

Association: North Eastern

Round: 2

Date: 30/04/2022

Match between: Eudunda/Robertstown and BBH

A1

Result: Eudunda Robertstown 58 v BBH 33

Report: The first quarter was very evenly contested with Eudunda Robertstown only leading by two. In the second quarter Eudunda Robertstown took the lead by eight goals. Whilst the third quarter looked like even play, the Eudunda Robertstown increased their lead to be 13 in front. The attack worked hard all day with a very consistent Kyla Newman in GS. BBH goalies had some good play, but Eudunda Robertstown defence were very tight, giving Eudunda Robertstown a strong win by 25.

A2

Result: Eudunda Robertstown 48 v BBH 22

Report: A tight tussle in the first quarter saw both ends shooting accurately. Tight defence from BBH's Kirsty Glacken saw the ball go back and forth between ends. Changes in the Eudunda Robertstown camp settled the game for them in the second quarter and their composure saw them through to the end of the game. BBH's persistence was obvious, and they contested every ball. Unfortunately for BBH the Eudunda Robertstown defensive pressure from WD Sarah Jaeschke was too strong for them.

B1

Result: Eudunda Robertstown 51 v BBH 31

Report: Eudunda Robertstown began the first quarter with patience and flow all down the court. BBH settled in the second quarter with full court pressure and accurate shooting with goalies Morghan Prior and Lucy O'Driscoll making it difficult for the BBH defence. A change for BBH saw Amy Berryman shoot beautifully for BBH, enabling them to win the last quarter. A hard fought effort by BBH but wasn't enough, with Eudunda Robertstown taking their first win for the season.

B2

Result: Eudunda Robertstown 27 v BBH 32

Report: BBH started strong, with possession netball in the first quarter and controlled their play to take a three goal lead. Eudunda Robertstown tried to find an open court in the second quarter, but BBH covered all opponents well, which turned into goals. The third quarter Eudunda Robertstown found their rhythm and chased the score, BBH lead by six. Changes to Eudunda Robertstown's attack line gave new direction and a closer score, but BBH were too strong all match and shot accurately.

C1

Result: Eudunda Robertstown 36 v BBH 30

Report: The first half was very competitive between both Eudunda Robertstown and BBH. Strong passes into the BBH circle with Jodie Stockman shooting long and executing the goals. Eudunda Robertstown's attacking team were too strong in the first half, with scores being 20 to 12. The last half saw BBH come back with their defence going for every ball. The game ended with Eudunda Robertstown winning by 6.

C2

Result: Eudunda Robertstown 27 v BBH 57

Report: It was a good start by BBH with great drive down the court. Eudunda Robertstown's Charlize Mosey played a good game for them in the mid court, providing lots of opportunities. Maggie Rayson and Millie Bavistock moved well in the goals in the second half for BBH. Eudunda Robertstown's Mikayla Ramsey made the most of her opportunities with great rebounding. BBH played a strong game overall, to come away with a solid win.

15U

Result: Eudunda Robertstown 33 v BBH 20

Report: In the first quarter the lead change many times with both teams capitalising on turnovers. BBH defence created pressure down the court and in the ring, but Eudunda Robertstown made goals count. The second quarter was low scoring with BBH scoring five and Eudunda Robertstown only scoring two goals. There was plenty of court play with clear leads but many turn overs in both rings. Positional changes at three quarter time opened the attack line for Eudunda Robertstown and confidence built with a 14 goal lead. BBH defenders continued to turn over rebounds, but Eudunda Robertstown were able to keep responding and won with a clear lead.

J1

Result: Eudunda Robertstown 22 v BBH 20

Report: An even game where the lead changed many times. Eudunda Robertstown were in front at the end of the first quarter with good defence all over the court. Leni Geister got many intercepts throughout the game and Anna Shuppan, for BBH, shot accurately to help BBH take the lead at three quarter time. Eudunda Robertstown had a good last quarter with improved shooting and great defence to take the win.

J2

Result: Eudunda Robertstown 3 v BBH 34

Report: The match started with a strong lead by BBH which continued throughout the game. Some amazing intercepts occurred from the BBH midcourt which tested the Eudunda Robertstown skills. Both teams put in a great effort, with the final score being three for Eudunda Robertstown and 34 to BBH.

J3

Report: BBH had strong defence all game. Eudunda Robertstown made some good intercepts but lacked height and leading down the court. Everyone tried their best but BBH consistent all game.

J4

NO GAME

J5

Report: A great second game for the season. Both teams evenly contested across the court. Eudunda Robertstown started strong with great leads and accurate shooting by Bethany Jenke and Harriet Mosey. BBH made great turn overs in the mid court making it hard for Eudunda Robertstown to score. A fantastic game of netball. Thank you to our wonderful umpires for all your guidance and support to the players.

Match between: Blyth Snowtown & BSR

A1

Result: Blyth Snowtown 28 v BSR 42

Report: The game was fast paced throughout and BSR were disciplined and sharp in their game play. BSR increased their lead each quarter with Bec Moyne providing another stand out performance. Millie Roberts for Blyth Snowtown was persistent in her efforts, but BSR were too strong.

A2

Result: Blyth Snowtown 44 v BSR 48

Report: Blyth Snowtown started well with great leading down the court and feeding into the circle, ending the first quarter in lead by seven goals. With an injury in the midcourt, BSR made some strategic defensive changes which increased pressure in the goal circle. The smart play from BSR's Alicia Thomas, with accurate shooting and strong rebounding brought BSR back into the game and score was 24 – 23 at half time. A hard fought third quarter saw BSR capitalising on Blyth Snowtown unforced errors. Blyth Snowtown settled and had a strong last quarter, but BSR were too strong in the end.

B1

Result: Blyth Snowtown: 48 v BSR 34

Report: Blyth Snowtown started well with great shooting by Sophie Angel and Donna Stewart scoring the first seven goals of the game. BSR came back and Blyth Snowtown were up eleven to eight at quarter time. BSR made some changes and tried to fight back, but Blyth Snowtown increased their lead each quarter. Izzy Ward for BSR shot well all game however Blyth Snowtown's defensive pressure in the midcourt allowed them to extend their lead again to win by 14.

B2

Result: Blyth Snowtown: 41 v BSR 43

Report: A close first quarter saw both teams settle well into the game. Natasha Liddy from BSR provided strong leadership through the centre, while Nadine Stringer found her feet in a comeback game. Holly Weckert continued to shoot accurately in the second to break BSR's lead to three, despite the consistent, disciplined efforts of Blyth Snowtown's GD Kayla Freebairn. Blyth Snowtown made significant changes in the third quarter, with Bernie Altmann's demand for the ball and leadership in the ring brought the difference to one. Charli Jacka shot well in the last, and Belinda Stringer continued to offer voice and influential hands in the centre, however BSR were too strong in the goal ring to win by two.

C1

Result: Blyth Snowtown: 28 v BSR: 44

Report: The game started evenly with the first quarter score at eight all. Blyth Snowtown's Ruby Jacka and Mia McCauley worked well together in goals and Jemma Ashby gave Blyth Snowtown good pace through the centre. The second quarter saw BSR goalies get their eye in, and GD Sarah Pilkington take some great intercepts before Blyth Snowtown could get the ball into their circle. Lots of changes were made by Blyth Snowtown which gave some great passages of play however BSR managed to control the ball the majority of the game. Blyth Snowtown finished strong and outscored BSR in the final quarter but BSR's consistency throughout the game gave them a good win.

C2

Report: NO GAME

15U

Result: Blyth Snowtown 11 v BSR 22

Report: A close and strong start by both teams with all goalies shooting well. Great defensive pressure and contention by Blyth Snowtown's defenders all game especially Ocea Ebsary and Madison Schultz. A few changes were made by Blyth Snowtown in the second half but BSR's strong skilled team stepped up the intensity and ran away with the win. Beautiful accurate shooting by BSR's goalies all game.

J1

Result: Blyth Snowtown 28 v BSR 20

Report: BSR got off to a great start and took the early lead by three. Blyth Snowtown steadied to pull it level by quarter time. BSR's Lara Myer was moving strongly all over the court and finishing off with a goal in the ring. Blyth Snowtown's Skye Ebsary combined well with Kartia Altmann to set up many beautiful goals. All players picked up confidence in the second half with some great passages of play by both teams. Blyth Snowtown finished off well with an eight goal win.

J2

Report: This match was played as a scratch match against the BSR J3 team.

J3

Report: NO GAME

J4

Report: BSR started well but both teams managed to get a lot of intercepts. In the second quarter Blyth Snowtown's attackers Lucy Wandel and Eliza Honner worked hard and created lots of turnovers. After half time both teams settled into the game, and it was goal for goal. BSR's Sophie Adams and Isabella Thomas were strong in attack and led BSR well.

J5

Report: A great game on both sides, with many intercepts from most players. A low scoring game showed the similarities in skills to provide a greatly matched up game, smiles all around.

Match between: RSMU v North Clare

A1

Result: RSMU 43 v North Clare 42

Report: It was a strong start by both teams from the first whistle. Fantastic passages of play into RSMU's attack line with Paige Rowett in GS for RSMU holding strong. A tight contested match in the mid court with Chelsea Panaho in C for North Clare delivering great balls into the goal ring. North Clare goalies were accurate throughout the entire game, however RSMU's defence pressure lifted in the last quarter that saw them take the win by a goal. A great contested game by both sides.

A2

Result: RSMU 35 v North Clare 43

Report: A strong start by both teams in the first quarter, RSMU's Hannah Connell in C provided great defensive pressure through the mid court and Kelsey Noll in WA for RSMU presented and provided great drives onto the circle. North Clare had the edge going into the second half with intercepts and strong rebounds by North Clare's Diesy O'Driscoll in GD and Arriane Harnett. Overall North Clare played a consistent four quarters and came away with an eight goal win.

B1

Result: RSMU 29 v North Clare 51

Report: Both teams started competitively from the first whistle. RSMU goalies Georgie Rowett and Tegan Przibilla held strong against the opposing defenders Madeline Rivas and Alison Fuller. Despite the obvious height difference the two attackers moved well around the ring. Emily Behn, in C for RSMU, was a consistent feeder and driver down the court, being able to switch effortlessly from defence and attack. RSMU's Georgia Condon demonstrated strong defence against North Clare's Eliza Burton in the final quarter of the game, both working hard to get to the ball. Overall North Clare went away with the win.

B2

Result: RSMU 46 v North Clare 68

Report: It was an even start however the first quarter was won by North Clare. Hayley Busch in GA for RSMU was consistent throughout the game. North Clare's centre court put pressure on RSMU making a few turnovers to take the lead by ten goals. North Clare's Yana Zanette kept the game moving fast giving North Clare a convincing win by 22 goals.

C1

Result: RSMU 29 v North Clare 22

Report: The first half of the match was very even with Molly Goodfellow and Lucy Smith from RSMU both shooting well up against the strong defence of North Clare's Teagan Maher and Maddie Coles. The second half saw RSMU's defence strengthen with lots of turn overs by Nadia Langtry and Kasey Jenner. The centre court had lots of physical contests however RSMU backed up well and pulled away in the last quarter to secure the win.

C2

Result: RSMU 36 v North Clare 33

Report: An intense game with minimal goal difference throughout the duration of the match. Players were equal and played to their strengths. RSMU 's C Imogen Swanson dominated the court with North Clare's C Hayley Reid pushing Imogen to play to her fullest potential. RSMU took the win by three goals with GS Taryn Senar shooting 22 of her 29 attempts.

15U

Result: RSMU 46 v North Clare 24

Report: RSMU came out with an impressive passage of play through the mid court. North Clare's Makayla Noble made RSMU's Madie Prizibilla drive hard for the scoring shot. RSMU continued to create turn overs through the defensive back line. Great shooting by North Clare's Paige Harrold giving them a great last quarter of play.

J1

Result No Game

J2

Result: RSMU 32 v North Clare 10

Report: A fast and skilful start to the game with accurate shooting by Tameka Saunderson from RSMU helping to give her team a comfortable lead at half time, 17 to four. Strong defence in the second by Sophie Green from North Clare helped her team capitalise on a few important turnovers, but RSMU were too strong running out the game to take the win.

J3

Report: A tight game for all four quarters with fantastic netball skills shown from the start. North Clare's Madison Wood and RSMU's Laina Clarke providing a great competition in the goal ring for the first half of the game. In the fourth quarter, North Clare managed to capitalise on a few turn overs.

J4

Report: Strong one on one defence from RSMU's Estelle McInerney. Some great passages of play from North Clare's GD Madeline Papps capitalising on turn overs. North Clare played a consistent game and RSMU improved as the game went on.

J5

Report: A fantastic second game of the season. North Clare started with accurate shooting from goalie Ellie Meanie. RSMU found their feet by the second quarter and came back fighting with some excellent defence work and intercepts from Nishyoera Nelluri. It was great to see some strong passes and steady footwork throughout the game from both teams.

Match between: South Clare v Min Man

A1

Result: South Clare 36 v Min Man 46

Report: A very fast paced first quarter from both sides going into the first break nine all. Strong shooting by Min Man goalie Jodie Allen pushed Min Man ahead going into half time. South Clare defenders Meg Rasheed & Sally Penny fought hard providing South with rebounds, but Min Man's mid court pressure from Leah and Emma Carling was too strong seeing them come away with a 10 goal win.

A2

Result: South Clare 46 v Min Man 43

Report: Both sides had a steady first quarter and went into the break even, 11 goals apiece. South Clare put their foot on the accelerator in the second with accurate shooting from Katie Woodrow and Bella Rawlings, giving them a six goal buffer at half time. Min Man's Lucy Nicholls and Sasha Willmott combined well in the centre court and fought back to be even again at three quarter time. Strong driving from South Clare's centre Jade Chapman helped push them over the line for a three goal win in a hotly contested final quarter.

B1

Result: South Clare 40 v Min Man 37

Report:

Min Man started fiercely in the first quarter, getting the jump on South Clare with accurate shooting from Nicole Blackwell giving them a strong five goal lead at quarter time. South Clare fought courageously in the second quarter with Loren Leibelt providing some extra defensive pressure enabling South Clare to bring themselves back into the game. The third quarter remained a tight tussle between both sides, but Gabi Ashmeade was strong in the mid court providing both drive and support and South Clare bought themselves up to be even at the third. Consistent play by South Clare in the final quarter supported them to take and hold the lead in a strongly contested game throughout.

B2

Result: South Clare 27 v Min Man 44

Report: The game started with fast pace, both teams feeding the ball down the court well. Min Man's Matilda Jacka holding her player tight with a score of seven to 12. The rest of first half saw Min Man's height and accuracy in the goal ring lead them to a good lead 14 -2 2. The second half saw South Clare make a change with Jessica Oakes-Driver running through the centre directing play. Min Man's strength and consistency saw them take the win.

C1

Result: South Clare 25 v Min Man 44

Report: The first quarter started off strong with both teams fighting hard for the ball. South Clare defenders Dominyka Millard and Kelsey Inglis made the goalies work hard throughout the game. With accurate shooting by Lara Smith, Min Man were able to secure a strong win with a high score.

C2

Result: South Clare 17 v Min Man 27

Report: South Clare started well in the first quarter, capitalising on turnovers with accurate shooting from Zoe Griffin. Min Man made defensive changes in the second quarter, switching Tyla Quick and Lily Weedon which then saw Min Man continue their lead to a strong win.

15U

Result: South Clare 32 v Min Man 24

Report: The game started evenly with both teams chasing every loose ball and creating numerous turnovers. Indi Mitchell was strong in goals for Min Man having a good tussle with South Clare's Emma Slattery. South Clare were able to create a three goal turn around in the second quarter to lead by two at half time. Imogen Nitschke was influential in defence, creating several turnovers with South Clare's Scarlett Liebelt-Seymon and Mackenzie Victor capitalising. Mia Isabella Muller worked hard for Min-Man in the mid court but South Clare pulled away in the last quarter to take the win.

J1

Result : South Clare 24 v Min Man 20

Report: South started the better of the two teams with accurate shooting by Tatum Giles and Scarlett Sims. Min Man's attack in the second half was strong, with Bridie Mitchell creating multiple turnovers in the ring. Good shooting by Charlie Ross, dominated the second half for Min Man. A good fight from both teams, but South was able to secure the win.

J2

Result: South Clare 6 v Min Man 30

Report: Min Man were impressive from the start with Chloe Ackland shooting very accurately and Macy Ackland making it extremely difficult for the South Clare shooters. Tiarna Wastell got her hands to lots of balls in her first game of netball. Isla Manhood battled hard all day for South Clare, but Min Man were too strong.

J3

Report: An enthusiastic game by both teams. Strong teamwork by South Clare with good defence by Elise Wilson and ball movement by Ruby Maloney through the centre court. Maeve Allen and Daisy Bryksy battled valiantly in defence for Min Man.

J4

Report: A great game in J4 today with South Clare and Min Man defences coming out strongly in the first quarter, with Amali Murphy and Sophia Liebelt-Seymon for South and Rachel Cook and Ruby Dixon providing lots of turnovers in defence. Koa Murphy and Jess Laws shot well for South Clare and Jorja Schutz and Stella Schwarz created lots of opportunities for Min Man. In the second half Molly Longbottom provided several turnovers for Min Man. South finished strongly with some long bombs from Sammi McCarthy.

J5

Report: A very closely contested match with great defence from South Clare's Matilda Manhood and Chinyere Alozie. Fast movement in the mid field by both teams with accurate shooting from Min Man's Lily-May Barp and Iyla Allmond.