

Round 5

27th May 2023

North Clare v BSR

A1

North Clare 41 - BSR 73

There was some beautiful netball played by both teams in the first quarter. Some fast clean transition plays out of defence and some pinpoint feeding into both goal rings. BSR's Anna Grace Close gave BSR an edge on the scoreboard with her tight defence while teammate Jemma Kelly was a magnificent target under their goal ring. The mid court was open, and a lot of space was created during the match. It was not until the second half that the score did start to break open. North's Millie Heinjus in defence and Chelsea Panoho in the mid court worked tirelessly all game. The score did not reflect the match play by all fourteen players.

A2

North Clare 46 v BSR 48

It was a wet start to the game which meant a slow and steady even game for both sides. Both teams played well under the conditions, with North's defence doing well to pick up loose balls. As the weather cleared up into the last quarter, BSR took control with accurate shooting from Alicia Thomas and Lucy Dare.

B1

North Clare 55 v BSR 40

North came out firing in the first quarter. Strong defensive pressure across the whole court by North saw loose balls and turnovers. BSR's Amy Trengove was strong and directional in the play as GA. North's Renee Scott, shot accurately. Third quarter was North's strongest, and they took out the win.

B2

North Clare 38 v BSR 29

A very close first half with very accurate shooting from both teams. Strong drives and defence by Jess Longbottom in the centre gave BSR a slim lead at half time. North came out firing in the second half, finding space and steading in the rain. Great defence from Madi Coles and Tegan Maher gave North many turnovers which they capitalised on to take the match.

C1

North Clare 47 v BSR 39

A goal for goal start to the game, resulting in a one goal lead to North in the first quarter. The second and third quarter were relatively even with both sets of goalies shooting some beautiful goals. North's Hayley Reid and BSR's Sarah Pilkington delivered the ball with precision into their goal rings. North got a run on in the last quarter and stretched the final lead to eight.

C2

North Clare 22 v BSR 16

A steady game was played today by both teams. North's goalie Evie Spurling shot strongly and BSR's Denisia Jackson defended tightly. A tussle in the centre court between both teams saw many turnovers with North's Issy Callary working the ball into the goals circle and BSR's Katie Gribble defending well. North scored well in the third quarter to take the lead and BSR worked hard in the last quarter to close the gap, however North held on for the win.

15U

North Clare 15 v BSR 30

A strong start for both teams considering the wet weather. BSR had a steady first quarter. North came out in the second quarter very strong outscoring BSR five goals to three. BSR made some changes and Lara Meyer was strong as GA. The second half of the game was very steady and both teams held strong.

J1

North Clare NC 20 v BSR 26

A tightly contested game, with a lot of turnovers both ways, making each attack end work for each goal. BSR WD Ivy Weckert provided great defensive pressure with Sarah Trengove (C) consistently being available to help bring the ball out of defence and into their goals. Beautiful shooting from North goalies Ella Coles and Ella Lloyd kept the score close for the first three quarters, but BSR pulled away in the last quarter to come away with the win.

J2 – No Game

J3

North Clare v BSR

A great game for the J3's considering tough weather conditions, wet and slippery! North Clare's Ava Weckert and Olive Hombsch had some great intercepts in the defence, but BSR's Sophie Adams movement and shooting took the lead for the team. North Clare came back stronger in the last quarter with turn overs and improved shooting. An overall good game by all.

J4 – No Game

J5

North Clare v BSR

A very even start to the game, both teams fighting hard for the ball. BSR settled to score the first three goals with great shooting from Elsie Weckert and Ella Smart. The rain hit and girls battled through with no scores in the third quarter. North came out firing in the fourth quarter with Caitlin Victor and Stella Papps scoring well ending in a very close finish.

BBH v Min-Man

A1

No Game

A2

BBH 31 v Min-Man 47

Both teams came out firing with Man Man's Emmerson Schoenberg settling well into the goals. BBH's changes at quarter time helped even out the game with consistent plays by Caitlin Squire and Megan Brooks. Min Man's Lucy Nicholls read of play created many turnovers, giving her team a convincing win.

B1

BBH 35 v Min-Man 37

BBH played a quality side this week. The first quarter, Min Man were feeding well to GS Emma Koch, with the score showing Min Man up by one goal at the first break. BBH made some changes, with GK Georgie Lines and GD Maddy Millward and all BBH defenders applied pressure and limited space for Min Man goalies to work in. BBH's Lily Wadlow played a solid four quarters in Centre. Min Man GK Karen Palmer defended well and her height allowed for rebounds. A solid four quarters by both teams and a great game to watch with a close scoreline all game.

B2

BBH 16 v Min-Man 35

The match started slow and the first quarter saw Min-Man's Lara Smith and Gabbie Scobie shooting accurately. Mikayla Hadley provided support and great defensive pressure the whole game. Annie Kellock showed good vision defensively in the circle. Tash Parsons used her skills to feed into BBH's offensive end, but Min-Man proved too strong with their consistent shooting.

C1

BBH 22 v Min-Man 51

A very even first quarter with great shooting by both teams. There was tough defence down both ends with Min-Man's Tahlia Lockwood and Kirby Faint causing many turnovers. Min-Man ended up too strong for BBH in the end.

C2

BBH 31 v Min-Man 42

Both teams came out strong with Min-Man leading from the start. Hannah Neill and Samantha Degoumois were strong in goals for Min-Man. Charli McBride, Bree Tiver and Sienna Stockman all worked well in goals for BBH, however, Min-Man proved too strong in the end.

15U

BBH 38 v Min-Man 23

The game started off evenly between both teams. Min Man's defence Bridie Mitchell caused many turnovers in the first quarter. BBH came out with determination in the second quarter with hands all over the ball by defences Millie Bavistock and Evelyn Klem assisting BBH to maintain their lead. BBH made changes all over the court for the second half, which secured their lead for the game.

J1 - No Game

J2

BBH 33 v Min-Man 3

Strong start by both teams. Great work by MM's mid court. Great defence by BBH's Lily Hancock, Pippa Benson, and Kaidance Tippet.

J3

BBH v Min-Man

The rain cleared with the first blow of the whistle, but a wet court and cold fingers led to trepidatious play. BBH showed solid teamwork and defence from the beginning. BBH's Emma Sommerville was able to capitalise on opportunities despite great defence from Min Man's Ellie Weedon. In the drizzle of the second quarter, the wet ball made for slippery play, but Abby Sheridan's continued tenacity resulted in more goals to BBH. Min Man's centre Charlee Hall created many opportunities for her team in very dim, tough conditions.

J4

BBH v Min-Man

Very evenly matched first quarter. Good shooting from BBH's Lucy Quinn GA and Min Man GS Tyla Almond. Great defence by BBH in the Min-Man goal ring, making them work hard.

The second quarter was also very evenly matched with great defence by Harriet Tiver.

Min-Man came out on fire in the next quarter with some great passages of play. Min-Man capitalised with some excellent shooting by Isla Parker.

J5

BBH v Min-Man

Both teams played very well in the cold, wet conditions. Plenty of action up both ends, with both teams scoring plenty of goals. A well-matched opposition and enjoyable game for both teams.

Eudunda Robertstown v RSMU

A1

Eud/Rob 49 v RSMU 46

Saints had a brilliant first quarter to take the lead by six goals. The second quarter saw RSMU capitalised on the Saint's turnovers and their attack end really opened up. They fought back to be only one down at half time. Sarah Noack stepped up her pressure in the centre court and RSMU lifted. The last quarter was very back and forth, RSMU took the lead in the late stages, but the Saint's never gave up with a quick run on to win by three goals. A very evenly matched game with great intensity.

A2

Eud/Rob 35 v RSMU 37

It was a very evenly contested first quarter by both teams in wet conditions. RSMU got off to a strong start with strong defence by Simone Miller (GD), however, the Saints turned some ball over and Breea Schutz (GA) shot accurately to level the scores at the first break. The Saints were the first to settle in the second quarter with strong drives and composure by Lisa Ah Chee (WA). RSMU were quick to respond clawing back the lead 22-21. Changes at halftime by both teams saw the tough tussle continue, in a very physical battle. RSMU were up by two at the third quarter break. Going into the last quarter, RSMU had the lead and their composure and experience was enough to take the win by two despite Saints best efforts.

B1

Eud/Rob 43 v RSMU 42

A close, tough first quarter with both teams fighting hard throughout. The second quarter had a gruelling battle through the mid court with the score staying even at the end of the quarter. Both goalie and defensive ends worked hard during the third quarter, with the score still even at the final break. The last quarter was a very tight goal for goal game which had both team supporters on the edge of their seats. The Saints ended up being the better team on the day and won by one.

B2

Eud/Rob 43 v RSMU 26

A very strong start by the Saint's side today, with smooth passages of play created by excellent use of space and timing. Great defence created many turnovers both in the circle and the midcourt with goalies capitalising on these opportunities well and keeping RSMU to four goals at the break. RSMU picked up the pace in the second half putting pressure on the Saints and closing the gap. The Saints were too strong to finish off with a convincing win.

C1

Eud/Rob 50 v RSMU 18

The Saints had a strong start and maintained an increasing lead each quarter with a great finish. There were lots of lovely, weird and wonderful passes which added to a friendly game of netball. RSMU's Ella Dixson remained a consistent force throughout the mid court. There were some awesome intercepts through the centre by Saint's Rachel Saegenschnitter and Regan Mosey. A game well played by both teams.

C2

Eud/Rob 21 v RSMU 18

The game was evenly contested in the first half with both defensive sides capitalising on rebounds. Saints WA (Fiona Schiller) and C (Lucy Engel) fed well into the Saints goalies. RSMU C (Jess Seeliger) created many turnovers in the centre third which they took advantage of. The last half saw Saints take the third quarter lead by six goals. Both teams shooting accuracy improved as the game progressed to give Saints the lead by three at the last whistle.

15U – No Game

J1

Eud/Rob 41 v RSMU 24

The first quarter went goal for goal, with both teams evenly matched. Elle Richards provided lots of drive down the court for RSMU. RSMU's Ryleigh Senior and Emmison Heinrich both shot accurately. The Saints settled in the second half. They slowed the game down and made strong leads and passes to the space. Caitlyn Cameron provided strong hands over the ball allowing Bridget Williams to get the intercept. Bridget Williams and Emmison Heinrich had a great match up with lots of speed and agility. Saint's Leni Geister provided lots of drive into the goal ring and defensive pressure out of attack. Saints finished strong making the most of their turnovers.

J2- No Game

J3

Eud/Rob v RSMU

A very even settled beginning to the match with excellent play from both teams. Players moving well, creating many opportunities to get the ball down the court. RSMU players applied a steady defence all over the court, making the Saints players work harder to maintain possession of the ball. RSMU demonstrated care and precision in their shooting and were able to capitalise on these opportunities. A brilliant game all round from both sides.

J4

Eud/Rob v RSMU

The game began with both teams fighting for the ball in the midcourt. By half-time the score was even at two all. RSMU girls gained control by three quarter time. While Saints fought hard, RSMU proved to be a more consistent team on the day.

J5 - No Game

Blyth Snowtown v South Clare

A1

Blyth Snowtown 66 v South Clare 35

An evenly contested first quarter with Blyth Snowtown taking a narrow lead into the first break. Both teams had a mix of experience and youth with many great passages of play. Katie Liebelt led her team with composure and shot well all game. Blyth Snowtown started to creep ahead in the second quarter with Maggie Hentschke taking the lead in defence. Blyth Snowtown stepped up the defensive pressure in the last half with sharp passages of play by Kasey Bigg and Holly Ottens into their goalies who finished off strong.

A2

Blyth Snowtown 33 v South Clare 34

South Clare started the game strong, shooting the first four goals. This put Blyth Snowtown on the back foot but the grit and determination remained as they fought back for an even score at half time. Kristy McCarthy lifted the intensity for South in the second half, despite effort from the young Jasmine Elsworth. Consistent defensive pressure from Blyth Snowtown's Georgia Mills and Rachel Sanders just wasn't quite enough against the accurate shooting of South Clare's Lucy Malycha and Ellie Johnson. Blyth Snowtown fought hard to close the gap, however, South Clare took the win by one.

B1

Blyth Snowtown 36 v South Clare 35

An evenly contested first quarter saw South Clare lead by two with South Clare's Chloe Stanway shooting accurately to have them lead by two at quarter time. South kept their lead by two at half time despite great intercepts and defence by Lauren Ferme for Blyth Snowtown. There were lots of turnovers in the third quarter which saw South go up by three. Blyth Snowtown fought back in the last quarter with Greta Pratt for Blyth Snowtown providing great drive down the court, seeing them come away winners by one goal.

B2

Blyth Snowtown 50 v South Clare 19

An even start with scores going goal for goal. Blyth Snowtown Nadinne Wilkinson stepped it up intercepting several centre passes and giving Blyth Snowtown a strong run at the end of the quarter. South battle hard in the second making it hard for Blyth Snowtown, but they continued to score with accurate shooting from Nicola Ross. South Clare defender Kelsey Inglis played well to reduce the number of goals by Blyth Snowtown scored in the third quarter. Blyth Snowtown came home strong with a fourteen to two quarter to finish with a convincing win.

C1

Blyth Snowtown 35 v South Clare 55

A great start from Blyth Snowtown with strong feeds from Bernie Altmann and Chloe Jamieson into their goalies who were shooting accurately. South Clare had great defensive pressure and saw the scores tied going into half time. South Clare made the most of their opportunities taking a ten-goal lead at three quarter time. Jessica Schutz and Sarah Rimmer worked well for South Clare and saw a solid finish for South.

C2

Blyth Snowtown 6 v South Clare 44

South Clare came out firing and shot a few quick goals to take the lead early. Lucy Kimber and Zoe Griffin were accurate in their shots, which helped South Clare to continue building a strong lead. Bonnie Williams worked hard through the mid court for Blyth Snowtown, but Blyth Snowtown were unable to turn this into a score. South Clare applied consistent defensive pressure across the court, which made any effort by Blyth Snowtown very difficult. South Clare finished the game with a convincing win.

15U

Blyth Snowtown 19 v South Clare 35

Evenly contested first half in slippery conditions with goal for goal scoring. Strong defensive pressure by both teams kept the scoring even and finishing the first half up by one. South Clare goalies Bianca Muir and Scarlett Sims started to shoot accurately and combining well all down the court to increase their lead and win comfortably.

J1

Blyth Snowtown 12 v South Clare 30

In difficult slippery wet conditions, it was hard for both teams to hold their feet and control the ball. South Clare were first to settle with some nice passages of play, directed well by Issy Quinton in Centre. Blyth Snowtown battled hard with some good intercepts by GK Tilly Welke. Blyth Snowtown made changes at half time for a more even third quarter, with Blyth Snowtown's Kartia Altmann having an impact in defence. South Clare ran away with it in the last quarter with a dominant last quarter with strong defence by Lexi Edmunds and good shooting by Cassidy Maloney.

J2 – No Game

J3

Blyth Snowtown v South Clare

Both teams started well with strong leading and great passing down the whole court. Sammi McCarthy shot accurately for South Clare along with Georgia Schramm for Blyth Snowtown. Blyth Snowtown continued to defend strongly as game continued with intercepts by Georgia Edmunds. Both teams encouraged and backed each other up. A lovely game of netball to watch and the weather held off!

J4

Blyth Snowtown v South Clare

J5

Blyth Snowtown v South Clare

An even match up saw the ball move up and down the court throughout the game. Charlotte Ottens and Summer McCarthy played well for South Clare. Whilst Sophia Jackson and Indi Hitch showed they are really developing their skills. An enjoyable match for all.
