

Round 4 13th May 2023

BSR v Blyth Snowtown

A1

BSR 59 v Blyth Snowtown 29

BSR started slow in the first quarter with Blyth Snowtown taking that to their advantage to take a two goal lead at quarter time. Blyth Snowtown's defensive effort created opportunities for them to take this lead early. BSR then responded with a great team effort to bring the scoreboard back into their favour. Leah Edmunds was a strong target all day, however, BSR's Anna-Grace Close managed to match her height and shut down that option by taking many intercepts for BSR's goalies to capitalise on. BSR's defence across the court created too much pressure for Blyth Snowtown to overcome. BSR ended up pushing the lead out to take the game home by 30.

BSR 44 v Blyth Snowtown 45

What a game! With the lead changing several times, and a strong fought battle between both teams. Alicia Thomas and Lucy Dare from BSR shot well, and Blyth Snowtown's Georgia Mills fought back strongly. BSR's Courtney Moller and Krystal Rains in defence played a strong game against Blyth Snowtown's Kristen Allchurch and Hannah Hogg in the goal ring. The last quarter was very intense, with Blyth Snowtown getting over the line by one goal.

B1

BSR 33 v Blyth Snowtown 44

Both teams started off strong with the quarter scores level. Annie Smart worked hard in the mid court for BSR driving the ball down the line with good pressure from Blyth Snowtown's defensive line. Lauren Ferme shot strongly for Blyth Snowtown against BSR's Annie Weckert who did not make it easy for her in the ring. A tough first three quarters brought the pressure for the last quarter which saw Blyth Snowtown take the lead by ten goals to finish strong with the win.

BSR 35 v Blyth Snowtown 37

BSR and Blyth Snowtown had a very competitive first half. Both teams had strong passes down the court and into the ring. The last half saw a comeback from Blyth Snowtown with accurate shooting despite BSR having strong defence pressure from Erin Cousins and Amelia Hinge. The game ended with Blyth Snowtown winning by two goals.

C1

BSR 50 v Blyth Snowtown 33

BSR played like a well-oiled team to notch up their first win of the season. The defence trio of BSR's Monique Robson, Tairne Stephenson and Bek Mead made shooting for Blyth Snowtown challenging. The drive through the mid court by BSR's Lucy Trengrove and Jorja Lillecrap was exceptional, making the shooting combination of BSR's Jordyn Hentshke and Brooke Witcombe unstoppable.

C2

BSR 27 v Blyth Snowtown 15

BSR came out strong and determined. Good defensive pressure in the first quarter by BSR's Denisia Jackson and Katie Gribble resulted in several turnovers, giving BSR an early lead. Increased pressure by Blyth Snowtown's centre court in the third quarter made it difficult for BSR to feed the ball into the goal ring, keeping Blyth Snowtown in the game. A strong and structured BSR mid court and accurate shooting by Sierra Heard and Michaela Rains in the last quarter saw BSR come away with a convincing win!

15U

BSR 40 v Blyth Snowtown 38

An evenly matched game, with both sides showing strong defensive pressure down the whole court. The first half saw accurate shooting by Blyth Snowtown's Sky Ebsary, and intense pressure in the mid court by BSR's Lucy Trengove. The third quarter had great movement in both goal circles by BSR's Jess Sommerville and Blyth Snowtown's Ava McCauley. Defensive pressure by Taylor Jones and Lara Meyer gave BSR the edge in the fourth quarter as they got over the line for a hard fought win.

J1

BSR 28 v Blyth Snowtown 24

BSR came out focused and firing. Blyth Snowtown defenders Zahara Bernhardt and Tilly Welke applied strong pressure and got their hands to many balls, but BSR goalies were accurate in the ring. Sarah Trengove in centre for BSR provided steady movement down the whole court. Lucy Nicholls got hands to many balls and Sophie Weckert provided great drive onto the ring. Kartia Altman shot well for Blyth Snowtown and Charlotte Muller was a well-used target in GS. Maysie Freeman played a strong consistent game in GK for BSR and couldn't have done more to shut down the Blyth Snowtown goalies.

J2 – No Game

J3

BSR v Blyth Snowtown

A very even game with strong defensive play by both teams. Blyth Snowtown had the momentum in the second and third quarter with shooters Freya Philipps and Harriet Walker able to capitalise on the turnovers through the mid court. In the last quarter BSR were able to fight back with great intercepts by Bella Thomas and strong passes in to the goal circle which helped even out the score.

J4 - No Game

J5

BSR v Blyth Snowtown

The game started off well for both sides with lovely leads and open court structure. A very even game across the court. Great movement and defence in the centre by Annie Honner and Elsie Angus for Blyth Snowtown, taking many intercepts. Excellent defence by Sadie Thomas for BSR, keeping her eyes on the play and creating many turnovers in GK/GD. Lovely backing up team mates by Elsie Weckert for BSR.

Min-Man v Eudunda Robertstown

A1

Min-Man 48 v Eudunda Robertstown 42

A great game of netball to watch. It was an even three quarters of netball with good defensive play by both teams, with lots of pressure down the court. Min-Man started the last quarter strongly taking the lead by ten goals. Eudunda Robertstown never gave up, going down by six goals.

Min-Man 42 v Eudunda Robertstown 65

Eudunda Robertstown were the first to settle and played strong and experienced netball to lead the first quarter 21 to 12. A tighter tussle in the second quarter with good defence and rebounding by Min-Man's Nicole Blackwell and Olivia Hadley, however Jourdan Jenke was a strong target and shot well all match. Min-Man had some injury changes in the third quarter but finished strong in the last quarter as they settled into their new structure. Eudunda Robertstown however were the more settled team for the game and earned the win.

Min-Man 35 v Eudunda Robertstown 34

Great start by the Min-Man goalies to gain a solid lead in the first quarter. Highly contested play through the mid court saw Eudunda Robertstown settle throughout the quarter. Strong shooting by Eudunda Robertstown's Ella Taverner and Morghan Prior allowed their team to draw level by half time. In the third quarter Min-Man settled and managed to pressure some valuable turnovers giving them a handy lead at three quarter time. A highly contested final quarter saw the Saints claw back the lead, but time beat them and Min-Man were able to come away with the win.

Min-Man 40 v Eudunda Robertstown 41

Eudunda Robertstown had a strong start to the first quarter taking control with Min-Man fighting back to level the scores at eight all. Another evenly contested second quarter with strong attack and accurate shooting on both sides with scores nineteen all at half time. Min-Man steadied in the third quarter and took control with a couple of turnovers resulting in a four-goal lead. A strong last quarter by Eudunda Robertstown with great defence in the goal circle resulting in a fourteen to nine goal turn around and winning the game by one goal.

Min-Man 49 v Eudunda Robertstown 33

A fast-paced start to the game with Min-Man defenders Danielle Wells and Kirby Faint getting some strong intercepts and the goalies rewarding them. Eudunda Robertstown made changes in the second and third quarters and the game evened up with accurate shooting from Jodie Mosey. Eudunda Robertstown continued the pressure in the last quarter, but Min-Man held on for a good win.

C2

Min-Man 32 v Eudunda Robertstown 41

Min-Man started well with good passages of play and strong shooting by Sam Degoumois, to be up by three at halftime. Eudunda Robertstown made positional changes and Jaz Williams went into goals shooting very accurately. Eudunda Robertstown also lifted their defence work and Min-Man went down by nine.

15U

Min-Man 26 v Eudunda Robertstown 46

A strong start to the game with some strong shooting by both teams in the first quarter. Eudunda Robertstown applied pressure all the way down the court and converted their turnovers to a five-goal lead at half time. A strong last half by Eudunda Robertstown, winning by twenty-one.

Min-Man 17 v Eudunda Robertstown 20

Both teams came out fighting but thanks to Min-Man's strong shooting by Amber Smith, Min-Man took the lead in the first quarter. There was a tough battle in the centre court between Min-Man's Amelia Duncan and Eudunda Robertstown's Leni Geister but Min-Man held the lead thirteen to five at half time. Eudunda Robertstown had a very strong third quarter, thanks to accurate shooting by Eudunda Robertstown's Zoe Neal and despite Min-Man's best efforts to hold onto the lead, Eudunda Robertstown's consistency in the ring gave them the overall win by three.

Min-Man 8 v Eudunda Robertstown 21

Strong start by Eudunda Robertstown. Min-Man came back in the second quarter with defence working hard. Great contest between Angela Aves (ER) and Daisy Bryksy (MM). Eudunda Robertstown's Ruby Ah Chee went into centre in the second half supporting a strong attacking end. Min-Man worked hard but Eudunda Robertstown proved too strong.

Min-Man v Eudunda Robertstown

A well-played game by both teams. Min-Man managed well after the disruption of injuries in the first half. Ellie Weedon from Min-Man picked up some great deflections in GK and there was some great goal work by Amelia Reed, Ruby Dixon and Lacey Lillecrapp from Min-Man. Eudunda Robertstown worked hard in defence, particularly Angel Soto who read the play well and got many intercepts. Well done to both teams on a great game.

J4

Min-Man v Eudunda Robertstown

Strong early goal shooting by Min-Man's Maisie Reed and Lily May Barp proved a challenge for Eudunda Robertstown. Smooth movement through the mid court set both teams up for a competitive match. Harriet Mosey scoring accurately for Eudunda Robertstown and Addison Williams strong in defence.

J5 – No Game

RSMU v North Clare

A1

RSMU 50 v North Clare 34

North Clare came out hard at the ball with the first turnover taking an early lead. RSMU stepped up and worked hard to get the ball back in their attack to take an eight-goal lead at half time. North Clare's Chloe Cross (WA) drove hard in the mid court and delivered some great balls into their ring. RSMU's ring defensive pressure was high all game, forcing North Goalies to shoot long giving RSMU many rebounding opportunities. Sophie Griffiths (GS) held strong for RSMU in the goal ring and was a dominant strength all game.

Congrats to Abby Griffiths on her 100th game for RSMU, a confident game in the goal ring from one of the Hawks young guns.

RSMU 35 v North Clare 43

Both teams came out firing from the first whistle, North Clare with a slight edge. North's WA (Alyssa Pawelski) and C (Kelly Shekle) drove the ball through the midcourt and transitioned into the goal ring. RSMU's defences (GK) Rebecca Lockwood and (GD) Simone Miller applied strong defensive pressure to create turn overs. North Clare capitalised on rebounds in the goal ring and transitioned the ball down the court, finishing off strong with accurate goalies and proved to be the stronger side in the end.

B1

RSMU 45 v North Clare 40

This game was always going to be a tough encounter between two undefeated teams. North Clare shellshocked RSMU with a blistering first quarter. The defensive combination of Rebecca Court and Jessica Cullen made it near impossible for RSMU to find space or opportunities. North Clare lead by seven at the first break. Injury and changes saw RSMU peg back the lead in the second. More player movement saw North Clare again make the most of their opportunities re-establishing their seven-goal lead by the third break. Sarah Heaslip RSMU (GS) and Jess Heir RSMU (GA), in her 100th club game, went to work in the last fifteen minutes rewarding the strong efforts of their team and with an eighteen to six goal last quarter, RSMU won by five.

RSMU 42 v North Clare 27

RSMU went out strong in the first quarter making North Clare's defence work hard for any loose balls. At quarter time RSMU took the lead by three goals. Going into the second quarter North Clare came back fighting for every ball bringing RSMU's half time lead to only one goal. As the game went on it was clear both teams were there to play but going into the fourth quarter RSMU's attack line was too good for North Clare with RSMU's goal attack Molly Goodfellow not missing a goal and taking out a convincing win by fifteen goals.

C1

RSMU 16 v North Clare 40

Both teams came out with high energy with RSMU Centre Zoe Altus and North Clare's Centre Eliza Fels setting a strong pace. Accurate shooting from Ruby Redden (North Clare) made RSMU defenders work hard to apply pressure and create turnovers. By halftime North Clare had an eleven-goal lead, leaving RSMU a near impossible task to catch up. RSMU Georgia Eggart shot accurately at every opportunity, but North Clare continued to play strong, resulting in a convincing win.

C2

RSMU 57 v North Clare 20

RSMU started strongly against a young North Clare side. For RSMU centre court players Jess Seeliger and Caitlyn Watson created plenty of drive to the circle, despite the best efforts of North Clare defender Mikalaya Noble. As the game progressed the visitors couldn't match the strength and experience of the home side, and despite some promising signs from young North Clare shooter Sorayah White, a superb performance in goals from RSMU coach Nicole Saunderson led her team to a comfortable victory.

15U – No Game

J1

RSMU 38 v North Clare 22

An evenly contested first quarter from both teams with Ella Llyod North Clare and Jemma Miller RSMU having a tight tussle from beginning to end. The second quarter saw RSMU put their foot down through the attack of Tameaka Saunderson and defence of Macy Glynn. Charlotte Wood (North Clare) worked tirelessly for her team in the defence end, providing rebounds and turnovers. RSMU were able to settle and come away with a convincing win playing a solid four quarters.

RSMU v North Clare

Both teams had strong passages of play throughout the first quarter, with great defensive pressure from Franzisca Hayes Mitchell (North Clare) and Elise Bastian (RSMU) in the respective defence lines. The lead do-si-doed throughout the rest of the game, with consistently strong and confident play from Amelia McInerney (RSMU) and Olive Hombsh (North Clare).

J4

RSMU v North Clare

Spectators welcomed a well-played evenly matched game. An outstanding performance in defence by RSMU Grayce Kelman and Estelle McInerney proving to be the perfect defence duo. North Clare putting up an equally outstanding defence with Ruby Mason and Matilda O'Brien continuously stopping the RSMU attack line. With only twelve centre passes it was a game full of running, interceptive turnovers and loose balls.

J5 – No Game

South Clare v BBH

A1 – No Game

A2

South Clare 45 v BBH 40

South Clare started the game firing with quick feet and excellent feeding from WA Kylie Murphy. Tight defence by Rachel Slusser and Emma Slattery allowed South to take an early lead however, the combined efforts of BBH's Megan Brooks and Amelia Squire saw BBH outscore South Clare in the second quarter. The third saw South Clare turning up their pressure across the court with accurate shooting from GA Lucy Malycha, increasing their lead further. Despite BBH's gutsy efforts in the fourth, bringing the score within one, South Clare were able to steady first, winning the game by five.

South Clare 50 v BBH 36

Defence was strong from both teams with a tied first quarter eleven a piece. South Clare came out hard in the second quarter though BBH weren't going to let them take the game, working hard to reduce South's lead to just two by half time. The second half saw South Clare step it up again. Amanda Jameson hardly missed a beat in goal attack despite the pressure from BBH's Ellie Oates. Lilly Wadlow and Natasha Parsons were strong through the centre court for BBH, but South Clare's work rate, playing hard as a team to win back control and take the game.

South Clare 39 v BBH 37

The game was evenly matched right from the outset. Both defensive ends made crucial turnovers, with Annie Kellock (BBH) reading the play exceptionally well all game. BBH pulled away in the third quarter with wonderful court play by Anastasia Ritchie. The fourth quarter saw South Clare make the most of every BBH error creating opportunities. Billi Malycha ran out a fantastic game to help South Clare win by two.

C1

South Clare 42 v BBH 25

A fair contest between both teams in the first quarter with Tahlia Lockwood (BBH) providing intercepts and rebounds in GK and Tilly Noakes in C bringing it down for BBH. South Clare came into their own in the second half with Raleigh Trias and Bree Mensforth providing many opportunities for their goalies to capitalise on and extend their lead. South Clare overall being the stronger side on the day to take the win.

C2

South Clare 34 v BBH 10

Both teams came out firing in the first quarter with a very low scoring quarter due to lots of defensive turnovers at both ends. The second quarter saw a few changes by both teams with South Clare being the first to settle. Stephanie Linke for BBH applied constant defensive pressure on South's attackers with lots of intercepts. However South's mid courters worked hard with WD and Jade-Lee Fisher (C) getting a many turnovers. South Clare broke away in the third quarter with consistent shooting from Lucy Kimber (GS) and Zoe Griffin (GA). BBH continued to fight into the last quarter with Bree Tiver (GS) and Charlii McBride (GA) working hard in the ring, however South Clare were too strong and came away with the win.

South Clare 26 v BBH 54

The game started out with both teams fighting hard, the first quarter started evenly but BBH's defenders capitalised from South Clare's game play creating strong lead by the end of the first quarter. The second half saw BBH settle within their changes creating strong flow down the court with Emmylou Cooper and Anna Schuppan creating a strong attack line. Regan Smith made good turnovers for South Clare, with South Clare's Ebony Pearse fighting hard against BBH's defence. Both teams battled hard but BBH was extremely consistent and accurate, coming away with a convincing win.

J1 – No Game

J2

South Clare 18 v BBH 30

With J2's having a limited competition of just five teams this season all the girls are pumped to get a game. Both teams came out strong and determined and hungry for the ball. BBH's age and experience gave them the edge, though South Clare worked incredibly hard as a team, giving it their all and holding BBH back from another 30-goal win going down by just twelve. Well done to all girls.

South Clare v BBH

A very tight game with great defence and attacking play by both teams. Whole team tight defence saw South Clare come out strong in the first quarter with Jess Laws getting several deflections in the mid court and Amaya Craig presenting well in the goal ring. BBH came back strongly in the second and third quarters with Abby Sheridan and Emma Sommerville scoring some great goals and Stella O'Bryan getting lots of intercepts. The final quarter was exciting to watch as both teams played some great netball with Sammi McCarthy (South Clare) scoring the drawing goal in the final minute of the game.

South Clare v BBH

Tightly contested game in J4 today. Both teams maintained strong and accurate shooting in the first half thanks to BBH's Ruby Taylor (GA) and Jorja Gebhardt (GS) and South Clare's Clara Ottens (GS) and Chinyere Alozie (GA). The second half saw South Clare's Matilda Manhood (C) provide some important intercepts and Lucy Quinn worked hard all game for BBH. Some great skills on display today.

J5

South Clare v BBH

Both teams played well today. South came out strong with frequent scoring by Sophie Becker (GA) and Charlotte Ottens (GS) in the first quarter. Great defensive play by BBH's Molly Noack (WA) in the first half and great intercepts by Talia Hooper (WD). A great morning of play for both teams.
