amelia Squire. Min-Man up (45-26) at three quarter time and finishing strongly.

B1

Min-Man 63 defeated BBH 26

A strong team start for Min-Man creating lots of pressure up and down the court. An even second quarter with BBH increasing their presence across the court making Min-Man work hard. Strong intercepts by Min-Man's GK Karen Palmer allowed Min-Man to cement their lead with great movement and accurate shooting in the ring by Min-Man goalies Emma Koch and Lydia Schwartz. Min-Man continued their strong form into the final quarter cementing the win.

B2

Min-Man 58 defeated BBH 19

A dominant first quarter by Min-Man with strong defence by Annabelle Smith and Kerry Hadley in the goal ring. BBH steadied in the second quarter clawing back the lead and Mel Cooper was a force in defence. Min-Man were unstoppable in the third quarter moving the ball well down the court, extending their lead. Min-Man once again dominated the last quarter for a convincing win.

C1

Min-Man 34 defeated BBH 25

An even first quarter with BBH defenders working hard and grabbing rebounds and BBH GS Jodie Stockman shooting accurately. Min-Man came out fighting in the second quarter with great team play to turn it and lead by two at half time. GD Kirby Faint and GK Bridie Maher for Min-Man kept the pressure on with lots of intercepts and rebounds with the goalies rewarding them. BBH kept pushing in the last for a more even quarter, but Min-Man held on to win by nine.

C2

Min-Man 46 defeated BBH 27

Min-Man started well with many turnovers giving them a good lead by half time. The two BBH defences Rochelle Saint and Sienna Stockman stepped up the pressure making an even quarter. Maebh O'Leary did some timely intercepts in the last giving Min-Man a good win.

15U

Min-Man 38 lost to BBH 55

Min-Man came out strong knowing BBH haven't had a loss. BBH GS Millie Bavistock dominated in the goal ring making it hard for Min-Man defenders. Min-Man GD Bridie Mitchell never gave up chasing loose balls and driving the ball down the court. Min-Man made some strong changes however BBH proved to be too strong taking the win by 17.

J1 – No Game

J2

Min-Man 1 lost to BBH 31

Strong start by BBH as they took the lead early. Min-Man settled in the second quarter with Maeve Allen and Daisy Bryksy doing well in defence. BBH's consistency and quickness down court ensured a strong win for them.

J3

Min-Man v BBH

An evenly matched game even though the score did not reflect the actual play throughout the court. Great drive through the mid court by Min-Man's Amelia Reed and Isla Parker, and excellent defence and consistent back up from Charlee Hall in WD from Min-Man. Emma Sommerville and Sophie Tiver from BBH shot consistently well and made great space in the ring, giving BBH a strong lead.

J4

Min-Man v BBH

In the first half Molly Longbottom and Isla Parker were strong in goals for Min-Man. Isla Allmond read the ball well and took good intercepts for Min-Man. The game was well contested by BBH. Lily Mays shooting in the third quarter was very strong.

J5

Min-Man v BBH

Min-Man started out strong with great defence by Mila Allmond and Chase Gillings. A lot of contested play with Min-Man making good use of the ball and shooting well. BBH's Alexandra Robinson was a consistent player for her team, leading well and intercepting plenty of passes.

RSMU V Saints

A1

RSMU 55 defeated Saints 50

A great contested game by both teams from the beginning whistle. Saint's goalies Georgia Pfitzner and Kyla Newman showed great strength but RSMU's defenders Mikaela Stoll and Ellie Duffy picked up some crucial turn overs allowing RSMU to lead by one goal at half time. RSMU's goalie Abby Griffiths shot with confidence and accuracy helping RSMU to pull away in the third quarter to open up a seven-goal lead. Mem Dunstan and Coby Rodda from Saints showed great determination and lifted their defensive pressure in the last quarter reducing the leader board margin to only five goals by the final whistle. Overall, it was a highly skilled game to watch where all individuals on the court played their part and kept the intensity high.

A2

RSMU 50 defeated Saints 38

Even start to the first quarter, with Kristen Winders (WA) controlling the play in Saints attack line. RSMU stepped up their circle defence with strong rebounds by Simone Miller (GD) and Rebecca Lockwood (GK) in the second half of the game. Kerry Heinrich (C) transitioned the ball through the mid court and applied strong defensive pressure, with great turn overs. Saints finished off strong with Breea Schutz controlling their attack line and shooting with great accuracy. Great contest by both teams, RSMU proving to be too strong.

B1

RSMU 43 defeated Saints 34

A highly skilled game between two evenly matched teams reflective of their positions on the ladder. The Saints flew out of the blocks lead by Phoebe Schmidt in C opening up a six-goal lead before RSMU were able to score. RSMU found their rhythm and worked their way back in to the game. A close second quarter where both defensive ends Jaz Connell and Ashley Illman (RSMU) and Lucy Eldridge and Claire Schiller (Saints) gave their respective teams a good look at a lot of ball. The Saints brought the experience of Kristen Winders on into GD but Jess Hier and Sarah Heaslip (RSMU) goalies held strong and rewarded their team's efforts with a solid shooting performance. Congratulations to Demi Schulz on her 200th Club game for the Saints.

B2

RSMU 29 lost to Saints 49

First quarter Saints made it clear they were here to maintain their top spot on the ladder with goalies Meagan Pfitzner & Savanna Laucke not missing a shot. In the second quarter RSMU came back fighting turning over multiple balls bringing the margin closer with RSMU's Hayley Busch demanding the ball in GA with great feeding in by Tayla McBride. Saints took a convincing win in the second half of the game but not without a great fight. The score did not reflect the game on court.

C1

RSMU 7 lost to Saints 56

The Saints were strong from the first whistle, with goalies Jodie Mosey and Lucy Engel shooting accurately for all four quarters. The Saints put on a good display of teamwork consistent with their place on the ladder. RSMU defenders had their work cut out for them and continued to try their best and played the game out to the final whistle. A well-deserved win to the visiting team today.

C2

RSMU 42 defeated Saints 36

A crunch game for both sides, RSMU started strongly, with Jess Seeliger giving great drive through the mid court. RSMU coach Nicole Saunderson was returning from a long-term injury and had a fascinating battle with Saints GK Louise Schutz all game. With scores locked away at twenty goals each at half time, RSMU GA Stevie Lee Dutton proved the difference in the second half, shooting the lights out as the home side ground out a six-goal victory, despite the best efforts of Schutz and Stephanie Heidrich in the Saints defensive circle.

15U – No Game

J1

RSMU 37 defeated Saints 34

A game with a lot on the line for both teams and the girls played accordingly. The first quarter went goal for goal with goalies Tameka Saunderson and Ryleigh Sennar for RSMU and Leni Geister and Zoe Neil for Saints showing no signs of pressure and finishing for their teams. The second quarter saw RSMU open up a slight lead of five by the main break. The third quarter saw some great teamwork and steady ball transition for RSMU taking an eleven-goal lead into the last break. Positional changes by both teams saw the Saints come steaming home as Bridget Williams (Saints GD) turned over plenty of ball and setting up some clean attacking plays. RSMU steadied when they needed too and ran out winners by three.

J3

RSMU v Saints

A skilled start to the game with great passages of play by both teams. Angel Soto (Saints) rebounded well and provided many turnovers for her team throughout the whole game. Brianna Williams (RSMU) and Laina Clark (RSMU) worked the ends well, with strong defence and attacking movement.

J4

RSMU v Saints

RSMU started the game with clear and definite leads from (WA) Riley Przibilla and (C) Ellie Vandeleur. These girls didn't have it all their own way with the Saints (WD) Jessica Preston making them work hard. Changes at the half time break saw Kiara-Lee Dutschke go into C for the Saints and Marlee Kotz into GD which changed the momentum in their favour. RSMU continued to play a strong game moving the ball with some effective passages of play. A good game by all involved.

J5 – No Game

South Clare vs Blyth Snowtown

A1

South Clare 33 lost to Blyth Snowtown 54

A strong first quarter for South with Sally Penny and Paryss Maunder providing turnovers for South and Katie Liebelt finishing well. The tide turned in the second quarter with Blyth-Snowtown having a huge 15-5 quarter. This came through a high penalty count for South in defence and strong turnovers from their tight defensive unit of Maggie Hentschke, Millie Roberts and Bianca Henderson. The third quarter was even with some great match up contests all over the court, including Holly Ottens (BS) and Kristy McCarthy (South) and Kasey Bigg (BS) and Milly Lalic (South). The first five minutes of the last quarter was even before Blyth-Snowtown put their foot down to win 19-9. Ellie Gould was dominant in goals with a strong feeding connection with Kasey Bigg and Holly Ottens. A good game with high level netball played by both teams.

A2

South Clare 38 defeated Blyth Snowtown 37

A tightly contested game over the whole the court with strong drive on the wings by Kylie Murphy (South) and Hannah Sanders (BS). South's Gabi Ashmeade and Poppy Wilson provided plenty of defensive turnovers and were rewarded with accurate shooting by Lucy Malycha and Ellie Johnson, setting South up with a five-goal lead going into the last quarter. Blyth-Snowtown came out strong in the final quarter working hard to turn the ball over with great pressure across the court and strong drive by Blyth Snowtown's Elise Honner and great rebounding from Blyth Snowtown's Lauren Ferme in GK, providing an exciting final five minutes, with South managing to hang on to win by one goal.

B1

South Clare 29 lost to Blyth Snowtown 38

South Clare came out strong for the first quarter taking control of the game, playing a steady netball to set themselves with a five-goal lead at the first break. Blyth Snowtown bought Chloe Freebarn in who turned their momentum with fantastic drive and accurate shooting. By half time Blyth Snowtown had taken the lead by two. Gabi Ashmeade and Aimee Cusack defended hard through the centre court taking some key intercepts. Blyth Snowtown bought Lauren Ferme on into GS at half time providing extra height and strength in the circle enabling them more rebound and second chances to score. Greta Pratt ran fast providing both great drive and defensive intercepts getting the ball down the court for Blyth Snowtown. An evenly matched game with both teams giving their all and a good win for Blyth Snowtown.

B2

South Clare 28 lost to Blyth Snowtown 70

Blyth Snowtown started the game strong capitalising on centre court intercepts. South Clare settled into the quarter with Emily Driver working well with Scarlett Liebelt-Seymon in the goal circle. Blyth Snowtown had complete control of the game from there-on. Outstanding shooting by Blyth Snowtown's Amanda Harris, who held strongly and made the most of every opportunity. South's Bianca Driver defended well in her 100th game, getting her hands on the ball for some timely intercepts and being able to share the court with two of her sisters Jess and Emily. A classy win by Blyth Snowtown.

C1

South Clare 51 defeated Blyth Snowtown 40

Blyth Snowtown started the game out strong with great feeding from Jemima May and Kristie Pengilly, holding the lead for the first half. South Clare held strong in the first half with strong defence by Raleigh Trias and Dom Millard. At half time South Clare made crucial changes which turned the game in their favour, with Jess Schutz shooting accurately. South had a nine-goal lead going into the third break. Blyth had strong passages of play and slowed South's momentum in the fourth quarter however South Clare held strong to win by 11.

C2

South Clare 53 defeated Blyth Snowtown 12

South Clare came out strong with shooters Zoe Griffen and Lucy Kimber working well in goals with accurate shooting. Blyth Snowtown worked hard with defensive pressure and although South created a good lead early, Blyth Snowtown kept the pressure on with Brianna Jamieson and Paige Wayman working hard through the mid court to slow down the play and forcing errors. Elenor Choy came in as GA in the second quarter providing support to Sophie Fabian and both worked hard to make the most of their opportunities in goals. However, the combination of South's Rhianna Laughton, Mackenzie Victor and Jorja Casey in defence made it very hard despite their best efforts. Jade-Lee Fisher for South made the mid-courtiers for Blyth Snowtown work tirelessly. Both teams showed exceptional effort, commitment and played to the very last minute. Well done everyone, it was a great game to watch.

15U

South Clare 55 defeated Blyth Snowtown 40

The game started off strong with both teams going goal for goal. South Clare capitalised on turnovers and took control of the game gaining a 12-goal lead going into the main break. The third quarter saw Blyth Snowtown settle and take control of the game themselves keeping the scores equal for the quarter. Blyth Snowtown's defence made it difficult for South to score and created opportunities for their strong attack line. The last quarter saw South come back strong and take a convincing win.

J1

South Clare 45 defeated Blyth Snowtown 16

A great contested game all over the court from both teams. Isobel Quinton and Elise Wilson provided strong drives down the court for South Clare finishing with great feeding into the goal circle with both Isla Manhood and Cassidy Maloney finishing with accurate shooting. Blyth Snowtown's Kartia Altman was strong all across the court in both goals and defence providing many shooting opportunities and turn overs for her team. Georgia Schramm from Blyth Snowtown changed the game when she came on in WA. She was quick with her movements and her feeding into the Blyth Snowtown goalies was exceptional. A very warm day but both teams played some fantastic netball.

J2 – No Game

J3

South Clare v Blyth Snowtown

A great competitive game of netball by both teams with plenty of ball movement up and down the court. Strong leads and great passing by Blyth Snowtown in the first quarter saw lots of opportunities for Taylee Clifford and Harriet Walker in goals. South had a strong second quarter with Vedanshi Aggarwal, Scarlett Hopgood and Koa Murphy gaining lots of ball back in defence and Amaya Craig capitalising in goals. The second half saw both teams working hard in defence and attack. Blyth Snowtown's Lucy Wandel had a great third quarter in WA with lots of strong leads and great passing into goals, as did Sammi McCarthy for South.

J4

South Clare v Blyth Snowtown

South Clare started strong with accurate shooting from Shyla Williams and Jazlyn Sudan. Xavier Tottman in GK for Blyth Snowtown didn't make it too easy though, with tight defensive work in the goal circle. The second half saw Blyth Snowtown work well down the court with Ruby Kells in C and Florence Fabian in WA providing strong leads and accurate passing into their goalies. Blyth Snowtown were rewarded for their efforts in the mid court with lovely shooting from Elsie Angus and Matilda Gebert. Clara Ottens and Ashli Wastell worked hard all game in the mid court for South. It was a great competitive game to watch, well done to both teams!

J5

South Clare v Blyth Snowtown

A tightly contested game played by both teams with great ball movement through the mid court by South's Jess Wehr and Summer McCarthy and Blyth Snowtown's Annie Honner and Florence Fabian. Blyth Snowtown's Leni Ottens shot accurately as did South's Charlotte Connors. Congratulations to both teams, a great game to watch!