

Round 14

19th August 2023

Eudunda/Robertstown v BSR

A1

Eud/Rob 35 lost to BSR 37

Saints came out determined to try and keep their finals hopes alive. Good defence by Georgia Huppertz (GK) and Mem Dunstan (GD), kept the Saints in it. Lisa Ah Chee moved beautifully in attack creating good options for the Saints goalies. BSR's Sophie Ashby and Taryn Kelly shot well in difficult conditions which tightened the score. At half time, the scores were equal. Saints fought hard to keep up with the top team with only a one goal difference going into the last quarter. Saints continually fought hard, however BSR were too strong and took the win.

Eud/Rob 39 defeated BSR 34

Saints came out strong with strong defensive pressure by Olivia Schiller and Steph Green. BSR settled towards the end of the quarter with Gemma Kelly picking off lots of passes into the Saints attack. BSR were more settled in the second half with an evenly contested quarter. Both teams had a strong last quarter, but the Saints held on and took the win.

B1

Eud/Rob 47 defeated BSR 28

The Saints had a great start in both attack and defence giving them a nine-goal lead at quarter time. In the second quarter BSR lifted their intensity and challenged the Saints, however the Saints still led at half time. During the third quarter, there was a battle in the mid court between Saints and BSR closing the lead to 13. Although the Saints came away with a convincing win, BSR fought hard and challenged the Saints until the end.

Eud/Rob 53 defeated BSR 24

Great start by both sides, although the Saints had erratic passing which saw BSR turning the ball over, however they were unable to capitalise on these opportunities. In the second quarter, the Saints missed passing opportunities, due to lack of vision, making any goal scored a challenge. In the third quarter, BSR had great passages of play applying pressure on Saints, which congested their mid court. BSR continued working hard the entire match, however, the Saints were too strong and finished the match with a comfortable win going into the finals.

C1

Eud/Rob 40 defeated BSR 10

It was a tightly contested match to begin before Saints Bella Chenoweth started taking intercepts in the second quarter. Allowing Saints to pull away. BSR's Sarah Pilkington read the ball well and created many turn overs. Saints' defence in the ring took advantage of the rebounds. It was a great friendly game to finish BSR's season, while the Saints are looking forward to playing in the finals.

C2

Eud/Rob 39 defeated BSR 23

The first quarter was goal-for-goal between the Saints and the BSR. In the second quarter, the Saints got away by 12, however, were still challenged by the BSR mid court and defense. The Saints GA, Nicole Hardy was dominant in the Saints goal circle and fought hard for rebounds with BSR GK, Denisia Jackson. Each team played and challenged the opposition. Making it a great game to spectate, however the Saints were the better team on the day.

15U

Eud/Rob 26 lost to BSR 28

Both teams started strong with high intensity. Saints, Madi Ah Chee, found the circle edge and fed accurately to the goalies. Scores were locked at quarter time. The second quarter saw BSR lift their defensive pressure all over the court. Saints, Regan Mosey, and BSR's, Lara Meyer, had a good tussle in the middle. BSR led by five at half time. Changes at half time saw the Saints find their rhythm to close the scoreline to two goals going into the last quarter. A lot to play for in the last quarter saw BSR lift their heads and finish the game to win by two goals. A hard-fought game played by all.

J1

Eud/Rob 19 defeated BSR 17

Saints started strong with great defensive pressure down the court. Leni Geister made a lot of turn overs giving the Saints a four-goal lead into quarter time. BSR made some changes matching Sophie Weckert against Leni in the centre. This made for a great match up and a battle all over the court. The second quarter went end to end. BSR dominated the third quarter with an eight to two score. Paige Jones shot accurately and moved well providing lots of opportunities for BSR. Saints came out determined, chasing the loose balls and making the most of the turn overs. Zoe Neal shot well under pressure to get the Saints the win.

J2 – No Game

J3

Eud/Rob v BSR

J3 team had a brilliant last game with the competition being very competitive. The ball was going up and down the court. BSR had some great defence which made it hard on the saints to get the ball. Fantastic effort from both teams

J4 & J5 – No Game

BBH v RSMU

A1 - No Game

BBH 27 lost to RSMU 44

A strongly contested first half saw RSMU take the lead with many influential turnovers by Simone Miller. BBH's defence line worked hard to keep the margin to seven heading into the last quarter, however RSMU's commitment to game play saw them take the win.

B1

BBH 27 lost to RSMU 52

The start of the game BBH defences Ellie Oates and Emma Dunthorne rebounded strongly. Second quarter, Cath Greenslade dominated with drive on the RSMU goal circle. BBH's Candice Catt played four solid quarters, shooting solidly. Changes made by RSMU, GA Jessica Heir shot accurately pushing the score out from BBH's reach. Great last game, team effort. Wishing all clubs the best for finals.

BBH 20 lost to RSMU 33

The match between these two teams started slow. Both teams saw the ball seesaw back and forth before either end was able to capitalise in goals. RSMU's Kelly-Anne Dutton and BBH's Anastasia Ritchie had a hard fight all game. RSMU's Nadia Langtry made BBH goalie Maddy Taylor work for every ball in the circle. RSMU were too strong in the end.

C1

BBH 36 defeated RSMU 26

A well-played game by both teams. Fabulous defence all game from both sides. Kasey Jenner (RSMU) took multiple intercepts each quarter making it tough for the BBH goalies.

After some positional changes in the third, BBH managed to outscore RSMU and went away with the win.

C2

BBH 23 lost to RSMU 28

A tough contest from the start. RSMU and BBH were even at the first break. Strong shooting by Nicole Saunderson and Stevie-Lee Dutton saw RSMU pull away. BBH were able to close the margin with good defence by Sienna Stockman and Rochelle Saint. RSMU were able to keep the lead and won the day by five.

15U, J1 & J2 – No Game

J3

BBH v RSMU

A strongly contested start by both BBH and RSMU with great passages of play. Strong defence by BBH's Stella O'Bryan and Aaliyah Edwards kept the first quarter's score low with BBH only scoring one goal. Changes on both sides saw RSMU's GD Elisa Bastians' strong defence and intercepts converting into RSMU gaining and maintaining a two-goal lead for two quarters. RSMU's strong teamwork gave them the win.

J4

BBH v RSMU

BBH came out firing with excellent shooting from Ella Davy and Sophie Tiver. A very even game with great teamwork by both teams.

J5

BBH v RSMU

A great game played by both teams with everyone getting plenty of touches.

North Clare v Blyth Snowtown

A1

North Clare 44 lost to Blyth Snowtown 59

With a reasonably even start to the game, Blyth Snowtown managed to get a couple of turnovers that allowed them a five-goal lead heading into the first break. Ellie Gould's feeding into Leah Edmunds in the Cats goal ring was accurate and efficient. Up the other end, there were some moments of brilliance as North's Chloe Cross fed some beautiful balls into Robyn Coles who added to the score. North found it tough to peg back that early lead as the game remained even for the first half. Blyth Snowtown got a break on the scoreboard in the third and kept building until they managed a 15-goal deficit at the final whistle.

North Clare 43 defeated Blyth Snowtown 37

Blyth Snowtown came out strong in the opening quarter despite the wet conditions. North worked to adjust, with a two-goal lead at quarter time. Blyth's Elise Honner moved the ball well through the midcourt, with Hannah Hogg shooting accurately. North's defensive end in Kel Vasek and Abbie Brereton made it hard for Blyth to transition into attack. North's Diesy O'Driscoll moved well through the ring to set up quick and easy plays for North. It was a tightly fought contest for the last minor round, with North holding onto their finals spot.

North Clare 29 lost to Blyth Snowtown 31

Both teams were even from the first whistle. Blyth Snowtown took an early lead with Jo Salter being a strong presence in the ring. North settled in the second quarter and evened the score. It was goal for goal through the third quarter. Jess Cullen was strong in defence for North, getting lots of rebounds, but Blyth finished strong in the final minutes and came away with a 2-goal win.

North Clare 55 drew with Blyth Snowtown 55

A fabulous game where the biggest margin at any point was three goals. North's Sophie McLennan was impossible to beat with great feeding from Leonie Player, Ellie Redden and Gemma Schultz. Susie Schramm (BS) tried hard for the entire game in defence and Kristen Carling (BS) also put plenty of pressure on the ball. At half time North made some interchanges bringing Madi Coles into defence who provided many turnovers for North which they struggled to capitalise on due to tight defence from Blyth Snowtown causing an even scoreline at the last break. The last quarter was goal for goal with Leonie re-entering the game and Sophie to finish with a goal on the whistle to make a draw.

North Clare 58 defeated Blyth Snowtown 31

Even start to the game with some great shooting from North's Ruby Redden and Blyth Snowtown's Elisha Baker. Second and third quarter saw North take more of a lead with some great passages of play. Some great defence work in the last quarter by Blyth Snowtown and some great turn overs by North's Eliza Fels saw North Clare take a convincing win.

North Clare 43 defeated Blyth Snowtown 34

A great start with North gaining the first score on the board. A good matchup in the centre court with North's Charlize White and Blyth Snowtown's Anna Williams. Tight defence by North Sorayah White and tight pressure by Blyth Snowtown's Madsion Schultz. With accurate shooting by Evie Spurling saw North Clare win on the day.

North Clare 22 lost to Blyth Snowtown 57

Both teams started the game strong. Blyth Snowtown capitalised on loose balls. North settled in the second quarter and only had four goals the difference in the quarter score. Blyth Snowtown used their strong drive down the court to finish off the game with a convincing win.

North Clare 31 lost to Blyth Snowtown 36

Wet conditions led to quite a few loose balls, with both teams chasing hard to scoop them up. Beautiful shooting from North's Ella Lloyd and Blyth-Snowtown's Charlotte Muller kept the score close in the first half. Blyth-Snowtown stepped it up in the third quarter with some great defensive pressure from Zahara Bernhardt and Mikayla Eime and their team capitalising on turnovers. North came back hard in the last quarter, but Blyth-Snowtown managed to hold their lead and come away with the win.

J2 - No game

J3

North Clare v Blyth Snowtown

A wet start for the last game of the season. Blyth Snowtown were strong in the goal ring with some lovely shooting by Taylee Clifford. Great intercepts by North's Franzi Hayes-Mitchell in defence gave North opportunity. North showed great fighting spirit all game but Blyth Snowtown were too strong.

J4

North Clare v Blyth Snowtown

Wet conditions saw a very evenly contested game right from the start. Blyth Snowtown's goalies were accurate in the second quarter to give them a strong lead. Great defence from North's Sarah Victor allowed North to get back in the game.

J5

North Clare v Blyth Snowtown

In very wet conditions, both teams started the game with great enthusiasm. North had strong leads down the court with accurate shooting from Ruby Milburn and Stella Papps. Blyth Snowtown continued to work hard with some strong intercepts from Elise Stringer and both teams played with good positioning. A very competitive game played in good spirits.

Min-Man vs South Clare

A1

Min-Man 52 defeated South Clare 42

A strong start by both teams with an even contest throughout the court. Both teams created good turnovers with South's Katie Woodrow and Min-Man's Makenzie Schoenberg shooting accurately. Min-Man took a two-goal lead into the half time break. Changes by Min-Man in the second half saw an increase in conversion of turnovers, with Halle Smith shooting accurately. South Clare stayed in the contest with Kristy Lewis providing drive down the court and accurate feeding into her attackers. Min-Man's ability to convert on turnovers saw them take the win by ten goals.

Min-Man 69 defeated South Clare 31

Min-Man started strongly, presenting as a cohesive team unit, leading 20 to 7 at the first break. A tighter second quarter, with some impressive long-range shooting by South's Lucy Malycha. Min-Man up 34-17 at half time. Min-Man settled well in the third quarter with accurate shooting from Emmerson Schoenberg, who was fed well by her attacking end, despite South's defensive pressure. Min-Man up 52-25 at three quarter time. The last quarter saw the Min-Man defensive unit stand tall and take control and the team was able to capitalise on this, finishing well. Rachel Slusser worked hard all game for South and Lucy Hill was impressive with her leads, strength around the ring and creative feeding in her 150 +20th game.

B1

Min-Man 60 defeated South Clare 22

Great start to the game for Min-Man with confident shooting by both Emma Koch and Lydia Schwartz. In the second quarter Min-Man continued their dominance with great flow down the court to the goalies. Good consistent play through the third quarter by both teams saw an even quarter with accurate shooting by South's Amanda Jameson. In the final quarter South mixed their team up for fun and Min-Man finished the minor round with a percentage improving win.

Min-Man 54 defeated South Clare 20

Min-Man started strongly with strong defence by Annabelle Smith and Kerry Hadley, with Min-Man leading by 17 goals at quarter time. The second quarter saw Min-Man keep South Clare scoreless with accurate shooting and strong rebounding by the goalies. South Clare came out strongly in the third, outscoring Min-Man with GS Bianca Driver taking strong balls and shooting accurately. The final quarter saw an even contest, with Min-Man taking a strong win by 34 goals.

C1

Min-Man 32 lost to South Clare 47

A fast paced first quarter between first and second on the table. South defenders worked hard with WD Bree Mensforth getting some great intercepts. South started the second confidently, but Min-Man kept working hard to win the quarter by one. South stepped it back up in the third with their goalies working well and GS Jessica Schutz shooting at 100% accuracy, leading by nine at three quarter time. Min-Man started the last strongly with GS Danielle Wells shooting well but South finished with a good win.

C2

Min-Man 37 lost to South Clare 44

This game saw a contest of two finals netball teams, with South Clare the ones to beat. South Clare took the early lead with Lucy Kimber and Zoe Griffin shooting accurately. Min-Man's Hannah Neill was strong in attack, converting opportunities Min-Man's defence had worked hard for. South Clare's ability to convert their centre passes into goals was key, enabling South Clare to take the win by seven.

Min-Man 26 lost to South Clare 31

Strong start by both teams with Tatum Giles for Min-Man and Bianca Muir for South shooting accurately. The first half saw strong drive down the centre and strong passing into the ring by both teams, keeping the scores close at half time. The third quarter was an even contest with both teams capitalising on turnovers. The start of the final quarter saw an even fight from Min-Man, however South pulled away with strong defence by Isabelle Wilson and Imogen Nitschke, to finish the game strongly to win the game by five.

Min-Man 17 defeated South Clare 15

This game was sure to be a tough contest from the beginning, being a rematch of the grand final last year. Both teams started strongly with tight defence making it tough for both teams to score, however Min-Man took an early lead. The second quarter saw an even contest, with Min-Man still taking the lead into half time. South Clare came out firing in the third, with Isabel Quinton's speed through the centre providing drive down the court, however Min-Man hung on to lead by two heading into the final quarter. Min-Man's defensive duo of Chloe Ackland and Amber Smith were ruthless in defence, making it very tough for South Clare to score, helping Min-Man finish the season with a two-goal win.

Min-Man 9 lost to South Clare 23

Strong start by both teams with even contest down the court, good leads and passes throughout the players. Stella Schwartz shot well and Sophia Liebelt-Seymon got some good intercepts. Lots of talking and competitive netball plays. Third quarter saw South take the lead as the game became quite rushed with multiple turnovers. Exciting last quarter and overall, a great game by all.

Min-Man v South Clare

Good play through the mid court by both teams. Sammi McCarthy was strong in the centre and then shot well in goals in the last half for South Clare. Ruby Dixon and Ellie Weedon were strong in defence for Min-Man, picking up some great intercepts. The game was more competitive than the score showed due to better goal accuracy by South Clare.

J4

Min-Man v South Clare

South Clare started strong with a solid attack and accurate goal shooting by Shayla Williams. Both teams moving the ball through the midcourt well with strong leads by Min-Man's Isla Parker from the Centre. Good defence by South Clare challenged Min-Man's attack. An even third quarter saw both teams working hard. Good mid court play by South's Clara Ottens and Penelope Heinjus was matched by Min Man's Sophia Duncan and Eliza Stockman. Chinyere Alozie provided a solid South Clare defence in goals.

Min-Man v South Clare

Great even game to finish the season. Both teams had plenty of the ball, but Min-Man's persistence paid off in the goals. South's Summer McCarthy played a solid game in defence putting plenty of pressure on her opponents, while Min-Man's Lexie Lillecrapp and Evie Baraglia moved well, offering lots of opportunities. Well done girls.
