

Round 13

9th August 2025

RSMU Vs BBH

A1

RSMU 71 BBH 20

The quarter started goal for goal with intense pressure and speed down the court from both teams. RSMU's goalies Sophie Griffiths and Kelsey Noll worked cooperatively to create goalie to goalie movement around the ring. BBH's Amelia Squire continued to put immense pressure through the middle forcing several errors for RSMU's attacking end. Hawks managed to work tirelessly and push out the lead in the second quarter; they kept playing consistently to hold the front end.

A2

NO GAME

B1

RSMU 44 BBH 34

A game played in good spirit for four quarters. The opening ten minutes went goal for goal with both teams transitioning the ball cleanly and making the most of their opportunities. RSMU applied the pressure, opening up a four goal lead at the first break. BBH's young centre court applied fantastic pressure, equally matched by RSMU's defensive circle. The final whistle saw RSMU ahead by ten.

B2

RSMU 52 BBH 27

Both teams game out strong in the first quarter. RSMU held strong in the second quarter with accurate feeding into the ring. RSMU's Chloe Oakley shot beautifully all game to keep RSMU with a strong lead. BBH's Kira Sosa in defence, worked hard to try and stop RSMU's lead, but RSMU were too strong in today's match.

C1

RSMU 18 BBH 42

A slow start by RSMU left them behind the eight ball in the first quarter. Some accurate shooting by BBH's Jodie stockman allowed BBH to pull away and win comfortably by 24 goals.

C2

RSMU 39 BBH 41

It was a steady start to the game by both teams. With goalies at both end shooting well. Leaving RSMU in the lead by 3 goals at half time. BBH pulled away in the third quarter. RSMU rallied in the final quarter and after some close contests BBH held on to win by 2 goals

INTERMEDIATE 1

RSMU 42 BBH 29

This was a hard-fought game with both sides showing plenty of skill and determination. BBH were strong and competitive, but RSMU's consistency across the court saw them finish the better side.

Emmison Heinrich was a standout for RSMU, combining accuracy under the ring with strong defensive work when the ball came out of attack. Erica Parker was rock-solid in defence all game, applying constant pressure and forcing turnovers. For BBH Emmy-Lou Cooper was a key playmaker in the middle, driving the ball forward and creating opportunities for her team. It was a fast, competitive match played in great spirit with RSMU's teamwork and four quarter effort proving too strong in the end.

INTERMEDIATE 2

RSMU 36 BBH 36

It was a tightly contested game with BBHs Maddison Harvey (C) converting turnovers in the midcourt. BBHs goalies Darcy Opperman & Abby Sheridan were extremely accurate and gave them a 5 goal lead at half time. RSMU came out firing in the last quarter with great turnovers and rebounding by RSMU's circle defenders, Macy Glynn and Sienna Condon. BBH applied great full court pressure, but RSMU managed to peg back a five goal turn around with great goalie movement and shooting by Laina Clarke and Tameka Saunderson. It was a nail biter until the last whistle with both teams fighting hard for a win and ending up a draw.

JUNIOR 1

RSMU 19 BBH 37

BBH started strongly with accurate shooting from Maddison Harvey. RSMU came out much stronger in the second quarter. Good defence from Elisa Bastian and Amelia McInerney slowed BBH's scoring rate and accurate shooting from Aurora Wilden, allowed RMSU to win the quarter and reduce the margin. BBH re-grouped and extended their lead in the third quarter. Mia Thompson (C) and Pippa Benson (GD) combined well to move the ball with accuracy and precision into BBH's attacking half. The last quarter was another close contest with RSMU's Phoebe Rowett passing nicely into the goalies.

JUNIOR 2

RSMU 19 BBH 13

It was a great game with both teams putting on a great display of skill and determination. The game was close from start to finish, but RSMU managed to edge ahead and claim a good win. For RSMU, Tiana Williams was strong in goals, finishing well under pressure. Avie Osman worked tirelessly in WA, feeding the ball into the circle. BBH also had some impressive performers, with Jorja Gebhardt shooting accurately in GA, and Sienna Thamm providing strong defensive pressure in GD. A great game played in good spirit, with RSMU coming away with the win.

SUB-JUNIOR 1

Both teams demonstrated great effort and team work throughout this match. Anna Wewzow was strong in goals for RSMU, finishing well and combining nicely with her teammates. RSMU led well and passed forward with confidence, creating plenty of attacking opportunities. BBH also had some great passage of play all over the court, with Molly Noack working hard and contributing strongly to their performance.

SUB-JUNIOR 2

Both teams showcased impressive skills in both attack and defence throughout the game. The second quarter matchup between RSMU Elsie Lines in GD and BBH Olivia Tolhurst in GA was a highlight with both players putting in a strong contest. BBH's Meila Down worked hard in defence to shut down RSMU Goalies Lola Kolencik and Lily Evans who impressed with accurate shooting.

Min Man BSR

A1

MIN MAN 40 BSR 52

A fast right game to start with pressure from both teams throughout the court. An extremely tough second quarter with both teams even at half time. With accurate shooting by both teams in the third quarter it was BSR's relentless pressure in the fourth quarter that made it difficult for Min Man to capitalise on crucial turnovers. Strong games by Min Mans Libby Fiebiger and BSR's Emily Ashby.

A2

MIN MAN 52 BSR 40

It was always going to be an intense match up this week, with both teams eager for the win. The first quarter was fairly even with strong attacking play and accurate shooting from both teams, MinMan were up at the break.

Second and third quarter saw increased intensity from BSR, with strong defence from BSRs Mabel Arbon, fast play through the middle by BSRs Alex Fowler and Stella Bengier and great attacking from the Weckert trio, levelling the scores and hitting the lead momentarily but MinMan hung on, to be ahead by 3 at three quarter time.

MinMan started the last quarter with great determination and with the added boost of accurate shooting from Emmerson Schoenberg, to take out the game by 12.

B1

MIN MAN 39 BSR 42

The game opened with strong, competitive pressure and goal-for-goal scoring. Both sides were determined, applying tight defensive pressure, but by half time MinMan had edged ahead by four goals. BSR fought back in the third, clawing back a goal to narrow the margin to three. The final quarter was fierce, with BSR's defence standing tall, but MinMan's relentless pressure and pinpoint passes into the ring sealed the win, finishing seven goals clear.

B2

MIN MAN 38 BSR 36

Even start with Annie Weckert difficult to stop in BSR goals. Lydia Schwartz and Megan Parish combined well in MM goal ring edging further ahead at half time. Tegan Hall gave BSR more drive through the Centre with a nail biting finish.

C1

MIN MAN 43 BSR 57

A strong rhythm in the first quarter saw plenty of back-and-forth ball movement between the sides. The second quarter was well contested, with active shooting from Min Man's Cassidy Maloney and BSR's Asher Longbottom. In the third quarter, Min Man narrowed the gap with a few extra goals, but BSR held onto a two-goal lead. The final quarter was another tough contest, with both teams fighting hard for possession, but BSR held their ground to take the win.

C2

MIN MAN 68 BSR 20

Both teams came out strong from the first whistle. Solid defensive efforts from Laurel Lees and Emmelie Nijskens kept BSR under pressure. The BSR shooters impressed with the accuracy but MinMans attacking drive, led by Centre Chloe Kerber, maintained their lead throughout the match. A hard fought contest.

INTERMEDIATE 1

MIN MAN 36 BSR 39

BSR started off strong taking a good lead in the first half with accurate shooting from Lara Meyer and strong driving through the mid court from BSR centre Ava White. Min man made changes in the second half which allowed them to bring the score back to even in the last quarter. Min man Centre Dakota Giles and WA Cassidy Maloney showed strong mid court pressure. BSR proved too strong and took the win by 3 points.

INTERMEDIATE 2

No game

JUNIOR 1

MIN MAN 20 BSR 17

A super tight contest in the first quarter. A very strong 2nd quarter by MinMan to increase their lead. BSR's Isabella Thomas shot well in the 3rd to close the gap. An intense 4th quarter saw strong defensive pressure from MinMan's Daisy Bryksy and great attacking netball by everyone. MinMan winning this close game by 3 goals

JUNIOR 2

MIN MAN 25 BSR 14

A fast-paced start saw the two top sides go goal for goal early. BSR's Violet Lange moved well in the ring, rewarding her team with accurate shooting.

Both teams contested strongly through the mid court, with Min Man's Eliza Stockman and BSR's Hanna Burford creating opportunities for their sides in the first half.

Tight defence from Min Man's Lily-May Barp forced multiple turnovers, which Min Man capitalised on to build a strong lead in the second half and secure a convincing win.

SUB-JUNIOR 1

MIN MAN V BSR

Fast paced match with Min Man moving the ball down the court well. Tight defence by both Min man and BSR throughout the game. Play was very even in the last quarter with both team shooting well.

SUB-JUNIOR 2

MIN MAN VS BSR

The girls took to the court with lots of enthusiasm. The first quarter saw the Min Man shooters working well together. BSR made some great intercepts and there was even play from both teams through the mid-court. The girls enjoyed a fun game to the end.

Blyth Snowtown v South Clare

A1

Blyth Snowtown 40 v South Clare 37

In what was a physical contest South Clare led from the start and were up by two at quarter time. Blyth Snowtown had many changes due to blood rules and South Clare were able to extend their lead thanks to accurate shooting by Chloe Cook to lead 13-18 at half time. Blyth Snowtown tried positional changes, but South Clare maintained control. Blyth Snowtown's defensive efforts in the final term with important turnovers meant they could begin to close the gap and were able to hit the front with 6 minutes to go. Kaili Cook Shales and Poppy Gilfilin-Silk were strong targets for Blyth Snowtown and with a 16 goal last quarter were able to take the win by 3.

A2

Blyth Snowtown 45 v South Clare 54

Blyth Snowtown started well and lead at the first break, with strong attack work by Kartia Altmann. South Clare came out strong in the second lead by Katie Liebelt in GA, who remained strong through the rest of the match. Blyth Snowtown continued to turn the ball over to provide opportunities for their team. Sophie Angel was consistent in the centre court for Blyth Snowtown. As the game progressed South Clare pulled away and secured a top of the table win convincingly.

B1

Blyth Snowtown 58 v South Clare 41

Blyth Snowtown came out with determination to end the quarter with an eight-goal lead. South settled with great accuracy and shooting from Emily Nordhausen. Blyth Snowtown continued strong in the second quarter with great defence from Kristin Carling and Poppy Wilson. South Clare made some changes at half time and settled well into those positions. Blyth Snowtown continued with full court pressure and great shooting to increase their lead to come away with a 17-goal win.

B2

Blyth Snowtown 56 v South Clare 47

Both teams started strongly, with Isabelle Wilson providing a reliable target in the ring for South Clare and Blyth Snowtown's defensive pressure forcing turnovers, the first quarter ended even. In the second, Blyth Snowtown's defenders Georgia Danielle and Susie Schramm rebounded strongly, creating scoring chances. Amanda Harris' accurate shooting pushed Blyth Snowtown ahead at half-time. South Clare's changes in the third quarter reignited their attack, but Blyth Snowtown held control through Belinda Stringer's steady voice and direction in the centre. Tahlia Bridgers led South Clare's competitive push, but Blyth Snowtown structure and discipline limited their opportunities. Finishing with composure and consistency, Blyth Snowtown secured a hard-fought win.

C1

Blyth Snowtown 41 v South Clare 40

From start of game Blyth Snowtown and South Clare evenly matched. Both teams had strong defence and accurate shooting. At half time Blyth Snowtown lead by 2 goals thanks to multiple turnovers by Michelle Fafard. South Clare brought fresh leg in the second half and managed to score on multiple turnovers throughout their defence line to lead by 2 goals. Last quarter saw both teams put in a lot of effort, with Blyth Snowtown working hard to untimely win by one goal.

C2

Blyth Snowtown 26 v South Clare 47

Both teams came out firing from the first whistle, with strong passages of play at both ends of the court. South Clare's GS Jess Schultz proved too strong for Blyth Snowtown's defence, converting with accuracy under pressure. The game was fiercely contested through all four quarters, with plenty of body-on-body play testing the stamina and strength of Blyth Snowtown's shooters Nat Cocks and Emily Newtown. Despite the physical contest, Blyth Snowtown continued to fight hard, moving the ball through the mid court and capitalising on scoring opportunities when they arose. South Clare continued to increase their lead with great passages of play down the court and great feeding into their goalies.

INTERMEDIATE 1

Blyth Snowtown 30 v South Clare 40

South Clare scored the first goal of the game and Blyth Snowtown responded quickly. The game was well contested, with good movement by Isla Manhood and Jordie McCarthy in attack for South Clare. Blyth Snowtown trailed by a few goals at the end of the first half and evened the score early in the third quarter with great feeds into the ring by Eliza Honner. Isabelle Quinton had an impact in defence for South Clare, and they were too strong for Blyth Snowtown in the end.

INTERMEDIATE 2

Blyth Snowtown 36 v South Clare 16

Very evenly contested first quarter by both teams South Clares shooters were solid. Blyth Snowtowns Lara Cochrane shot well in the second quarter with Blyth Snowtown leading by five at the half time break. Positional changes in the second half with Harriet Walker going into defence swung the game with Blyth Snowtown finishing with a convincing win.

JUNIOR 1

Blyth Snowtown 21 v South Clare 21 Draw

South Clare started well with good defence and rebounds in Blyth Snowtown's goal ring to get the turn overs. Sammi McCarthy was great through the mid court and leading in the goal ring for South Clare. Blyth Snowtown made some changes at half time, but South Clare kept the lead by 7 at three quarter time. Blyth Snowtown's positions stayed the same, but they finally found some enthusiasm and made a comeback in the last quarter with intercepts by Taylee Clifford and Elsie Angus. Each turnover was valued with a goal. South Clare kept fighting but the result was an exciting draw.

JUNIOR 2

Blyth Snowtown 26 v South Clare 15

South Clare started well with great shooting from Ava and Scarlett. Evenly contested second quarter with Blyth Snowtown starting to swing the game in their favour. Movement through the mid court with Penny Renyolds of South Clare was exciting. Blyth Snowtown put the pressure on in defence after half time causing turnovers with Annie Honner and Violete Welke capitalizing on the score board.

SUB-JUNIOR 1

Blyth Snowtown v South Clare

South came out firing with great shooting by Charlotte Ottens and Emma Schutz. Blyth Snowtown tried hard to turn over the ball, with many deflections by Leni Ottens. A very quick game saw lots of intercepts by both sides. Third quarter Blyth Snowtown settled with a couple of consistent goals.

SUB-JUNIOR 2

Blyth Snowtown v South Clare

A very even start to the match saw both South Clare and Blyth Snowtown creating fantastic passages of play with impressive passing and turn overs by both teams. Blyth Snowtown's Indi Hitch provided a great target in the ring which was made tough by the tight defending of South Clare's Delphie Campbell and Emily Young. Both teams chased down loose balls and fought for every possession.

North Clare vs Eudunda Robertstown

A1

North Clare 53 v Eudunda Robertstown 50

Both teams started strongly with accurate shooting at both ends. Annie Fewster and Kirsty Baum worked tirelessly through the centre for North, driving play and creating opportunities. Eudunda Robertstown had a strong second quarter, taking a three-goal lead into half-time thanks to key intercepts from Mem Dunstan and confident shooting by Bridie Fitzgerald. North came out fighting in the third, levelling the score at 43-all heading into the final quarter. A determined, whole-team effort in the last term saw North pull ahead to claim a well-deserved win.

A2

North Clare 51 v Eudunda Robertstown 36

North Clare started strongly, capitalising on rebounds and converting their opportunities to take an early lead. Eudunda Robertstown fought back with strong defensive pressure, creating turnovers, but North held a narrow 12–10 advantage at the first break. The second quarter was evenly contested, though North managed to extend their lead to six by halftime. Jess Cullen's strong rebounding and Lara Jasechke's consistent shooting, combined with smooth driving down the court, kept North in control. Despite Claire Schiller's hard work in generating turnovers for the Saints, North proved too strong, securing the win.

B1

North Clare 40 v Eudunda Robertstown 45

Both teams began strongly with solid defensive pressure, but North capitalised on their opportunities to lead 12–7 at the first break. Eudunda Robertstown's defence created multiple chances, and with Alix Mosey shooting accurately, they closed the gap to level the scores by halftime. The final quarter was played at high intensity, with the Saints holding a four-goal advantage. North made changes, with Petra Lade moving into defence to help reduce the margin to two, but Eudunda Robertstown capitalised on late errors to secure a five-goal win.

B2

North Clare 32 v Eudunda Robertstown 49

North Clare took some time to settle in the first quarter allowing Saints to gain a lead at the first break and their momentum continued throughout the game. North goal defenders, Alex Butterick, Elise O'Neil and Sophie Green fought hard all game against very accurate shooting by Saints Isabella Chenoweth and Carissa Wood. North made several changes throughout the game and came back to outscore the Saints in the last quarter.

C1

North Clare 28 v Eudunda Robertstown 56

The Saints took control from the first centre pass and built on their lead throughout the game. Amy Mepstead showcased her versatility, switching from attack to defence and making North work hard across the court. Makayla Noble consistently created turnovers for North, but Saints' Louise Schutz responded by sending the ball straight back to her goalies to convert. The young Roosters never dropped their heads, showing determination against a very experienced Saints side.

C2

North Clare 33 v Eudunda Robertstown 59

A tight first quarter saw North Clare working well as a team, with accurate shooting from both sides keeping the scores even. Eudunda Robertstown's strong shooting in the following quarters helped them edge ahead, but North Clare remained consistent and refused to give up. In the end, it was a great, close game played in strong spirit.

INTERMEDIATE 1

North Clare 43 v Eudunda Robertstown 38

The opening term was an even contest, with strong challenges across the court from both sides. North ramped up the pressure in the second quarter with tight defence and accurate shooting from Tesha Jaeschke and Tegan Kloock, maintaining their lead into half-time. The Saints made changes at the main break, tightening their defence, while Zoe Neal and Angela Aves shot with consistent accuracy throughout the match.

INTERMEDIATE 2

North Clare 36 v Eudunda Robertstown 32

North Clare claimed a 36–32 win, led by sharp shooting from Kiera Kerslake, while Lucy Green worked tirelessly around the ring, holding her position strongly. Aimee Lang and Georgia Strong drove with purpose through the attack. The Saints' defence stayed tough in both the goal ring and midcourt, keeping the game competitive right until the final whistle.

JUNIOR 1

North Clare 39 v Eudunda Robertstown 9

North Clare were in great spirits as they took the court, working well together and supporting each other across all areas. Their teamwork created strong passages of play and kept the pressure on their opponents. Every player contributed, making it a solid all-round performance from the Roosters. The Saints weren't as competitive on the scoreboard but showed great effort, working hard and moving the ball well across the court throughout the game.

JUNIOR 2

North Clare 19 v Eudunda Robertstown 22

It was a tight first half, with strong defence from both sides, but accurate shooting from Lexi-Jane Stubbs-Galic and Addison Williams saw Eudunda Robertstown take a five-goal lead into the main break. North Clare came out firing in the third quarter, with Matilda O'Brien pulling in key intercepts and Charlotte Ward and Macey Wilson shooting beautifully to give North the lead heading into the final term. However, Eudunda Robertstown finished strongly, with Nellie Mepstead dominating in defence and claiming multiple intercepts to secure a three-goal victory.

SUB-JUNIOR 1

North Clare v Eudunda Robertstown

Eudunda Robertstown played hard and took the lead from the first quarter. Aliya Hawker from North Clare played a great game applying a lot of pressure in defence. Saints were just too strong for North.

Sub-JUNIOR 2

North Clare v Eudunda Robertstown

Saints came out very strong in the first quarter with accurate goal shooting.

Following positional changes North capitalised on this by good team work and strong defence.

North continued to show good passages of play with consistent goal shooting.

Saints continued to apply pressure and contested every opportunity.

An evenly contested game by both sides, although the score did not reflect the standard of this game. Both sides continue to improve their skills as the season progresses.